"I have but one Lamp by which my feet are guided and that is the lamp of experience." PATRICK HENRY.

Seventeen years ago the KENT COUNTY SAVINGS BANK began business in the midst of a panic that closed the doors of many of the strongest Banks in America.

Since that time it has survived all panics and successfully met all competition. For 5 years it paid 3% on savings or time deposits before any other Bank in Kent county paid anything.

Then the Chestertown National Bank, the richest and strongest bank in this section, advertised to pay 4% on deposits. It had a surplus and profits nearly equal to its capital; but when it wound up it had sunk its surplus, and the accumulated profits of twenty years business.

The last Bank to advertise 4% for deposits except a recent venture was the Galena Bank of the Farmers' Trust, Banking & Deposit Co., of mournful memory; and the echo of its crash still lingers, and its depositors still smart from their losses.

Does not Experience teach?

Therefore deposit your money in the soundest, strongest Savings Bank in this part of Maryland and be sure of your Principal and Interest when you need it.

We issue no long time certificates of deposit that will prevent you getting your money should you want it.

Remember, that "Safety Beyond All Else," has always been the motto of this, the Pioneer Savings Institution of this part of Maryland.

So bring your deposits to us where the same rate of interest is paid on SMALL DEPOSITS as on GREAT and all are treated alike.

These will protect your interests.

The wharf property owned by Messrs. J. D. Bacchus and Fred. G. Usilton has been transferred to Mr. Frederic H. Russell. Russell knows the needs of the town and meets same as far as he is able.

The C. O. Burns farm, near Galena, has been transferred to Capt. James E. Woodall. This is one of the most eligible farms in the First District and has been lately improved with new buildings, etc.

Mr. Edward Crow, of New York, has purchased of Mr. John Bell a 100 foot lot on Washington Avenue, adjoining Mr. Bell's new home. Mr. Crow expects to build a residence on the lot. Welcome to Kent, Mr. Crow.

Capt. T. S. Pfeiffer has hold to Mr. F. G. Usilton the lot near Cannon street, adjoining the residence occupied by Mr. J. Hall Denny, and measuring 85 feet front by 147 feet depth. It will be used either for residences or for business purposes.

We are glad to report that Mr. T. S. Bordley has about completed negotiations with the Bordley heirs for the purchase of the Bordley corner at a satisfactory price. Mr. Bordley will erect a modern building here soon as possible.

H. W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., attorney, has sold to Mr. Wm. J. Maslin, the Bowers farm in Quaker Neck, on Chester river, and now tenanted by Mr. Claude Blackiston. The price is not stated but is reported to have been about $7,000.

Dr. G. Irving Barwick and wife have sold their home in Kennedyville to Mr. Linwood Redmile for $2,000. This fine property will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Redmile. The doctor, who has removed to Baltimore, was in Kennedyville Wednesday and consumated the sale made by Mrs. B. last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Lynch have sold to Mrs. Martha E. Turner, of Betterton, 86 acre farm in Fourth district of Cecil county for $6,000.

Driving Club Meets.—The Worton Driving Association met on Tuesday last in Stam's Hall, Chestertown, with nearly forty persons present. The following officers were elected:

President—Albert Story.
Vice President—J. Biddle Hossinger.
Treasurer—Geo. W. Rash.
Secretary—Jas G. Beck.
Track Committee—H. P. Skipper, J. E. Ferguson, J. E. Stauffer.

Several matinee races are being arranged for one of which will be held on Decoration Day and another on July 4th.

Kent County Dog Wins at Dog Show.—"Kent," a Chesapeake water dog, owned and exhibited by Charles Bigelow, of Birdsboro, Pa., won two prizes at the Reading Kennel Club, of Reading, Pa., held on Feb. 2, 3 and 4, taking first prize of blue ribbon on points and blue and white ribbon as winner of class. Mr. Bigelow received the dog as a gift from Mr. Burton Atkinson, of Rock Hall, and named him after the county.

FAIRLEE NOTES.

A milk route thru Fairlee would pay.

The ground-hog must have seen his shadow.

Brother J., Rock Hall, you stick to the 90's and we will stick to the 70's.

Mr. John P. Nicholson visited Washington last week, spending several days.

The Fairlee Minstrels are hard to beat. The show is a clean one and highly entertaining.

Mr. Samuel Gears had quite a fire some days ago—a new stable and good building. Origin unknown.

Mr. W. Frank Jarrell has delivered some fine hay to some of our villagers off his farm, near here, tenanted by Mr. Vansant.

The "Old Maids" will hold a convention in the Fairlee Hall very soon. Many will attend the convention from all quarters.

Some have suggested air-ships to travel around in during the muddy weather. We haven't heard that our doctor is seriously considering the matter for winter use.

Farmers, who are ready to retire, we invite you to settle in Fairlee. Certainly we have many inducements to offer. We have quite a number retired folks now and we welcome them.

Mr. Charlton Kidd, one of Fairlee's boys of some years ago, has entered a Methodist Conference in Virginia, and is having great success in his work, often preaching to a congregation of more than two hundred.

We had the pleasure to witness the conferring of the Third and Fourth Degrees in Fairlee Grange to a large class Wednesday evening. The ceremony was very impressive and the work beautifully executed by the Degree team.

Why not have a broom factory in Fairlee? Farmers guarantee some enterprising individual sufficient acreage in broom corn to start one. Brooms are very high, and farmers, if they had a factory near them, would find the culture of this corn very profitable and the factory man his business renumerative.

Dr. Frank W. Smith has had some very sick patients on Poole's Island, in the family of Mr. John Usilton. He has had some rough experiences in reaching the Island in gasoline craft, but the fishermen along the bay are so willing to take him across. The condition of the roads has placed the Doctor's automobile out of commission and his horses are taxed to their utmost because of his extended practice, driving day and night.

THE board of directors of the Kent Building and Loan Company at their regular meeting on Monday night elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Pres., Thomas H Topping; vice-president, L. Bates Russell; secretary and treasurer, J. Waters Russell; counsellor, John D. Urie; member executive committee, Thos. S. Bordley.
