A gold twenty-dollar piece weighs 516 grains, of which nine-tenths is pure gold.

Abandoned Naval Rank

The rank of commodore in the United States navy was abolished by congress in 1899, when commodores became rear admirals.

Pastors' Summer School Is Opened

Pastors from many sections of the State Monday registered at the opening of the summer school for ministers at the University of Maryland, which continued through Saturday. The school is under joint auspices of the university and Washington College, Chestertown.

The purpose i s"to study in a serious way the problems of life in rural and metropolitan areas and in particular the problems of every church and pastor endeavoring to administer an effective program for these areas in this confused age."

The session this year grew out of a suggestion by President Raymond A. Pearson to join the resources and experience of the university and Washington College schools. Next year's sessions will be held at Chestertown.

Dr. Paul E. Titsworth, president of Washington College, is dean of the faculty. Every evening will be devoted to inspirational lectures.

The instructors were:

Dr. Arthur E. Bennett, of the Adult Education Bureau of Iowa; Dr. Harold F. Cotterman, University of Maryland; Dr. Mark A. Dawber, superintendent of rural work of the Methodist Episcopal Board of Missions; Dr. George H. Preston, State Commissioner of Mental Hygiene of Maryland; Dr. Samuel H. De Bault, University of Maryland, and Dr. William Burdick, director of Maryland Playground Athletic League.
