ARBOR DAY AT SASSAFRAS.

Arbor Day was most beautifully observed at the Sassafras school on Friday afternoon last, and too much praise cannot be given to the teacher, Miss Mabel Price, and her well trained scholars. The day was an ideal one, and the teacher and her scholars seemed as bright and happy as the beautiful sunshine. Mrs. W. S. Morris presented to the school a beautiful flag, under the auspices of the Jr. O. U. A. M., which floated over the school. Mrs. Morris made very beautiful and appropriate remarks in her usual bright manner, which were most pleasing to all. The following was the program:

Singing ..... School
Recitation ..... Louis Johnston
Recitation, "A Wish for Rain" ..... Katherine Adams
Recitation, "Dolly's Lesson" ..... Mary Colgain
Song by Class of Girls ..... "Don't Kill the Birds"
Recitation, "What the Sparrow Chirps" ..... Louise Morris
Recitation, "Should We Forget" .. Myrtle Morris
Recitation, "The Scarecrow" ..... Irene Hendrickson
Reading by Teacher ..... Miss Mabel Price
Dialogue, "School Improvement Club" ..... Class of Girls and Boys
Recitation ..... Evelyn Stidman
Recitation, "Planting a Tree" ..... Lillian Rosin
Recitation, "Tidings of Spring" .. Lineta Morris
Recitation, "Planting Himself to Grow by Mother Earth" ..... Class of Little Girls

I feel particular mention should be made of Lucy Griffith, Allen Johnson, Irvin Atwell, Margaret Caulk, and all did excellent. There was a large company of parents and invited guests present. Ice-cream and cake in abundance was served to all and a most pleasant time was enjoyed.
