COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT

129th Anniversary of Washington College.

IDEAL WEATHER, FINE ADDRESSES, SWEET MUSIC MARKED THE OCCASION.

The 129th commencement of Washington College was held the past week and the weather after Sunday morning was simply ideal. The Baccalaureate address was delivered by Dr. J. W. Cain. This address was pronounced by all who braved the disagreeable elements of that morning to hear it as a most polished and ornate affair. Rev. D. L. Greenfield, D. D., of Westminster, preached a splendid sermon Sunday evening before a large audience on "Optimism of Faith."

Monday evening President Houston, of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society, presented Aristides Smith Goldsboro, Esq., of Baltimore, as the speaker of the occasion. He gave an eloquent address on "The Golden Age for Young Men."

Tuesday morning the declamation contest for the Dr. Simpers medals was held and as usual proved interesting. The Speakers were as follows:

Declamation, "Murder Will Out," Frederick Stanley Porter, Princess Anne, Md.
Declamation, "An Extract from Webster's Reply to Hayne," William Lester Baldwin, Chestertown, Md.
Declamation, "The Contest in the Arena," Arthur Britton Madden, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Declamation, "Regulus to the Carthaginians," Clyde McClellan Stouffer, Hagerstown, Md.
Declamation, "Robert Emmets' Protest Against Sentence as a Traitor," Wendell DeWitt Allen, Towson, Md.
Declamation, "Lord Chatham Against the American War," Andrew Wendell Pardew, Prince Frederick, Md.

The speeches were interspersed with music by Webers Orchestra. The winner of the first prize was Wendell DeWitt Allen; second, F. Stanley Porter.

At night the oratorical contest for the Oates medals was held and proved equally interesting. The live issues discussed by the young men was indicative of awakened interest in questions of the day. The speakers were as follows:

"Arbitration," Frederick Stanley Porter, Princess Anne, Md.
"Against Negro Suffrage," Calvin Taylor Ryan Bishopville, Md.
Selection from "Carmen," Bizet.
"United States Senators Should be Elected by the People," William Frazier Russell, Jr., Chestertown, Md.
"Labor Unions, Are, on the Whole, Prejudicial to the Best Interests of the Working Man," Olie Hopkins Connelly, Federalsburg, Md.

The winner was Mr. F. S. Porter; second, W. F. Russell, Jr. W. W. Beck, Esq., who announced the decision remarked that the judges were sorry there were not four prizes as each had done splendidly, and this was the sentiment of the audience.

Wednesday morning the Commencement proper was held the following program being carried out, interspersed with good music by orchestra:

First Honor Oration, "The Twentieth Century Spirit," Abraham Claude Griffin, Denton, Md.
Second Honor Oration, "Athletics a Necessity to the Complete College Man," Roland Homer Crew, Still Pond, Md.
Conferring of Diplomas and Degrees upon Examination.

The association decided to hold a banquet in Baltimore next winter and Messrs. T. Alan Goldsborough, Senator Clarence W. Perkins and S. Chester Coursey were appointed a committee to make all arrangements for the affair.

Nearly one hundred of the alumni were present at the dinner which was served by Caterer George E. Lambert in most excellent style. T. Alan Goldsborough, Esq., was toast master and toasts were responded to by President Cain for the faculty, William W. Beck, Esq., for the Board of Visitors and Mr. A. C. Griffith for class of 1911.

Alumni Defeat Washington 7 to 2.

The Alumni team walloped the Washington College baseball team on Wednesday afternoon by score of 7 to 2 The largest crowd of the season, about 600, was present and the Alumni rooters lead by Dr. John Mace, of Cambridge, were on the job from start to finish. Such old baseball stars and favorites as Dr. A. B. Burris, Thos. Massey, Warren Jump, Charles, Truitt, Jimmie Turner and others were given a big ovation.

The first time Dr. Burris came to the bat he made a home run and the crowd went wild. The pitching of Metcalf was the feature of the game and with the fast outfield held the college team down to two runs. Pitcher Jarman was not at his best and gave several bases on balls. Orrell knocked a three bagger. Kelley was hit twice, the second time coming near being knocked out. The following was the line-up:

Alumni—Metcalf, p., Cross, c., Massey, 1st b., Truitt, 2nd b., Charles, 3rd b., Orrell, s. s., Burris, r. f., Jump, c. f., Turner, l. f.

College—Jarman, p., Long, c., Porter, 1st b., Kelley, 2nd b., Meekin, 3rd b., Lewis, s. s., Crew, r. f., Garrett, c. f., Corddry, l. f.

Meekins has been elected captain of the Washington College baseball team for next season.

The Commencement Dance.

The Commencement dance was held in Davis & Satterfield's Skating Rink and over 150 couples were on the floor at one time. Everyone had a good time and the attendance was large.

CHURCH NOTES.

Dr. Little occupied the pulpit at Christ M. P. Church Sunday morning. A baritone solo by Mr. James H. Shuster was a pleasing feature of the service.

The M. E. Sunday school picnic will be held at Tolchester June 28th.

Pentecostal meetings which are being held in Fowler's woods near Pondtown, Queen Anne's county will continue over Sunday, June 25th. Three services on Sunday 10 a. m., 2 and 8 p. m. Everyone welcome.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., pastor—Sunday, June 25th, services as follows: At 10.30 a. m. preaching by the pastor; 2.15 p. m., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class; 7.00 p. m., Epworth League; 7.30 p. m., brief sermon by the pastor. All invited.

At the monthly meeting of the Ushers Union of Mowbray M. E. Church held on Thursday evening five members were admitted and it was decided to hold a box social at Cliffs, Thursday evening of this week. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. W. T. S. Rasin, Cliffs.

Mr. Robt. Goodman will be the leader of Epworth League Sunday evening.

Rev. Robert Kirby was the speaker last Sunday in the E. L. He gave a pleasing and instructive address.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. F. T. Little, paster. June 25th, 9.30 a. m., Testimony Meeting; 10.30 a. m., preaching by the pastor; 2.30 p. m., Sunday School; 6 30 p. m., twilight services. A hearty welcome to all these services is extended to all.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church at Laurel is being torn down to make room for a new $20,000 edifice. The congregation is worshiping in the Masonic building. The new church is to be stone and one of the finest on the Peninsula and is to be completed in time for the next meeting of the Maryland Annual Conference of the M. P. Church which is to convene there when the question of union with the Methodist Episcopal Church which was brought up at the last conference is to be decided.

BASE BALL NOTES.

The married men were defeated by the singles Tuesday by score of 17 to 2. It was a poor game.

This game was for the benefit of the Chestertown Public Library and about $25 was realized for this worthy cause. The ladies who manage the library desire to thank the base ball players who gave their time and the Board of Visitors who permitted the game to be played on the College Athletic Field.

The pitching of Charles Beaumont has been of a high order. In the games recently played he has showed marked talent.

The Galena team defeated Golt on Saturday 5 to 7.

The Shrewsbury Academy defeated the Betterton Public School team on Saturday.

The Galena boys cleared $50 at their festival last week.

Washington College won two very exciting extra-inning games last week.

On Friday the local collegians defeated the strong Mt. St. Joseph team from Irvington in an eleven-inning contest by the score of 3 to 2. The game was won in the eleventh session when Kelly, the first batter up, doubled to left field and scored on Porter's single. Jarman, the the local boy, was on the slab for W. C. pitched phenomenal ball striking out 16 of the visitors, 8 of which were retired on strikes in the last three innings.

Washington College on Saturday defeated the Delaware College team, of Newark, Del., in a no less exciting game than that of Friday. It took the locals ten innings to make the Delaware ball-tossers bite the dust to the tune of 2 to 1. The victory came in the tenth inning when Meekins led off with a hit, pilfered second, was sacrificed to third and scored on Kelly's single to right field. Jarman was again on the mound for Washington and had the best support of the season.

Washington College defeated the All-Stars Monday afternoon by the score of 4 to 3. The All-Star team was composed of players of the six teams forming the Inter-Scholastic League. Beck who was hurling the "pill" for the All Stars pitched great ball only allowing four safe hits. Baden, the college south-yaw, pitched effective ball with men on bases. Batteries—W. C. Baden and Long; All-Stars, Beck and Gibbs.

CHESTERVILLE NOTES.

Emmanuel: Sunday School 10 a. m., preaching 11 a. m., Epworth League 7 p. m.

Trinity: Sunday School 2 p. m., preaching 3 p. m., Vesper service 7.30 p. m.

Mr. Bibb Mills, of Baltimore will represent the Anti-Saloon work, at the regular preaching services and a cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

Miss Nora Coiner is the guest of Miss Aldie Clements at Sportsfield.

Miss Anna Gale left on Friday for a visit to her brother, Frank, at Woodwardville, Md. Mr. Gale holds a responsible position with the P. B. & W. railroad as telegraph operator at Odenton, Md.

Miss Julia Brinsfield has gone to her home in Betterton for the summer.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Miss Anna Melvin.

Children's Service in Trinity was poorly attended because of the storm, but the service was good.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Mr. Julius Scholle, librarian at the Naval Academy having spent 14 of the 30 days allowed him as leave of absence, a number of which he joyously put in as the guests of his aunt, Mrs. A Alexander and family, has returned to his post of duty in the Ancient city.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Kramer and their daughter, Freda, have also returned to Baltimore after a pleasant short sojourn with Mrs. K.'s parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander and son Max.

Mrs. A. Alexander who has been spending a week at Atlantic City has returned to her home in south Rock Hall. She shows the beneficial effects of old ocean breezes and other bloom of youth restoratives of the famous Jersey resort.

"All things come to him who waits." Mr. Thomas Colyer who has been waiting a long time in a legal battle is now wearing a broad smile, because things are at last coming his way.

A representative of the Antis, from Chestertown, was on a trip down this way some days ago and when asked what he was doing down here replied that he was trying to find out the depth of water ex-Senator Foxwell was carrying in the District.

WEDDING NOTES.

JOHNSON—WHITAKER.

A very pretty June wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Whitaker, Galena, Wednesday afternoon at 1 30 o'clock, when their daughter, Dr. Elizabeth Whitaker, was led to the altar of marriage by Dr. Bertram Johnson, formerly of Birmingham Alabama, but now of Avant, Oklahoma. Only the relatives and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony.

While the bride's sister, Miss Vera played on the violin that old melody, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," the bride and groom came in and stood under the bridal arch. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. P. Prettyman assisted by Rev. R. H. Lewis. The bride was attired in a gown of cream crepe cashmere trimmed with satin and lace, and carried a handsome bunch of lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Vera, who stood up with her sister, carried pink sweet peas.

After an informal reception, the bride and groom left for their future home, Avant, Oklahoma. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue mohair. There were guests present from Scranton, Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore, Delaware and Chestertown. No cards in the county.

The Bank That Pays
FOUR PER CENT
On Time Deposits

You Will Never Know

the real value of a check account or fully realize the many advantages of a bank credit, or experience the esteem in which the man who pays by check is held by business men until you get the "check book" habit.

Enjoy all these benefits and pleasures by starting a check account with THE PEOPLE'S BANK now. There is no gain in waiting, but instead actual loss in delay. It is just as easy and far better to begin to-day than to wait until to-morrow.

Your account will be appreciated, no matter how small or how large.

BEAR IN MIND that The People's Bank is the only bank in the county that pays FOUR PER CENT on Time Deposits—and four per cent instead of three means ONE-THIRD MORE INCOME from your savings.
