SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1911.

THE tax rate in Talbot this year is 85 cents, same as last year.

We desire to serve notice upon our opponents that we propose to stop what some are pleased to call "mud-slinging" in this campaign.—Barroll Organ, June 3, 1911.

"Go in peace and sin no more!"

UNDER the proposed reapportionment the population of the Eastern Shore is not great enough by 12,106 to entitle it to a Congressman. The proposed ratio of 211,887 population for each Congressman will make it necessary to put a part of Harford in the First Congressional district.

GOV. JOHN K. TENER, of Pennsylvania, who recently, with Governor Crothers, of this State, inspected the magnificent property of the Susquehanna Water Power Company, in speaking of Governor Crothers, after the trip of inspection said: "I am a great admirer of Governor Crothers' administration. I have watched it with interest and its progressiveness has appealed to me. Governor Crothers has undoubtedly been the most progressive Governor the State has had for many years, as has been evidenced by the progressiveness of his administration. The Good Roads movement had its inception with the Governor and likewise a number of other similar movements."

HARRISON WILSON VICKERS.

When a man who has endeared himself, by character and services, to the locality in which he lived, dies, it is proper that we stop in the midst of life's busy affairs, and lay a tribute of respect and esteem upon his bier.

No one will dispute the statement that in the death of HARRISON WILSON VICKERS, which occurred on Monday, June fifth, our State and county have lost a citizen who served the public faithfully and well and in all the private duties which were his, bore himself without reproach.

A lawyer of wide experience he brought to the trial of every case in which he took a part, the readiness of a trained mind, the fearlessness of a faithful advocate, and a fairness of conduct which seemed to be his by instinct.

In the discharge of duties which came to him as a public sevant he was without fear, affection or partiality, and never saved himself or considered his personal interests at the expense of the State.

As a friend, Mr. Vickers was kind and considerate. As a neighbor he was ever ready and willing to help. As a citizen, though of definite and positive views and convictions, he was tolerant of those who differed from him.

Surely we have lost from our midst one whose broad culture, kind heart and willing hand, made him a source of pride and help to us all.

STATE POLITICS

The meeting of the State Central Committee in Baltimore this week brought together a large crowd. The result so far as can be learned is that no one man is yet "boomed" for Governor, but many named. Among those from Kent were Wm. M. Slay, H. H. Barroll, J. T. Dixon, H. C. Willis, C. L. Dodd, George E. Parrott, Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., Andrew Medders, T. D. Bowers, Jacob Shallcross and others.

The Democratic State Central Committee Wednesday afternoon adopted resolutions empowering Chairman Murray Vandiver to confer with the representatives of other parties in the State and city to agree with them on a date, not later than the first Monday of September, for holding the primary elections of all parties. He was also empowered to fix the date of the convention, within two weeks of the primaries, to ratify primary action and nominate candidates for Governor, Attorney-General and Comptroller.

The resolutions are drawn merely to put into effect the legislative act requiring primary elections of all parties to be held on the same day. The first clause of the resolution describes the character of offices and delegations to be filled.

From best information the primaries will likely be held about second week in August.

Here is an interview with one of the city reporters from our jovial Chairman:

"That is no joke about the soft crabs. Charles L. Dodd, of Chestertown, confirmed it.

"On the Kent county shore," he said, "we're not getting anything like the soft crabs we ought to get. Just the other day they sent to Baltimore for soft crabs, having none in the local market, and paid 60 cents a dozen for them, when at this time of the year we ought to buy them at home for 30 and 35 cents."

"Why not nominate a Governor on the soft-shell crab conservation platform?" he was asked.

"That's the most sensible idea," he replied, and got busy seeing to it.

Chairman John B. Hanna, of the Republican State Central Committee, has issued a call for a meeting of the committee on June 21. It will meet to fix the date for the primary and receive instructions on the new primary law.

A REMARKABLE INCIDENT.

Cardinal Gibbons Accorded An Ovation by Public Men, Ministers and Laymen in all Walks of Life.

There sat Tuesday afternoon in the centre of a platform at the Fifth Regiment Armory an aged man, full of vigor, and he wore the scarlet robes of a prince of the Roman Catholic Church. To his right was the President of the United States, to his left the Vice-President. A few feet away was the only living ex-President of the nation; almost within the reach of the hand were the Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, an ex-Speaker, the Ambassador of the British Empire, the Governor of Maryland and the Mayor of Baltimore.

Behind rose tier after tier of seats filled with Cabinet officers, United States Senators, Congressmen, financiers and churchmen representing many faiths. In front, filling the great hall and crowding the galleries, were many thousands of human beings, perhaps 20,000, nearly all of them standing.

And this was the tribute which the citizens of Baltimore and the citizens of Maryland and the citizens of the nation gave to the Pale man in the robes of scarlet, James Cardinal Gibbons. It was not the tribute of ecclesiastical pomp to the head of the Roman Catholic Church in this land; it was an acknowledgement by Americans to an American; it was a recognition by his fellow-citizens of a good man, a good citizen. And it was one of the most impressive demonstrations in patriotism that this Union has ever seen.

THE Still Pond Farmers' Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Harris last Thursday. A very interesting meeting was held and among the questions discussed were: "Is the United States getting any benefit from the Philipine Islands?" "What to do with 3-year-old timothy sod before planting in corn?" "What the club thinks of the condition of wheat compared with other years"? The ladies were very much interested in the hostess' young chickens, she having 800 in number, from frying size down and every one looking so healthy. Mr. L. Harris Crewe joined the club. The club then adjourned for the summer months to meet at the home of Mr. Leonard Price the last Thursday in September. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jarrell, Mr and Mrs. James S. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Pennington, Rev. and Mrs. Beauchamp, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price, Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l Roseberry, Mr. and Mrs. William Bonwill, Mr. and Mrs. William Price, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redding, Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. William Medders, Mrs. Kate Crew, Mrs. Daniel Hill, Mrs. James Weer, Mrs Venie Harper, Mrs. John Parrott, Mrs. Carson Harris, Mrs. M. Franklin, Mrs. F. H. Cornelius, Miss Jessie Crew, Mr. Harris Crewe.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Children's Day exercises, were held in the M. E. Church last Sunday, in the midst of happy childhood. No less happy grown-ups and lovely flowers A special program was splendidly rendered. A feature of the day was a forceful sermon by Pastor L. P. Corkran to parents, and guardians. On Intelectural, Moral, and Religeous training of children, by precept, and example A splendid offering prssented in banks, boxes, and envelopes, requring more than the capacity of a farmers peach basket to hold was received. The offering amounted $44.23. Now let's all go to Wesley Chapel tomorrow and enjoy similar exercises.

Capt. J. E. Apsley gave a review of Sunday's S. S. lesson on "An old time call to repentance." The Supt. Rev. Mr. Corkran doesn't consider himself the only "pebble on the beach" in Sunday school work. He gives the teachers a chance to expand their ability and usefulness beyond the regular class exercise.

There are still a goodly number of persons in this community, who were members of the M. E. Society 40 years ago, who, if they are in attendance at the afternnoon service tomorrow will enjoy a royal treat from an erstwhile Leader of those by-gone days, Mr. William H. Ayres.

The supper and festival on Saturday evening at Wesley Chapel, was quite a success for the time of year, the proceeds being very near the $90 mark.

Mr. J. W. Fogwell, of up the county, was a Sunday visitor among relatives here.

Mr. J. S. Hindes and sister Miss Maggie, of near Worton, were guests of relatives here on Saturday and Sunday.

The heavy gun practice at Fort Howard on Monday was quite disturbing to some of our sick folks.

Mrs. Hastings of Learyville, has been seriously ill the past week, but under the skillful care of Dr. W. O. Selby, she is pulling through.

Capt. Joseph B. Downey has just returned from an extended trip to Cambridge and other points in Talbot county. He reports a pleasant trip, for pleasure, and health and otherwise.

While the M. D. & V. Steamboat Company in getting the Dredging Machine Company to carry their digging out to the deep hole below Swan Point, for the benefit of the steamers plying between here and the City, has done a good thing for the inside oyster bars also.

Auctioneer C. H. Smith, announces a big lot of goods for sale this afternoon, and night, at the store of Mr. S. J. Wickes.

THE ANTI-BOSS CANDIDATES

The following excellent array of Democrats have been presented to the Democratic voters for their consideration at the coming primaries. PAYING FOR A REPUTATION

"Why pay for the reputation that any article has?" say some purchasers.

Because the reputation that his trade-mark has is the most valuable asset of many a manufacturer. He can't afford to risk that reputation by selling you inferior goods. That's why we handle the KODAK line in our photographic department. The KODAK company cannot afford to put out an inferior article.
