AN APPEAL TO YOUTH

Sunday will be observed throughout the country as Temperance Sunday. Many of our young folks have never seen a saloon and it becomes more and more evident that these children must be educated in the evils and the curse of liquor. The NEWS cannot hope to cover the subject in these few lines. However, we are glad of the opportunity of giving some facts. Dr. Charles W. Hughes, a well known citizen of Wilmington, says,

"As a practicing physcian for 38 years I have never found whiskey or brandy necessary in my cases of pneumonia, and certainly not in typhoid fever," he asserted. "In the days of the open saloon when called into a strange home I could immediately tell by the general appearance of the home, the wife and children, the cause of the blight that had befallen them. The mother was carelessly dressed, careworn and forlorn the children ragged and dirty even the furniture shows that the wage-earner was spending his money for rum. We still see some few cases like that but thank God, they are few as compared with the old saloon days.

"Let me plead with every loyal American citizen who is old enough to remember the old saloon days, that anywhere and any time you hear these people say that it is just as bad now or worse than it was in the old saloon days to emphatically deny it or say that they have either forgotten or else they are trying to deceive the persons who are too young to remember those days.

"Can we for a minute imagine what it would be to try todrive an automobile now if Wilmington had her 175 saloons? It is impossible to visualize such a condition. I am aware our enemy the wets, say they do not want the saloons back, but who will sell or dispense it? If you do not call them saloons, what will they be? 'A rose by any other name would smell as sweet.' Our friends, the enemy, are very anxious to repeal our laws, but what better have they to offer Let us stand by what we have until someone can show us somehing better, and then, only will we be willing for any change. We do not want to swap horses in the middle of the stream."

Mrs. Edith Driscoll said, in part:

"Speaking as a mother who has reared a family within the boundaries of the State of Delaware, I want to most emphatically voice my earnest protest against the repeal of, or any change in ,the present Klair law.

"I should like to cite two personal experiences as my reason for this stand.

"In 1901 I was very critically ill with slow typhoid fever. My physician asserted that my condition was so serious that I postively could not live unless I took a certain portion of brandy. I refused to take the liquor, although the physician thought that I was taking it.

"In 1912 my eight year old son lay seriously ill with malignant diphtheria, and he was left in a desperately weakened condition. The very same physician ordered liquor in the hope that my boy's life might be saved. Although an avowed enemy of liquor in all forms, and a member of the W. C. T. U., I laid aside my profound convictions and submitted to the advice of my doctor.

"I attempted to give the liquor. He looked up at me, saying—'No mother, I do not want it! I might become a drunkard.' Feeling, it to be my duty, however, I gave the liquor, but it did not save his life."

Elmer Perry said in part:

"Americans are saving money as never before and prohibitionists will find comfort and satisfaction in these facts notwithstanding the rumors of our opponents that the country is not as well off as in former times financially.

"Savings Bank deposits increased last year $1,140,000,000—sounds like a good deal of money and this is only a small part of the story. Other hundreds of millions were invested in real estate, stocks, bonds, charity and benevolences.

"In all the world's history there is nothing like the way the American people have saved and spent money in the laset 10 or more years. Savings averaged $30,000,000 a day, about 30 cents a day for every man, woman and child in the last year. This does not sound so bad does it

"More than 40,000,000 automobiles have been bought since prohibition went into effect in the United States, and they are now used by the working people as well as the rich, and I do not think anyone can number the radios the telephones and the things that used to be luxuries enjoyed only by those in possessing much of this world's goods.

"On the side of prohibition toward poverty, there are no economic authrities who venture to dispute its favorable aspect."

SHOULD SLEEP IN DARKNESS

There is no question that perfect darkness is surely conductive to the attainment of sound and refreshing sleep. Persons who use a "night light" either from fear or for some other equally unwise reason would do better to omit its use. Other causes of sleeplessness may be the shining into the window of nearby street light, the light from passing cars or from nearby houses. In cases where the light cannot be removed screens which are opague and do not permit the light to pass through should be so placed as to keep the outside lights from reaching the eyes of the sleeper.

The lids of the eye are closed in sleep but they do not form a perfect shutter for some light is allowed to pass through them. Any light entering the eye will set up a nerve impulse along the visual nerves and send it to the brain, thus tending to excite consciousness. By this means an unexpected and unlooked for cause of sleeplessness is established.

It should not be necessary ta state that the attempt to screen out the light must not interfere with adequate ventilation. People who sleep in rooms facing the east are awakened early by the rising sun in summer and without doubt the sunlight formed some little annoyance before the sleeper was awakened. The man of the house who came home inebriated in the wee small hours of the morning and retried leaving the shades pulled lown that he might sleep until the following noon used to be a standard "gag" for the cartoonist, yet he was using good judgement at least when he kept out the light as an aid to sleep.

Bedrooms decorated in light colors, with light painted furniture may look pretty by daylight but they are not so restful at night as those finished in darker shades of green and brown with dark furniture and trimmings. And then too, better leave out the "Night Lamp".

The highest temperature of the summer was reported form Zizzis," in North Africa. Zizzis sounds a deal like some of the four-year-old's remarks while brushing her teeth.

"Having run two miles, a man jumped from the cliffs at Dover and was picked up a mile at sea." It is calculated if he had run 40 mileshe would easily have made France.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Martha J. McWhorter, Emma C. Wright
vs.
Robert M. Catts, John D. Urie, Trustee

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, In Equity, No. 2657.

The object of the Bill of Complaint filed in the above entitled cause is to obtain the reformation of a Deed of Trust from Martha J. McWhorter to Robert M. Catts and procure a decree ordering the present Trustee, John D. Urie, to pay over to Emma C. Wright the monies now held in hand by him arising from the sale of the trust property.

The Bill of Complaint states:

That by deed dated February 25, 1902, and recorded among the Land Records of Kent County, State of Maryland, in Liber J. T. D. No. 6, at folio 216, etc., the Complaintant, Martha J. McWhorter, did convey certain lands unto one Robert M. Catts, as trustee, for the benefit of herself for life then for the benefit of her daughter the Complaintant, Emma C. Wright, for life, and upon the death of said Emma C. Wright to the children of Emma C. Wright, and in the event she should die without leaving any children then to her sisters and brothers, the other children of said Martha J. McWhorter.

That all of the known and determined beneficiaries under said deed of trust, both those whose interests are contingent as well as those whose interests are vested, have conveyed their beneficial interests hereunder unto said Emma C. Wright, unconditionally, by deeds and deeds of assignment.

That the Complainant, Martha J. McWhorter, alleges that she did not intend to create a trust by her said deed but desired to convey the property mentioned in said deed of trust unto said Emma C. Wright in fee simple and unconditionally but was misinformed by said Robert M. Catts both as to the contents and the legal effect of the said deed of trust and that upon her discovery of his wrongful act he prevented her from correcting the deed of trust by misleading statements and hindrances which he placed in her way.

That by successive appointments of the Circuit Court for Kent County John D. Urie is now Trustee of the trust created as aforesaid by Martha J. McWhorter.

That by decrees passed in Nos. 2011 nd 2215 Chancery said John D. Urie, Trustee has sold the property conveyed in said deed of trust in order to preserve same and now has in his hands the sum of $5,175.89 as the proceeds of sale thereof and upon which said trust is impressed.

That said Martha J. McWhorter has informed said John D. Urie, Trustee, of the wrongful conduct of said Robert M. Catts and directed said Trustee to pay over the money which he now has in hand as proceeds of sale as aforesaid unto said Emma C. Wright but said Trustee has not done so.

That the Respondent, John D. Urie, Trustee, is an adult residing in Kent County, State of Maryland, but the Respondent, Robert M. Catts, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and to the best of the knowledge and belief of the Complainants is at this time residing in the State of New York, but whose place of residence is not certainly known to the Complainants.

It is thereupon, this 6th day of March, 1931, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, sitting as a Court of Equity, that the Complainants give notice of these proceedings to the non-resident Respondent, Robert M. Catts, by publication inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 6th day of April next, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor on or before the 20th day of April next, and show cause, if any he has why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

T. Arthur Skirven, et al
vs.
Percy G. Skirven, et al

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, In Equity, No. 2612.

The object of the Petition filed in the above entitled cause is to procure a Decree directing the application of various interests to the payment of certain judgments.

The Petition states:

1. That they, Charles H. Skirven and Frank Skirven, together with Harry Skirven, now deceased, were appointed Executors under the last Will and Testament of Thomas W. Skirven, and were qualified as such by the Orphans' Court for Kent County, Maryland, as will appear by a certificate of the Register of Wills of said County filed herewith and marked "Petitioners' Exhibit No. 1," a certified copy of the aforesaid last Will and Testament having been filed among these proceedings as "Complainants' Exhibit No. 4."

2. That your Petitioners, Charles H. Skirven and Frank Skirven, surviving Executors under the last Will and Testament of Thomas W. Skirven, together with the said Harry Skirven, as Executors aforesaid, on March 22, 1919, secured a judgment by confession against Charles H. Skirven and Clara A. Skirven, his wife, in the sum of Five hundred forty eight dollars and ninety cents ($548.90), together with interest and costs, the same being No. 34 Appearances, January Term 1919, as will appear by reference to a short certificate of said judgment filed herewith as "Petitioners' Exhibit No. 2," and your Petitioners allege that said judgment was a lien against the real estate herein sold and that the distributive share of the said real estate herein sold and that the distributive share of the said Charles H. Skirven in the proceeds of said sale should be applied to the payment of the aforesaid judgment indebtedness.

3. That they, together with the said Harry Skirven, as Executors aforesaid, obtained on January 4, 1906, a judgment against Percy G. Skirven for the sum of Three hundred eighty-nine dollars and eleven cents ($389.11), together with interest and costs, the same being No. 27 Appearances, October Term 1905, and that said judgment was renewed on April 15, 1918, and again on April 21, 1930, as will appear by a short certificate of said judgment and renewals filed herewith as "Petitioners' Exhibit No. 3," and your Petitioners allege that said judgment was a first lien against the interest of the said Percy G. Skirven in the real estate herein sold and that the distributive share of the said Percy G. Skirven in the proceeds of said sale should be applied to the payment of the aforesaid judgment indebtedness.

4. That they, together with the said Harry Skirven, as Executors aforesaid, obtained on January 7, 1907, a judgment against Harry Skirven and Julia R. Skirven, his wife for the sum of Eleven hundred forty-two dollars and thirty cents ($1142.30), together with the interest and costs, the same being No. 38 Appearances Oct. Term 1906, and that said judgement was renewed on Oct. 15, 1917 and again on April 21, 1930, as will appear by a short certificate of said judgment and renewals filed herewith as "Petitioners" Exhibit No. 4," and your Petitioners allege that said judgment was a first lien against the interest of the said Harry Skirven in the real estate herein sold and that the distributive share of the said Harry Skirven in the proceeds of said sale should be applied to the payment of the aforesaid judgment indebtedness.

5. That they, together with the said Harry Skirven, as Executors aforesaid, ogtained on January 7, 1907, a judgment against Edmund H. Skirven for the sum of Two hundred twenty four dollars (224.00), together with interest and costs, the same being No. 39 Appearances, October Term 1906, and that said judgment was renewed on April 15, 1918 and again on April 21, 1930, as will appear by a short certificate of said judgment and renewals filed herewith as "Petitioners' Exhibit No. 5," and your Petitioners allege that said judgment was a first lien against the interest of the said Edmund H. Skirven in the real estate sold and that the distributive share of the said Edmund H. Skirven in the proceeds of said sale should be applied to the payment of the aforesaid judgment indebtedness.

6. Your Petitioners further allege that the interest accruing on the aforesaid judgments, under the provisions of the Last Will and Testament of the said Thomas W. Skirven, was payable to Angeline S. Skirven during her life and that the interest accuring during the life of the said Angeline S. Skirven, but not then paid, is now payable to her estate but that the judgment indebtedness other than said interest is payable to the estate of the said Thomas W. Skirven which is still being administered upon by your Petitioners in the Orphans' Court for said Kent County.

7. Your Petitioners further allege that Charles H. Skirven and Clara A. Skirven, his wife, are residents of Kent County, State of Maryland; that Harry Skirven died on February 9, 1929, leaving as his heirs-at-law, his widow, Julia R. Skirven, and his two infant children, namely: Thomas Harry Skirven and Dorothy Ann Skirven, who are also residents of Kent County, Maryland; that Percy G. Skirven is a resident of Baltimore City, State of Maryland; and that Edmund H. Skirven is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and is supposed to be now residing in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois.

8. Your Petitioners further allege that they have been advised that it is necessary for them to file this Petition praying your Honors to pass an order applying the interests of the said Charles H. Skirven, Harry Skirven, Percy G. Skirven and Edmund H. Skirven in the proceeds of the sale of the aforesaid real estate to the payment of the aforesaid judgments, but, before the same can be done, it will be necessary by appropriate processes to notify the aforesaid judgment debtors or those claiming under them of the object of the Petition and to that end they respectively pray your Honors to pass such an Order as may be necessary in the premises as no part of the indebtedness secured by the said judgments has heretobefore been paid.

It is therupon, this 25th day of February 1931, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Petitioners, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 30th day of March next, give notice to the said Edmund H. Skirven, non resident judgment debtor, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 13th day of April next, to show cause, if any he has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
