ROCK HALL NOTES.

Last Friday and Saturday were days of rejoicing in this section because of the lifting of the terrible drought, which had hung over us for many weeks. While the rainfall was not sufficient to relieve the well springs yet great good was done in laying the stifling dust, and in the putting of new life in the potato and cabbage crop. Man and beast showed on Sunday the beneficient effect of the refreshing showers.

"Take care of him," "Go thou and do likewise," Luke 10: 35, 37, was the foundation of a forceful and encouraging sermon delivered by pastor V. P. Northrup, on Sunday morning before a good assembly of interested hearers in the M. E. Church, the theme being a part of the motto of Odd Fellowship "Love," "Truth," and a part of the motto of the Patriotic Sons of America, "Fraternity" and "Patriotism." In his opening remarks the good man declared that the secret benevolent societies of the country were doing immense good for God and the world.

In these days of cavil on the part of many churchmen on the (alleged) evil influence of secret societies, it is gratifying to the citizens of this section to have in their midst a minister of the Gospel who knows the truth and has the courage of his conviction in proclaiming the truth. Since secret benevolent societies are governed by wise principles which everywhere uplift humanity and proclaim the doctrine of the "Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man" (for according to the teachings of these orders, no one can be a true "Frater" unless they are faithful to their Creator and fraternal to their fellowman) no man divested of a prejudice mind can decry against them.

Weather permitting the Odd Fellows of this place are anticipating a successful festival and supper this (Saturday) evening. There will be a free-for-all entertainment at the termination of the supper. Somebody is to blame for the holding of two festivals on the same date, but the Wesley Chapel folks will have a most successful affair too, barring stormy weather.

Tomorrow (Sunday) will be observed as Old People's Day at the M. E. Church. A cordial invitation is extended to the aged to be present. The young people are appointed as a committee to personally wait on as many aged folks as possible and induce them to be present. Those who may be unable to attend by reason of infirmities or length of walk are to have conveyance provided them. The pastor Rev. Mr. Northrup, will preach a special sermon. The choir will make special song selection and a joyous season is anticipated,

The St. John's R. C. Society are placing an extensive and substantial hitching rack around the church lawn.

The result of the second days registration for Rock Hall precinct was nine Democrats and 8 Republicans, a total for the two days of 23 Democrats and 14 Republicans.

CHURCH NOTES.

Mrs. Ralph Barnett lead the early service at Christ Church Sunday evening. Dr. F. T. Little preached a masterful sermon on the "Divinity of Christ" to a large congregation at night.

When the semi-annual conference of the Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints (Mormon), opened in Utah last week, President Joseph F. Smith and his counsellors, H. A. Lund and John Henry Smith, addressed the gathering on plural marriages among church members since the issuance of the manifesto of 1890, declaring these marriages contrary to the rules of the church. The speakers announced that polygamy must cease. The open declarations closely follow the excommunication within a week of two members of the church heretofore in high standing. One was a bishop who had married polygamously and the other a patriarch who had officiated at a polygamous wedding.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor—Services next Sunday, Oct. 16th, as usual: 10 30 a. m. preaching; 2.15 p. m., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class; 7 p. m., Song service, followed by short sermon. All invited and made welcome.

Mrs. L. E. Barrett's Sunday school class will hold a Hallow'een Party at the M. E. parsonage on Monday evening, Oct. 31st. Admission 10 cents, including refreshments. Ice cream for sale. A program of interest will be rendered.

At a recent meeting of the Huntley Standard Bearers, the following officers were elected: President, Miss Daisy Barnes; vice-president, Miss Lizzie Davis; recording secretary, Miss Hallie Cooper; corresponding secretary, Miss Louise Gray; treasurer Miss Stephanie Ford. Miss Daisy Barnes was elected delegate to the quarterly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society to be held in Baltimore this week.

Still Pond M. E. Church, Rev. J. H. Beauchamp, D. D., pastor—Preaching 11.45; Epworth League 7.30. All invited.

WE acknowledge that Teddy is "terrible" with his mouth, but the "old guard" will quietly assist in clipping his wings by voting against the Republican ticket, or by taking to the woods on election day.

A Bank Letter To The Ladies

Women sometimes dread transacting business with a bank. They are not familiar with banking methods in many cases, and may have had some experiences which have not made the thing they feared any easier. Such women always leave this bank smiling and happy, dread all gone and glad to come again. The reason is we take special pains with women patrons. If there is any little detail about a transaction not wholly clear to them, we try to make it clear.

We invite the accounts of women, assuring them at all times the most gentlemanly and respectful treatment, gladly giving careful attention to every item of business placed in our hands. We are glad to have them consult us at any time upon matters concerning their business affairs, and will cheerfully advise or suggest as our best judgment directs.
