IN MEMORIAM.

In sad and loving remembrance of our dear son, WILLIAM FRANK ROLDER, who fell asleep seven years ago, December 27, 1903.

As the stars o'erhead are gleaming,
Oftimes we sit alone;
In our hearts there is a feeling
That our dear son must come home.
Oh, Frank, could you but speak to us,
And could you live again,
Our aching hearts would then be healed,
But this we wish in vain.
BY HIS PARENTS.

In loving memory of SALLIE EVERETT LAMPLY, who died Sept. 25th, 1910.

Dearest wife, how I miss you,
Since from earth you passed away;
And my heart is aching sorely
As I think of you to day.
LOVING HUSBAND.

A beautiful life is ended,
A dear one laid to rest;
The flower I lovingly tended
But God He knoweth best.
MOTHER.

Into sweet rest she has entered,
No more to wake or to weep;
She is smiling upon us from Heeven.
Our loved one has fallen asleep.
FATHER.

Though suffering she breathed not a murmur,
For the Comforter stood by her side;
And whispered, Fear not, I am with thee,
And with Me thou shalt ever abide.
SISTER BELLE.

You are not dead to us, dear sister,
But as a star unseen,
We hold that you are ever near,
Though death intrudes between.
SISTER ESSIE.

When they ask us do we miss her,
How it fills our heart with pain;
But her voice seems sweetly calling,
Courage—we shall meet again.
SISTER MAGGIE.

To live for Christ it was her pleasure,
To die for Him it was her gain;
For on the cross our Saviour suffered
That she and all might live again.
SISTER MABEL.

Sleep on, dear sister,
Take your rest.
God called you home,
He thought it best.
BROTHER.

There is grief that cannot find comfort,
And wounds that cannot be healed,
And sorrow so deep to the human heart
That it cannot be revealed.
AUNT MAGGIE.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Compliments of the season, Messrs. Editors. May this Christmas tide be one of unalloyed joy to you and yours.

The Christmas entertainment and treat of the M. E. Sunday School will be held on Tuesday evening next.

Our merchants who are up-to-date seem to have done a most satisfactory Xmas business.

Rev. Mr. Northrup will conduct an old-fashioned Love Feast at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning in lieu of an early morning Christmas service. Special Christmas sermons will be delivered by him in the forenoon and evening at the M. E. Church.

Mr. J. W. Downey and Capt. J. E. Apsley are rendering big assistance to the oystermen here. Each are large dealers in oysters, paying from 40 to 50 cents a bushel and shipping their stock in barrels.

Some of the oyster buyers here are running their cargoes to Cambridge rather than to Baltimore, as Cambridge dealers pay higher prices than the Baltimore packers.

Mr. Bramble, who has been tenanting the Minnick farm in lower Eastern Neck for a number of years is moving up Bettie Martin Hill for 1911. Mr. F. E. Stevens will move from below Edesville, to Eastern Neck Island and will tenant the "Jones" farm next year.

Our oystermen got clear of the ice blockade on Monday but are now inside of another jam.

The mask ball here on Wednesday evening was not very well attended owing to the cold blast of Wednesday.

Rev. Mr. Arters, Anti-Saloon League Superintendent, occupied the M. E. pulpit here on Sunday evening and made an interesting address in the interest of temperance.

CAPTAIN TAYLOR A BOWLER

Master of The B. S. Ford Makes Some Fine Scores on Chestertown Alleys.

Capt. William E. Taylor, of the steamer B. S. Ford, is a very modest man, so modest, in fact, that he cannot be induced to talk about his skill in various pastimes. The captain's friends at Chestertown, however, think that his light as an athlete should not be hidden under a bushel, and they have sent to The Sun the score at duckpins rolled by him on the Chestertown alleys last Thursday night. The performance, which will compare with the best of the Baltimore bowlers, was as follows:

Fairlee Grange Meeting.

Fairlee Grange, No. 249, held a special meeting December 14th. The meeting opened at 2 30 p. m., with the Worthy Master in the chair. A very profitable as well as pleasing program was rendered. The Lecturer being of an inquiring mind asked the following questions before starting the literary features.

Why should every farmer belong to the Grange? Answered by Bro. Wm. G. Smyth.

Is the model husband any different when away from home? Answered by Sister L. M. C. Smyth.

Is a cow or a chemist the better judge of cattle foods? Answered by Bro. E. A. Corey.

The Worthy Master then told how much weariness constituted a valid excuse for staying home from church.

Sister Acca Crew was asked what good our Grange had done in the community, which was ably answered.

Sister H. C. Willis when asked why people attended church, answered to the point and was ably seconded by Sister Ida Crew.

Bro. H. T. Rash, the weather prophet of our Grange, was then asked to foretell the weather by the goosebone which was presented to him by the Lecturer. His reply was very amusing and pleasing to all.

The literary program was opened by a song entitled "Seasons" sung by the choir which was followed by a reading by Sister Fletcher.

Sister Kilbourn then read part first of Grange Garner; song by choir, "Under the Snow."

Bro. J. T. Anthony then gave a talk on dairying which was much enjoyed. This was followed by a song by the choir. Sister Kilbourn then read part second of Garner. Miss Pauline Willis gave a spicy recitation which was followed by a selection by the choir. Miss Francis Corey rendered an interesting recitation and Sister Kilbourne then read part third of the Garner.

Sister Kilbourn as editress, was much complimented on her Garner as it was instructive, edifying and sparkling with wit.

The French mocking birds, as the editress called them, then gave a duett and received a hearty encore. The Grange closed with a song by choir, "Father We Rest in Thy Love." A recess was declared and all retired to the supper room.

About 6 30 the meeting was again called to order and Bros. Anthony and Smyth and Sister Crew gave a milk test with the Babcock tester. The milk tested was from the Crew Dairy some testing as high as 7 per cent.

The Grange gave Bro. Anthony a rising vote of thanks. A social time was then enjoyed by all with such amusements as cake-walks, dancing and relating incidents of childhood.

All left at 10 o'clock p. m., saying what a grand time we had. The next special meeting will be held Jan 11, 1911.

Special program for New Year's on Wednesday evening.

Banks May Increase Stock.—State Bank Commissioner Downes Wednesday approved applications for increasing the capital stock of two State banks. Offer a Site.—Mr. C. W. Clements, of Crumpton, is trying to get a canning factory for the town. As a special inducement Mr. Clements has offered the company two acres of land upon which to build their factory as a gift from the town. He is supported in this move by Mr. Alday Clements and Dr. F. N. Shepard, of Kent county.

A Merry Christmas

The holidays are with us—Christmas, the day of good cheer; New-Year, the day of good resolutions. We use our space this week in wishing our patrons in particular and the community in general "A Merry Christmas." This wish comes from the warmest corner of our hearts, as we fully realize that our efforts to please our rapidly increasing patrons has been fully appreciated.

Who is there among us too old to remember the Christmas of childhood? Is there one who does not look back upon it as the happiest days of his life? Probably the next happiest day—to many, at least—is the day they made their first deposit in the bank. Your increased prosperity dates from that time, and at this happy Yule-tide you have been enabled to make your family and friends presents of real value from the interest money that your savings account has made for you while you have slept.

Beautiful and right it is that gifts and good wishes should fill the air like snowflakes at Christmas tide. What better wish could you have for your friends and neighbors than that they do as you have done—deposit their idle money in bank—so that next Christmas they, too, can make presents from the interest their small deposits have made for them. Would it not be a kind act for you to suggest this to any of your friends in whom you feel an interest? Come to this bank with them and help to start them on the road to prosperity before the New Year begins.

One of our savings pass books, with a credit of one dollar or more, would make a fine Christmas present.
