The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

The late rains have been good on corn crops and tomatoes.

Last Thursday was an ideal day for an open gathering and the company of Grangers and their friends for the Pomona Grange meeting, on Mr. and Mrs. Elias T. Othoson's beautiful lawn, was large, and everybody seemed to have a good time. The recitations of Misses Ada Hurlock and Emma Shafer were excellent and the male quartette, composed of Messrs. Elias T. Othoson, Wm. T. Hague, John Medders and Edgar R. Pennington did enjoyable service. "Who Built Dat Ark" was finely executed and greatly applauded. Dr. Stabler, a Granger of Montgomery county, and lecturer of national reputation, was listened to with marked attention and great profit. Dr. Stabler is a most interesting and entertaining speaker. The sumptuous dinner spread on three or four large tables was "par excellence" and in every respect in keeping with the hospitality and large heartedness of the people of Kent county. A large amount of business was transacted in the business sessions of the Pomona Grange. The next great meeting is that of the "Granger's Picnic," in Klinefelter's woods, between the Queen Anne's and Kent county grangers, for the 9th of August, when His Excellency Governor Crothers will be one of the speakers. Keep it in view and do not miss it.

Mrs. John Bennett and Miss Lulu Vandkye, of Kennedyville, are both on the sick list.

The laying of cement sidewalk pavements is still in progress in our village, and is making marked improvement.

Misses Elizabeth and Miriam Copenhaver, of Springfield, Ohio, left here Monday morning for their home, accompanied by their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Shafer.

Miss Elizabeth Barwick, of Baltimore, has been visiting Miss Nellie Othoson and other friends for the past week or more.

Miss Margaret Burgess, of Edesville, was in attendace at the M. P. Sunday School last Sunday morning with Miss Mary Copper, where she is visiting.

Mrs. Harvey Beaston, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Rachel Redmile, near here, and attended services at the M. P. Church Sunday morning in company with her sisters, Mrs. Ida Scotten and Miss Blanche Redmile.

Miss Simmons, of Baltimore, is the guest at this time of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Redmile.

Mrs. Crossley, who is now visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dr. J. W. Urie, is suffering from the effects of an ugly fall which happened to her a few days ago.

Mrs. F. H. Mullineaux, though in her place in Sunday-school and church service Sunday morning, is much indisposed and in the care of Dr. Urie.

Mrs. Mary Higman, nee Clendaniel, of Philadelphia, is visiting among her brothers and sisters and many friends of the neighborhood of our village.

M. P. Church services for Sunday, August 6th—9.30 a. m. Sunday School, 10.30 a. m. sermon by the pastor, "The Design of Affliction;" 7.45 p. m. Song Service and brief sermon, "Lessons from The Life of Jacob." Come and help make these services a blessing.
