Captain Geo. C. Townsend is quite sick at his home on Cypress St.

Mr. James Albert Willis, of Camen, N. J., was the guest a few days this week of his aunt, Mrs. F. C. Numbers.

A pretty little romance which had its beginning in their happy Smyrna School days and has ripened with the succeeding years in "life's school," culminated early Saturday morning (Sept. 17) in the marriage of Miss Gussie Kennard Chandler, one of Smyrna's bright and popular young ladies, to Mr. John Harrison Gearhart, of New York city. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mollie Chandler, of Smyrna, corresponding secretary of the Delaware State Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and of the late Rev. Albert Chandler, of Wilmington Metodist Episcopal Conference. The groom is a son of Mrs. Alexander Faries, of Smyrna, and of the late John S. Gearhart. He is holding at present a fine position with the Edison Electric Company. The ceremony was performed promptly at seven o'clock at the home of the bride s mother on Market street, which was tastily decorated for the occasion, and was witnessed only by the immediate families and a few near friends. Rev. William G. Koons, formerly of Smyrna, now pastor of Scott Methodist Episcopal Church, Wilmington, said the words which made them man and wife and he was assisted by the Rev. Alphens S. Mowbray, D. D., pastor of Asbury Church of Smyrna. The bride was becomingly attired in a blue traveling suit with hat to match. There were no bridesmaids, but the bridal couple were attended by four ushers. They were William Chandler, of Cleveland, Ohio; Walter Chandler, of Brooklyn, New York; Earle Chandler, of Smyrna, and Watson Gearhart, of Brooklyn, New York. The first three are brothers of the bride and the last named is a brother of the groom. Mrs. John Carson, of Baltimore, an aunt of the bride, played the wedding march from Lohengrin. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served by caterer G. Reynolds Stevenson, after which the bride and groom went to Wilmington by automobile where they took the train for a wedding trip North. They were accompanied in the auto as far as Wilmington by the bride's two closest girl friends, Miss Edith Humphreys and Miss Emma F. Stevenson. Mr. and Mrs. Gearhart will reside in Brooklyn, New York, where a cozy little apartment will be in readiness for them. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for a bright and happy married life. Miss Gussie was well-known in our town, having often visited relatives and friends here

The home of Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Gowman on Cypress St., was the scene of a quiet wedding last Wednesday, October 5th, when their daughter, Miss Julia Belle Ferguson, and Mr. L. Bryant Mather, of Baltimore, were united in holy wedlock by the Rev. Dr. Oliver Huckel, of the Associate Congressional Church, of Baltimore. Mr. Irwin, of Baltimore, was best man. The Maid of Honor was Miss Edna Phillips, of Staunton, Va.; bride's maids, Miss Drusilla Meyers, of Ellicott City, and Miss Bessie Hurlock, of Millington. Excellent music was furnished for the occasion by Mrs. J. G. Davidson, of Richmond, Va., and Mr. Elmer Vogt, a pupil of the Maryland School for the Blind, who is a master of violin and piano, and Mrs. D. B. Ford, of Chestertown. Among the guests were Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Huckel, Mr. John Mather, Miss Martha Potts, Miss Eddy, of Baltimore, Mrs. J. G. Davidson, Richmond, and Miss Edna Phillips, of Staunton, Va., Misses Drusilla and Grace Meyers, of Ellicott City, Mrs D. B. Ford, of Chestertown, Mrs. Wm. E. Felton and Miss Daisy Felton, of Millington. Mr. Stevens, of Smyrna, served the wedding breakfast. Mr. Mather is the assistant city engineer, of Baltimore.
