ROCK HALL NOTES.

"We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, and behold you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and intend to bring this man's blood upon us. But Peter answering, said, we must obey God rather than men." From the foregoing text Pastor Northrup preached a forceful sermon in the M. E. Church on Sunday morning.

Tomorrow morning the pastor will preach a special sermon on public school education which will prove well worth the effort of every boy and girl their parents or guardians, and the school instructors to be present and hear the same.

Rev. Mr. Northrup, as Supt. of the Sunday School is urging a heroic effort to have the average attendance reach the 200 mark ere the close of the year. A number of the school board are much impressed by the report of the Conference at the Worton M. E. Church on Sunday the 11th inst. They realize that the conditions here are similar to those of Worton and the remedies suggested are applicable to this section.

Our town council having shelled a considerable portion of the main thoroughfare of the town it has made it very annoying to pedestrians, the shells are in the middle of the driveway and drivers of teams aim to keep off the shells, thus driving so close to footway that people have to walk nearly shoetop deep in dust.

The long continued dry weather has swiped the "pumper" off the late potato and cabbage crops in this section.

The sailing yacht, Laura, commanded by Capt. Akers, is tied up at Grey's Inn wharf for the winter.

Capt. Kerr, of the steam yacht Kaleda, who has been off on a summer cruise, was home with his family the past week.

High taxation, high cost of keeping soul and body together and the imposition of a license fee to permit their very young sons to learn how to cull oysters, has got many of our watermen in anything but an amicable disposition. As to the high taxes and high cost of living they understand, but compelled to take out a license for boys less than 15 years old they fail to understand. The law used to permit women and boys under 15 to oyster free of charge. They have seen nowhere the repeal of such law.

A number of our watermen are having lots of sport hook and line fishing on Swan Point.

A Fine Show.—The general verdict is that Haag's show which showed in Chestertown Wednesday was one of the best ever in town and the attendance was large. At the night performance the big tent took fire but was quickly detected by Mr. Arthur Bradley, who notified the showman, and the fire was soon put out. This show will go into winter quarters at Shreveport, La., Nov. 27th. It costs about $1500 per day to run it.

A SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE from the Hopkins Tailoring Co., of Baltimore, will be at the store of Vansant & Newsome, Chestertown, on Sept. 29, 30 and Oct. 1. This firm is making a specialty on suits made to order and is making a success of it.
