CECIL voted "dry" by 900 majority.

KERNS, the Grand Old Man of Indiana, will likely be sent to the Senate.

IT is said that Delaware was so small that the Democrats overlooked it! It not only went Republican but also voted "Wet."

THE Corrupt Practices Act is the greatest law ever enacted and the man or men who encourages its violation should be given the full extent of the law.

In the first precinct of the Fourth district only four colored men failed to vote and two of these were sick. In this precinct 26 white men failed to vote—17 Democrats and 9 Republicans.

OLD Worcester, the home of Senator John Walter Smith, is the banner Democratic county on the Shore. This county can always be depended on to help a good cause.

THE election proves that personal abuse and slander has been rebuked by the people. In every instance where Roosevelt in his uncouth and bullish manner attacked a candidate said candidate was elected.

THERE are lessons for some leaders in Kent to learn from the election, viz., that brow-beating and bullying the people, calling everyone a liar who disagrees with them does not always win.

DEMOCRATS should not be misled by Tuesday's elections. The verdict was not so much an endorsement of Democrats as it was a protest against exorbitant tariffs and the consequent high cost of living. Now let the representatives of the party who were elected give clean and honest administrations, and the vote in 1912 will be one of endorsement that will seat a Democratic President and uphold him by the election of a Democratic Senate

The majorities in Kent for Covington were as follows:

Galena	37
Millington	49
Worton	66
Betterton	2
Chestertown	30
Edesville	40
Rock Hall	41
Total	319

Dryden's majorities were:

Kennedyville	12
Pomona	11
Fairlee	60
Total	139

A GALAXY OF BIG MEN.

The election has brought before the country a galaxy of big men any one of whom would make excellent Presidential timber for the Democrats. There is Judge Judson Harmon, a conservative Democrat elected Governor of Taft's own State of Ohio the first time by 14,000 and on Tuesday by 50,000 plurality. Then there is Dr. Woodrow Wilson, a new type of Democratic leader, becomes Governor of a State which for seventeen years has been solidly Republican, a man of high morals, refined and intelligent. Also Dix, of New York, Foss, of Massachusetts, Baldwin, of Connecticut and others.

A GREAT FEAT.

The city dailies with their type setting machines have a rival in the country weekly when it comes to getting out the news. Tuesday night when the NEWS office was packed with seekers after news, Foreman Greenwood surprised everyone by distributing the KENT NEWS EXTRA, which contained the vote of every precinct in Kent, majorities in every county on the shore and the result in New York, Ohio, New Jersey, Massachusetts, &c. This was at ten o'clock and at 10.30 p. m., the crowds had gone home satisfied. This was surely quick work and it was appreciated. This feat was made possible by efficient phone service, faithful election officials, quick news getters, and by expert printers

Election Notes

Peace reigned supreme in Kent Tuesday. Not a single disturbance, no drunkenness, no bribery—surely the millenium in politics is here.

Kent county proved that it was Democratic Tuesday, and the white vote was more than 600 short! There were not more than 50 ballots spoiled and one-half of these were Democrats. Every negro was able to vote and that meant 1500 solid votes for Dryden.

The vote in Chestertown precinct was gotten out in fine style and in the other districts good work was accomplished by the leaders. There was great apathy and men had to be urged to vote.

Mr. Charles L. Dodd proved his fitness for the position he holds, viz.: chairman of the State Central Committee. He was a strong power in the result of Tuesday and to him is due much of the credit. His secretary, Mr. Newell Graham, also did valiant work.

Col. Wright says he is now an applicant for a ticket up Salt river.

The telephone service Tuesday night was very good. Misses Lambert and Reed hustled and did their best to serve all. They got an idea that this was Mr. Charlie Dodd's election, so persistent was he in the afternoon in urging people to vote, but they were told it was "Dodd and Lambert's election."

Mr. George V. Byron, an earnest worker, says it was the price of bacon that did it and just as soon as the election was over meat went down to 14 cents per pound!

Mr. T. W. Eliason, a Republican of the old school, was bemoaning the fact that there was no strong minority party, but since Tuesday he has changed his opinion.

Mr. Sam'l Vannort, a brother to Col. Jos. Vannort, came over on the Ford Saturday and a well-known Republican thinking him to be the Colonel, approached him and remarked, "Well, we're going to get licked again." Mr. Sam'l Vannort laughed and told him he had the wrong man.

One of the surprises to many of the election was the victory of the liquor people in the "wet" and "dry" fight in rural New Castle county. From the returns complete from five of the nine representative districts in the county and partial returns from the others the "wet" have a majority of 600 or more.

Champ Clark, minority leader in the present House of Representatives, when advised that Democrats had won control of the next House of Representatives, expressed his gratification and predicted that the majority would be fifty Democratic members. He will likely occupy the Speaker's chair.

Hon. Jos. A. Wickes was an interested visitor to the NEWS office Tuesday night and expressed his pleasure at the returns. He created considerable laughter when he remarked, "Why we've licked Mr. Roosevelt to a frizzle!"

Judge J. A. Pearce was also an interested listener at the returns and joined with the crowd in the NEWS office in welcoming the glad tidings. He was specially pleased with old Kent.

The opinions expressed by editorials in New York papers are strong against Roosevelt and his doctrines. The Herald, the conservative paper, says:

"The people have expressed their opinion of Mr. Roosevelt, his campaign antics and his 'new nationalism.'

"Ohio, Massachusetts and Connecticut—in which States he made virulent speeches for the Republican candidates—have all elected Democratic Governors, and his almost abject pleading that his own creature be made Governor of New York is answered with the emphatic election of Mr. Dix, whom he so shamefully misrepresented. * * *

"Aesop's fable of the ass that carried the idol is recalled by Mr. Roosevelt's conduct since his return from Europe. Seeing all the people as he went along bend themselves in reverence, the animal fancied that it was to him they were paying obeisance, and in consequence pricked up his ears and flourished his tail. Mr. Roosevelt, received abroad as a former President and hobnobbing with potentates, fancied that it was to him and not to the nation that obeisance was paid, and came back with the megalomaniac notion that he was greater than his country.

"He foolishly fancied that he could browbeat and bully the voters of this State into accepting his personal representative for their Governor and the people of the United States into accepting his revolutionary and ruinous "policies.' He doubtless this morning has a truer measure of his own stature. He is not having 'a corking time,' but he knows more and now possibly will give us all a rest.

The New York "Press" says:

"Yelling 'Liar!' at one's political opponent was more the fashion of the campaign just closed than ever in the history of this practice. Thus the 'short and ugly' word became extremely common. So much so that we may reasonably expect a reaction in the next contest which will cause even the most excitable Hotspur to abstain from the use of this overworked and emasculated noun.

"It denotes a lack of literary skill to call a man a liar when the same thought can be conveyed by the choice of a widely varied assortment of polite equivalents. A man can show his cleverness in composition, and at the same time bring his indictment for falsehood with immensely more force, by shunning the use of the truly ugly and really unconvincing little word."

Speaking of airships, it is said that the Republican party went up Tuesday.

Foraker's loud laughing over Roosevelt's defeat may be heard in Maryland.

The high cost of living is what did it.

The defeat of Ray in Southern Maryland is regretted by all good Democrats.

Lewis' victory in Western Maryland by 860 majority is a grand triumph, and the snickering of Pearre may be heard plainly. Lewis deserved to succeed.

Not since 1890 has Kent county given a majority for the Democrats in an off-year. Covington is a vote getter.

Betterton did finely for the father of our Congressman.

Rock Hall district takes the palm for majorities—and at least 100 Democrats remained at home.

Old Worton did herself well, as did Galena and Millington, as usual. Pomona and Fairlee also held their own.

The Democratic victories in Tuesday's elections have assumed landslide proportions, especially in the East.

The Democrats besides electing governors in New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Ohio and Indiana, have won full control of the next National House of Representatives. New York, New Jersey, New England and even Pennsylvania contributed to this result. The Democratic majority in the lower branch of Congress will be more than 60.

It is also certain that several States that are now represented in the United States Senate by Republicans will send Democrats in their stead. These States include New York, Indiana, New Jersey and Ohio.

Pennsylvania's gubernatorial vote was the closest in many years. Conservative estimates indicate that John K. Tener, Repnblican, has been elected Governor by 20,000 plurality over Wm. H. Berry, Keystone nominee, with Webster Grim hardly in the running.

Pennsylvania Republicans lost five seats in Congress. Although many independent nominees were elected to the Legislature, that body will remain Republican by a large majority.

Colonel Roosevelt met his Waterloo indeed in New York. John A. Dix, Democrat, was elected Governor over Henry L. Stimson, Republican, by 65,000 plurality. The entire Democratic State ticket was elected, running somewhat behind Dix. The Democrats captured the lower House of the Legislature and the Senate also. That will insure a Democratic U. S. Senator to succeed Chauncey M. Depew. It may be Judge Parker.

In New Jersey Dr. Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, was elected Governor over Vivian M. Lewis, Republican, by a plurality of from 25,000 to 35,000. The Democrats elected seven Congressmen. They captured the Legislature on the joint ballot and will elect a Democratic United States Senator. It is likely to be either Martin or ex Senator Smith.

Governor Judson Harmon, Democrat, was re-elected in Ohio by from 50,000 to 75,000 plurality. Republicans lost many Congress seats, and it seems certain that the Democrats will be able to elect the successor to United States Senator Dick, Republican.

West Virginia "turned over" and four Democratic Congressmen are sure. Senator Scott's seat is being sought by four candidates, including John W. Davis, elected to Congress in the First, usually a Republican district, by 2,000.

Delaware Republicans defeated the only insurgent, Dr. Caleb Layton. The Republicans have 31 votes on a joint legislative ballot to 21 Democrats, and Senator Dupont will be returned.

TURKEYS WANTED FOR THANKSGIVING AND FOR CHRISTMAS

We advertised in your County last year and numbers of people shipped us their Turkeys and were well pleased. We hope all these who did this have a nice shipment or two for us this season, and that those who didn't try us last year will do so this season. Our house has been established thirty years, and absolutely reliable. Our motto is, "Fancy goods, fancy prices and a square deal." It will pay everyone who has a half dozen or more nice Turkeys to get our dressing and shipping instructions and kill and ship to us. We have a very heavy patronage from producers as well as dealers throughout Virginia and West Virginia and many other States, and they continue to ship us year after year. If they were not making money by it they would not do this. If it's money to them why not to all. We handle only fancy goods and supply the fancy buyers of Philadelphia and nearby cities who want the best and are willing to pay a high price to get it. If you have nice, fat poultry, it will certainly pay you to ship to a house that has always made a specialty of that class of goods. From present outlook the market is going to be high on all kinds of Poultry and most specially Turkeys. We must have thousands to supply our trade. Send us your name at once, and we will keep you posted on prices, and tell you what days to ship. We give all shipments our personal attention and obtain the very top market prices, give full weights, send prompt returns and a good check. You are absolutely sure of your money if you ship to us. We handle all kinds of Produce, and always place it for its full value. Eggs are selling high, and we want more than we are getting. Ship freely and we will please you. Let us have your name AT ONCE.

Yours for business,
