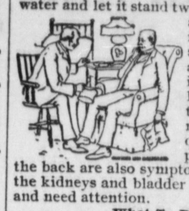
Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.



What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

Home of Swamp-Root.

You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

ORATORICAL CONTEST.

Westminister, Md., April 28.—The thirteenth annual contest of the Oratorical Association of Maryland Colleges was held Friday evening in Alumni Hall, Western Maryland College. The exercises were interpersed with songs by the Western Maryland College Glee Club, James W. Reese, of the faculty of Western Maryland College, president of the association, presided. Rev. Dr. T. H. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College, delivered an address of welcome, to which Dr. James W. Cain, President of Washington College, Chestertown, responded. The contestants and their subjects were as follows:

Washington College—Calvin Taylor Ryan. The Monroe Doctrine an American Fetich.

Maryland Agricultural College—Lindsey McDonald Silvester. A plea for a Larger Standing Army.

Western Maryland College — Carl Twigg, Lawlesness in America.

St. John's College—Henry L. Johnson, Pan-Americanism.

Alternates of the orators selected for the contest were: Frederick Stanley Porter, Washington College; William Beek Kemp, Maryland Agricultural College; Kent Roberts Greenfield, Western Maryland College; L. Claude Bailey, St. John's College.

The judges were: Judge Thomas Ireland Elliott, of Baltimore: Prof. Sidney T. Moreland, of the McDonogh School, and Samuel K. Dennis, of Baltimore.

They decided in favor of Lindsay McDonald Silvester, of Maryland Agricultural College, for first honor and Carl Twigg, of Western Marylad College, for second honor. Each will receive a gold medal.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES

Saturday afternoon thirteen more new members were received into the Kennedyville Grange, taking the third and fourth degrees. These new members are mostly young people. At the close of the conferring of degrees the doors of Weer's Hall were thrown open to the public, and the exercises turned over to the worthy lecturer, Mr. John Medders, who had on hand a very interesting program. The members of the Grange were out in quite a large force, and when the doors were open to the public a large number came in, making a very full house. First on the entertainment part was a very carefully prepared and instructive paper on raising turkeys, by W. M. Clendaniel, which was listened to with marked attention.

Mrs. Tilghman Shafer and Miss Anna Wickes Melvin each gave a most interesting and entertaining reading, interspersed with quite a good deal of humor. The program was accompanied with instrumental and vocal music, Miss Nellie Othoson delighted the large audience with a charming solo. At the close of the entertainment part, a bountiful supper was in readiness, of which many partook. All seemed to have a good time, and the social feature was most delightful.

The Kennedyville Grange is to attend divine service in the Methodist Protestant Church in a body next Sunday morning, May 7th, by special invitation of the pastor, meeting at the Hall at 10.15 a. m. sharp, and going from there to the church at 10.30. All Grangers, as well as everybody else, are most cordially invited. Special music in charge of the "worthy lecturer," and an address by the pastor.

Miss Emma Shafer, the popular and proficient primary teacher in the M. P. Sunday School, was on the sick list last Sunday.

Mrs. Isaac Cleaver was at church Sunday morning after an absence of some months on account of the indisposition of her good husband. Mr. Cleaver is very much improved.

The State Road men are again at work on the unfinished part between Kennedyville and Chestertown; and at the completion of that will continue their work on to Locust Grove.

GIVEN A LINEN SHOWER.

A delightful "linen shower" was given on Thursday for Miss Justine B. Peverley at the home of Mrs. Julian H. Foard on Cochran street, Middletown. It was given in view of her approaching marriage to Mr. James E. Woodall Jr., of Georgetown, which will take place during the summer. It was a complete surprise to Miss Peverley. The gifts received were exceedingly pretty, towels, dollies and many other beautiful linen pieces being among them.

The guests at the "surprise" were Mrs. John Welch of Georgetown, Md., a sister of the groom-elect, Mrs. Carl Harrington of Baltimore, Mrs. Julian Cochran, Mrs. Julian Foard, Mrs. Dorsey W. Lewis, Mrs. Henry S. Brady, Miss Dora Price, Miss Helen Brady, Miss Susie Foard, Miss Bessie Cochran, Miss Patton Cochran, Miss Elizabeth Lindley, Miss Mary Nowland, Miss Eliza Green, and Miss Charlotte Peverley.

AFTER 7 YEARS SUFFERING

I Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Waurika, Okla.—"I had female troubles for seven years, was all run down, and so nervous I could not do anything. The doctors treated me for different things but did me no good. I got so bad that I could not sleep day or night. While in this condition I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and began its use and wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. In a short time I had gained my average weight and am now strong and well."—MRS. SALLIE STEVENS, R. F. D., No. 3, Box 31, Waurika, Okla.

Another Grateful Woman.

Huntington, Mass.—"I was in a nervous, run down condition and for three years could find no help.

"I owe my present good health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier which I believe saved my life.

"My doctor knows what helped me and does not say one word against it."—MRS. MARI JANETTE BATES, Box 134, Huntington, Mass.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, and nervous prostration.
