New-Year Greeting

DECEMBER 31, 1910.

To Our Patrons:

We want to thank each one of you for your favors during the year just closed. We have tried to serve you with all the efficiency and dispatch possible. The fire came and destroyed our plant at the close of a very busy season, but during all this time you bore with us and helped us by your waiting at a time when we were in need of your patronage. We are at work now erecting a new and up-to-date brick building, and want to equip it with modern and up-to-date tools and machinery, so that we shall be better prepared to serve all your needs than we have ever been before. Trusting that we shall merit an increased share of your patronage, and wishing you Health, Happiness and Prosperity, we are yours to serve.

GREETING

Nineteen 'Leven

THIS isn't business—it's just good cheer; a reach of the hand, a hearty shake, and the best of wishes for a bright and happy New-Year.

For a moment we want to forget the clamor of industry, the dry accounts, and the hurly-burly of trade. We'll just lean back and admit that the old world isn't a half bad place after all, and that the most of us are mighty good fellows at heart, if care and vexation didn't put a crimp in our good natures.

We see wistfully that the old year is gone. Bitter or sweet, it is one more year laid away; and the bunch of years that is ours is none too large. With a sigh for the passing year, we'll forget pessimism and smile in anticipation of the new one facing us so glad and shining. So here's for "the larger good," for the fulfilled hopes and realized dreams and the conviction that our cordial relations are today going to be the stronger between us.

Sincerely yours,

FAIRFIELD'S FEED BLOOD TONICS

A SEPARATE PREPARATION FOR HORSE, COW, HOG AND POULTRY

GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIERS

The working capacity of any horse can be practically doubled by feeding FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC for HORSES regularly. It exterminates worms, builds up the health and saves feed.

The farmer that sowed wheat all over his farm and expected to reap a crop of wheat, oats and corn from same, would be more foolish than the man who feeds his horse, cow, hog and poultry from the same package of Condition Powder and expects to get results. The intelligent farmer feeds FAIRFIELD'S, because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal.

Wedded.—Mr. William Walter Taylor and Mrs. Willie S. Edwards, both of Worton Manor, Kent county, went to Baltimore Tuesday and were married by Rev. Dr. J. M. Sheridan, president of the Maryland Conference, Methodist Protestant Church. The ceremony was performed at the minister's residence, 1420 Linden avenue. Mr. Taylor is a well-known farmer of Kent county. The couple will live at Mr. Taylor's home near Worton.

A TAX-PAYER in the Treasurer's office this week called all hands "cut-throats!" These gentlemen who collect the tax get a great deal of unjust censure. The blame should be put higher up. They simply carry out the law.

SUPPER.

The Ladies of Salem M. E. Church will hold a SUPPER at the hall in Fairlee, Thursday, Jan. 5, 1911. Supper 35 cents, beginning at 5 P. M. If stormy, next evening. d24 2t

HORSES AND CATTLE BURNED.

Fire broke out on the farm of Dr. James W. Urie, near Still Pond, between 12 and 1 o'clock Saturday morning and destroyed the stable and barn, together with six horses, three mules, six fine cows, twenty-one sheep, six brood sows, a quantity of hay, corn and fodder. The farm is tenanted by a colored man named Butler, faithful and reliable. He says he went home and went to bed Friday night and when he arose the whole place was burned. He says a mule which he had put in the stable was found straying about the yard. There was no insurance except about $200 on the building, so that the loss will amount to about $2500.

THE "WHITE WAY"

Chestertown Officers Visit The "White Way" And Make Several Arrests For Selling Liquor, Etc.

A young man from the upper part of Kent whose vessell was laid up for the winter at Georgetown visited Chestertown a few days ago and fell into the hands of the "Philistines." He met a "friend" up near the Square who invited him to have a game and he acquiesced. They went to Scott's Point where a shanty was entered and for several hours the cards were shuffled, there being six young men participating.

At 12 o'clock (Saturday) the keeper of the house told them they would have to leave, which they did, but soon found a welcome in another shanty close by. At this place there was plenty of liquor and men came and went leaving 25 cents for each pint of liquor, which was divided in every case between two men. The young "stranger" says he finally became sleepy and laid down and upon awaking found his $70 missing!

Officer Cooper has arrested George and Perce Johnson on a charge of selling liquor and "Hicks" Gardiner on the charge of larceny.

Several other writs for gambling on Sunday have been issued.

XMAS ENTERTAINMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elburn entertained a large company of young people at their home near town on Wednesday evening. A pleasant evening was spent by all present.

The scholars of Emmanuel Church Sunday school were visited by old Kris in the person of Mr. J. E. Ferguson Wednesday night and gifts of various kinds distributed.

The Chestertown M. E. Sunday school held its carols and treat in the church Sunday evening. After the preliminary exercises up-stairs the children all went to the Sunday school room and were given a box of candy and orange.

A special Xmas program was presented at Christ Church by the Sunday school Sunday night. "The Song of the Bells" was the title of the service and never were the carols sweeter nor better rendered than on this occasion. The singing was accompanied by an orchestra comprised of Messrs. Warren C. Hurlock and Ralph McFeely, violins; Arthur Bacon and John C. Cannan, cornets; Foster Cannan, trombone; Miss Clara B. Usilton, organist. A collection of $14 was taken up as a special gift to a needy cause. Among the features besides the singing and music were scripture reading and prayer by Prof. Walter Gale, of Baltimore; recitations by Misses Edna Kirby, Virginia and Laura Nicholson, Olive Kent, Evelyn Russell, Sallie White, Helen Kendall, Elizabeth Burke, Dorothy Woodall, Flossie Kent, Mildred Hoyle, Irene Kirby, Thos. Elliott.

A very enjoyable reunion in celebration of the Christmas time was held at the home of Rev. J. A. Arters in Middletown on Monday, December 26th, attended by nearly all the members of the family. The following were present: Rev. J. A. Arters and wife, of Middletown, Del., Rev. W. E. Matthews and wife, of Smyrna, Del., Mr. W. E. Ringgold and wife, of Chestertown, Md., Mrs. F. E. Thomas, Miss Leia Thomas, Miss Elsie Thomas, of Stevensville, Md., Rev. John M. Arters and wife, of Wilmington, Delaware, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elburn and Miss Ethel Ringgold, of Chestertown, Miss Bessie C. Matthews and Mr. Wm. E. Matthews, Jr., of Smyrna, Del., Dr J. R. Morris, of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Annie Fallis, of Middletown, Del. Dinner was served at two o'clock, after which a photograph of the family group was taken by Mr. Robert Woolford, a well-known amateur photographer of Middletown, Delaware.

Severely Hurt.—Capt. Thos. D. France, of Chestertown, was painfully hurt on Christmas Eve at Wilmington. Captain France had been to Baltimore and at Wilmington had to change cars to the lower Delaware train. In going up the aisle of the car he stumbled over a dress suit case and injured his left leg very seriously. It was very dark in the car at the time, as the lamps had not been lighted. It is fortunate indeed that he did not fall on his head and receive a more severe hurt. Dr. Frank B. Hines, physician to the Pennsylvania Railroad, is attending him, and he is getting along fairly well.

Revival.—Dr. Little announces revival services to begin in Christ Church the first week in February. Miss Smith, an evangelist of high reputation, accompanied by a singer, are expected to assist in the services.

Chestertown M. E. Church Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., Pastor. Services tomorrow Jan. 1st as follows 10.30 a. m., Sacramental service; 2.15 p. m. Sabbath School with missionary offering; 7 p. m. Song services followed by brief sermon by the pastor subject: "The Desired Haven and How to Reach It." Revival services every evening next week except Saturday—All invited.
