The Kent News

SATURDAY FEBRUARY, 28, 1931.

A number of letters on various topics are in type but are crowded out of this issue of KENT NEWS on account of large number of advertisements.

With only one voice in opposition, The National Education Association Department of Superintendence, Thursday adopted resolutions upholding the 18th Amendment. The lone opponent of the resolutions committee report was Dr. Daniel S. Kealey, of Hoboken, N. J., who had offered a repeal resolution.

ANNAPOLIS DOINGS

The Kent delegation, with Arthur Brice as spokesman, made a gallant fight for the purse netters Thursday but lost out. The vote was 59 to 53. The Bill now goes to the Senate where another hard contest for its life is in prospect. Sportsmen are using every means to drive out this method of fishing.

Three measures of special interest to farmers have been brought forward in the present legislature.

A measure to require all dealers in livestock and poultry to keep records of purchases.

Exempting from taxation animals used in farming and farm machinery to the amount of $1,000 each.

Providing for free testing of cows by the State Sanitary Board. Dairymen now have to pay the costs of having their herds inspected after a Federal Accredited rating is established.

State Senator S. Scott Beck has introduced a bill in the Legislature to allow wild duck shooting from Durding's creek to Drum Point during the month of December instead of two days a week as stipulated under the present law. The bill would also permit shooting from Wickes' Beach on Eastern Neck Island to the mouth of the Chester river every day in the week. The bill would also permit the building of one booby blind on the bay between Hickory Thicket and Wilson's Cove.

ASK REPEAL IN MD. OF "JIM CROW" LAW

Two bills for the aid of Negroes were introduced in the House, one repealing the so-called Jim Crow laws and the other providing that the minimum salary paid Negro teachers be the same as that paid white instructors in the State schools.

The Jim Crow laws, providing that Negroes ride in separate compartments on all common carriers of the State, would be repealed under the measure introduced by Delegates Enlge, Farrington, Edmunds and Roby, of the Montgomery delegation.

Delegate Edmunds said the laws generally were disregarded, and the repeal was sought to avoid any possible friction between races.

The minimum-pay measure was introduced by Delegate Williams, St. Mary's.

LAY MD. WOODS FIRE TO DEL. MOTORISTS

A party of Delaware motorists started the largest forest fire in Kent county last year, according to an announcement by Kenneth J. Seigworth district State forester for the Eastern Shore, who further declares that twelve fires damaged Kent County woodland to the extent of $4,401 and that all of the fires, were due to carelessness.

The Delaware vacationists, spending an August day at Tolchester Beach, went into the nearby woods and built a bon fire. The blaze spread to brush and rapidly ate its way into the dry forest as the Delawade car disappeared before forest wardens could ascertain the number of the license. For three days wardens and nearby farmers were fighting the blaze which burned over 600 acres of woodland and cost a loss of $3,000 in timber.

The State and county spent $111.42 in fighting fires in this county and a total of 797 acres were burned during the summer, the State official asserts in his report.

During the year there have been fifty prosecutions of violations of State laws and the State has lost only one case, Seigwodth declares. There are six deputy wardens in this county and another will shortly be appointed for the Tolchester area, he said.

"The match was invented just 100 years ago." It must have been irksome before then, if the office pest dropped in every five minutes for the loan of a live coal.

A good many years ago piracy got to be so bad that something had to be done about it, and something was done. It begins to look as if banditry had reached the same stage

Another meeting of the same kind will be held at Fairlee, March 9th at 1.30 P. M. Any mother who makes any or all of her children's clothes will be interested in this demonstration.

A sports writer observes that very few Tom Thumb golfers come from golf-playing families. This fits inwith our theory that most of them are men and women whose husbands and wives play bridge.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

T. Arthur Skirven, et al vs. Percy G. Skirven, et al

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, No. 2612.

The object of the Petition filed in the above entitled cause is to procure a Decree directing the application of various interests to the payment of certain judgments.

The Petition states:

1. That they, Charles H. Skirven and Frank Skirven, together with Harry Skirven, now deceased, were appointed Executors under the last Will and Testament of Thomas W. Skirven, and were qualified as such by the Orphans' Court for Kent County, Maryland, as will appear by a certificate of the Register of Wills of said County filed herewith and marked "Petitioners Exhibit No. 1," a certified copy of the aforesaid last Will and Testament having been filed among these proceedings as "Complainants' Exhibit No. 4."

2. That your Petitioners, Charles H. Skirven and Frank Skirven, surviving Executors under the last Will and Testament of Thomas W. Skirven, together with the said Harry Skirven, as Executors aforesaid, on March 22, 1919, secured a judgment by confession against Charles H. Skirven and Clara A. Skirven, his wife, in the sum of Five hundred forty eight dollars and ninety cents ($548.90), together with interest and costs, the same being No. 34 Appearances, January Term 1919, as will appear by reference to a short certificate of said judgment filed herewith as "Petitioners' Exhibit No. 2," and your Petitioners allege that said judgment was a lien against the real estate herein sold and that the distributive share of the said real estate herein sold and that the distributive share of the said Charles H. Skirven in the proceeds of said sale should be applied to the payment of the aforesaid judgment indebtedness.

3. That they, together with the said Harry Skirven, as Executors aforesaid, obtained on January 4, 1906, a judgment against Percy G. Skirven for the sum of Three hundred eighty-nine dollars and seven cents ($389.11), together with interest and costs, the same being No. 27 Appearances, October Term 1905, and that said judgment was renewed on April 19, 1918, and again on April 21, 1930, as will appear by a short certificate of said judgment and renewals filed herewith as "Petitioners' Exhibit No. 3," and your Petitioners allege that said judgment was a first lien against the interest of the said Percy G. Skirven in the real estate herein sold and that the distributive share of the said Percy G. Skirven in the proceeds of said sale should be applied to the payment of the aforesaid judgment indebtedness.

4. That they, together with the said Harry Skirven, as Executors aforesaid, obtained on January 7, 1907, a judgment against Harry Skirven and Julia R. Skirven, his wife for the sum of Eleven hundred forty-two dollars and thirty cents ($1142.30), together with the interest and costs, the same being No. 38 Appearances Oct. Term 1906, and that said judgment was renewed on Oct. 15, 1917 and again on April 21, 1930, as will appear by a short certificate of said judgment and renewals filed herewith as "Petitioners' Exhibit No. 4," and your Petitioners allege that said judgment was a first lien against the interest of the said Harry Skirven in the real estate herein sold and that the distributive share of the said Harry Skirven in the proceeds of said sale should be applied to the payment of the aforesaid judgment indebtedness.

5. That they, together with the said Harry Skirven, as Executors aforesaid, obtained on January 7, 1907, a judgment against Edmund H. Skirven for the sum of Two hundred twenty four dollars (224.00), together with interest and costs, the same being No. 39 Appearances, October Term 1906, and that said judgment was renewed on April 15, 1918 and again on April 21, 1930, as will appear by a short certificate of said judgment and renewals filed herewith as "Petitioners' Exhibit No. 5," and your Petitioners allege that said judgment was a first lien against the interest of the said Edmund H. Skirven in the real estate sold and that the distributive share of the said Edmund H. Skirven in the proceeds of said sale should be applied to the payment of the aforesaid judgment indebtedness.

6. Your Petitioners further allege that the interest accruing on the aforesaid judgments, under the provisions of the Last Will and Testament of the said Thomas W. Skirven, was payable to Angeline S. Skirven during her life and that the interest accuring during the life of the said Angeline S. Skirven, but not then paid, is now payable to her estate but that the judgment indebtedness other than said interest is payable to the estate of the said Thomas W. Skirven which is still being administered upon by your Petitioners in the Orphans' Court for said Kent County.

7. Your Petitioners further allege that Charles H. Skirven and Clara A. Skirven, his wife, are residents of Kent County, State of Maryland; that Harry Skirven died on February 9, 1929, leaving as his heirs-at-law, his widow, Julia R. Skirven, and his two infant children, namely: Thomas Harry Skirven and Dorothy Ann Skirven, who are also residents of Kent County, Maryland; that Percy G. Skirven is a resident of Baltimore City, State of Maryland; and that Edmund H. Skirven is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and is supposed to be now residing in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois.

8. Your Petitioners further allege that they have been advised that it is necessary for them to file this Petition praying your Honors to pass an order applying the interests of the said Charles H. Skirven, Harry Skirven, Percy G. Skirven and Edmund H. Skirven in the proceeds of the sale of the aforesaid real estate to the payment of the aforesaid judgments, but, before the same can be done, it will be necessary by appropriate processes to notify the aforesaid judgment debtors or those claiming under them of the object of the Petition and to that end they respectively pray your Honors to pass such an Order as may be necessary in the premises as no part of the indebtedness secured by the said judgments has heretobefore been paid.

It is therupon, this 25th day of February 1931, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Petitioners, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 20th day of March next, give notice to the said Edmund H. Skirven, non resident judgment debtor, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 13th day of April next, to show cause, if any he has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
