STILL AT IT

We will continue our

GREAT REDUCTION SALE

OF

Suits and Overcoats

Through the entire month of February.
In fact all

Winter Wearables

will be cleaned up at temptingly low prices preparatory to Spring invoices.

Come Early

while we have a fair assortment, there's a very good line left yet, but they will soon be cleaned up at the prices we are quoting.

MOODY & LUSBY

Directly Opp. Court House, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Personal ❋ ❋ ❋ ❋ and Social

Mr. J. Hydie Thompson is at Mercy Hospital for special treatment and we are glad to report him doing nicely. His wife is with him.

Mr. James Cain gave a seven course luncheon last Friday evening to six young ladies and six young gentlemen, college mates, at the home of his parents on College Hill.

Mrs. Elderdice, nee Miss Ida Wood, formerly of Kent, is recuperating from an important operation at the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore. Miss Wood was a popular and beloved teacher of lower Kent before marrying Dr. Elderdice. She has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Mr. Kennard, father of Mr. Jos. Kennard, formerly of Kent Circle, has had one of his feet amputated. He is 90 years of age.

Miss Bertha Lynch, of Warwick, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor and family near town.

Misses May and Ruth Taylor entertained quite a number of young people at their home, "Riverside" near town on Friday evening, Feb. 3. About thirty were present and all had a pleasant time.

The E. P. U. embroidery club of Betterton, met at the home of Mrs. Lewis on Thursday, Feb. 2. It being "ground hog" day also the wedding anniversary of one of the members, the hostess had prepared a surprise. When they were invited to the dining room refreshments had been prepared and in the centre of the table (seemingly to greet them) was his honor "Mr. Ground Hog." The club will meet next Thursday at Mrs. Chas. Brice's.

Mr. Hazel Catts left Massey this week for Wilmington to enter Goldey's College.

Master Raymond Joiner, of Massey, left that place last Monday morning for Wilmington to attend the Pennsylvania School of Telegraphy and Typewriting.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP IS THE best remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat and grippe. It never fails to cure promptly.

DIED.

Jan. 12th, 1911, GERTIE STRADLEY, daughter of W. S. and E. L. Stradley, aged 2 years, 8 months and 25 days.

Our little darling has left us,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

Earth hast lost a look of gladness,
Heaven seems to us more bright;
Since the spirit of our little darling
Took its happy homeward flight.

Then let our sorrow cease to flow,
God has recalled his own;
But let our hearts in every woe
Still say, "Thy will be done."

MOTHER.

Lovingly and tenderly we laid her to rest,
Away from earth's sorrow and care.
And now she is waiting to welcome us home,
And the blessing of heaven to share.

We often sit and think of her,
When we are all alone;
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.

UNCLE WILLIE.
