SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1911.

ALL is now serene.

GORMAN AND BECK will make a fine combination.

THE law against vote buying as now carried out is a farce. The Corrupt Practice Act should either be repealed or enforced.

THE Republicans on Thursday nominated Phillips Lee Goldsborough for Governor, John H. Cunningham for Comptroller and Morris A. Soper for Attorney-General.

SEVERAL changes in the Lee primary law are imperative. At best it is a very expensive and cumbersome law and unless great changes are made many Democrats think it would be better to repeal it and go back to the old system.

NO EXCUSE TO CHEAT

The sweet singer, Thomas McNulty, put up a great fight for Sheriff of Baltimore against big odds. He is making an investigation of how he was beaten and makes use of the following very true words:

"I don't want to do anything," said he, "that will injure my party, for I love it best, next to my religion. It does rile me, however, that I should have received such treatment. It is bad enough to cheat the common enemy, but there is no excuse at all for Democrats to cheat a Democrat."

SENATOR GORMAN TALKS OUT

Governor-to-be Gorman spoke out boldly and clearly this week in Baltimore. Said he:

"I have made the race in a Democratic primary. The fact that it was a close race and that I have won by a small margin should not count against me. The idea of a contest before the people is a Democratic one and the interest aroused in the primary should make for the nominee rather than against him. There is also the fact that there was a popular majority for me in both the city and the counties. I believe that I have been fairly and honestly chosen, and all of the talk of withdrawal is absolutely idle. I have won the nomination and I am going to be the candidate of the people.

"I received, and was glad to receive, the support of the city organization, as any candidate would be, but I want to say that I would not take a nomination that I had not fairly and honestly won. One of the candidates for a minor position on the ticket alleges that votes cast for him in a precinct of the twenty-third ward were not counted. Any credible evidence showing that this was the case should be used to the fullest extent of the law to open the ballot box, verify the count, both as to the candidate in question and all other condidates, and if fraud should be discovered and proved, those who were guilty of it should be punished.

"I have the deepest respect for the sentiment of the Democratic people of this State. I am young enough to be receptive to new impressions and I am not so self-complacent as to ignore the lessons of events. While I feel a sense of loyalty to those who gave me their support, I have been deeply impressed by the great show of strength made by Senator Lee. I realize that the party cannot be united unless a due regard shall be paid to the views for which this large minority stood.

His Own Man, He Says

"If I am elected Governor I shall be my own man. No politician and no set of politicians have any right to expect any favors from me at the expense of my duty to the whole people of the State. While the organization in Baltimore supported me I shall construe my obligation as being to the 600,000 people of Baltimore and I shall pay the debt directly to them and not to any faction or fraction of this great city. I guarantee to the people of this city, if elected, a fair and non-political administration of the Liquor License Board. I shall give my influence to the best legislation that can be devised to safeguard the primary against unfairness and fraud."

A VOICE FROM THE FIFTH DISTRICT

MESSRS EDITORS NEWS:

May it be proclaimed from a thousand hills, and through every worthwhile newspaper in all Maryland, that the recount fever has had a chill; that the Honorable Judges of our Circuit Court did not believe and could not be driven or persuaded to harbor the idea that the Election Judges in the many precincts of Kent County are all thugs, robbers and ballot sharks.

Thanks to the Honorable Judges of our Court for this lesson of decency in relation to the ballot of last week, and for the assurance that the Election Judges are men of honor and uprightness.

To confide in the integrity of our fellow man, is strengthening—is the Golden Rule applied

Suspicion is weakening and invariably results in demoralizing politics and society as well.

Yours truly,

FIFTH DISTRICT OYSTERMAN.

CHAMPIONS OF EASTERN SHORE

The St. Michaels and Centreville teams played a double-header Tuesday for the championship of the Eastern Shore before the largest crowd that has witnessed a game in Easton the past three years.

They came in automobiles from Centreville, St. Michaels and Chestertown and by train, and long before the game was called the grandstand was filled with ladies, while the bleachers and outfield were lined with men and boys.

REFUSED TO OPEN BOXES

Court Decides Against Mr. Barroll in His Efforts to Have a Recount of Ballots.

An all day session of the Kent Circuit Court was held last Monday before Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce and Associate Judges Hopper and Adkins for the purpose of hearing the recent primary election cases. H. H. Barroll, Esq., instituted proceedings in three cases and the Court denied each mandamus and dismissed the petition in each case.

Lewin W. Wickes and S. Scott Beck, Esqs., made able arguments and conducted the cases for the defendants; H. H. Barroll and Wetkered Barroll, Esqs., for the contestants.

The following were the decisions of the Court:

Case of Townsend vs. Crow.

WM. C. TOWNSEND vs. CHAS. F. CROW; JESSE H. USILTON, HARRY CACY, A. PARKS RASIN, Supervisors of Election of Kent County, Md.	In the Circuit Court No. 1 Petitions. Petition for Mandamus to compel the Election Supervisors of Kent Co. to open the Ballot boxes containing the ballots cast at the Primary Election held in Kent county August 29th, 1911.

Sec. 75 and 76 of Art. 33 of the Code of Public General Laws of Md require that on the day after any election the Judges having possession of the Ballot Boxes containing the Ballots, and the Judges having possession of the keys to said Boxes shall deliver the same to the Supervisors of Election, who upon receiving the same, shall deliver them to the Clerk of the Circuit Court, and in the absence of any averment in the Petition that they have not been so delivered the Court must assume that the Judges and Supervisors have performed that duty, and that said Ballot Boxes and Ballots were and still are in the custody of the Clerk of the Circuit Court. The Mandamus sought would therefore be nugatory and must be denied; and if the Mandamus had been asked against the Clerk of the Court instead of the Supervisors, in our opinion the production of the Ballots could only properly be secured in a proper proceeding by an order of the Court upon the Clerk to produce the same.

The office of the Writ of Mandamus is to compel the performance of a ministerial act. Therefore where the party required to do such act has done it Mandamus does not lie to review the method of the performance of the duty.

"When it becomes necessary to go beyond the returns and consider questions concerning the legality of Elections, or of fraud, illegal voting or the like, then Mandamus is not the proper action and it is necessary to resort to quo warranto, or to such statutory proceeding as may be provided in such cases."

McCrary on Election, Sec. 398.

"After the inferior tribunal has completed the performance of its duties Mandamus will not lie by a contestant to compel the counting of votes cast for him. The remedy in such a case is by a contest."

McCrary on Elections, Sec. 415.

If, however, the present could be regarded as a proper proceeding to contest the Election, or Nomination of Mr. Crow, then the further proceedings peremptorily required by Art. 33 of the Code, relating to Contested Elections, cannot be complied with because the State Nominating Convention is required to meet on September 7, and it would therefore be impossible to give the Contestee the requisite notice of contest. For these reasons the motion to dismiss will be granted. The above case being argued this day it is ordered this 4th day of September, 1911, by the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, that the motion to dismiss said Petition be and the same is hereby granted and the Petition is hereby dismissed, but leave is granted to amend the same for further hearing.

JAMES A. PEARCE,
WM. H. ADKINS,
PHILEMON B. HOPPER.

Case of Foxwell vs. Beck.

GARRETT FOXWELL vs. WILLIAM W. BECK, ET AL.	In The Circuit Court for Kent County.

We are of the opinion that we cannot grant this prayer of the Petitioner filed in this case because neither the General Elections Laws Art. 33 Code of Public General Laws, nor the Primary Election Law of 1910 provided for the prosecution of Contested Elections for members of either branch of the General Assembly, before any other tribunal than the General Assembly itself.

We have no jurisdiction in such case, but leave is granted to amend the same for further hearing.

JAMES A. PEARCE,
WM. H. ADKINS,
PHILEMON B. HOPPER.

Case of Bramble vs. Nicholson.

JAMES BRAMBLE vs. JOHN P. NICHOLSON ET AL.	Circuit Court for Kent County. Petition for Mandamus.

In our opinion Mandamus is not the proper proceeding in this case.

It is therefore ordered that the Petition be and the same is hereby dismissed, but leave is granted to amend for further hearing.

SAMES A. PEARCE,
WM. H. ADKINS,
PHILEMON B. HOPPER.

September 4th, 1911.

Papers Filed After Office Hours.

The contestants made the assertion that Clerk J. T. Dixon had prejudiced their case by not accepting a paper that was given to him at night and Mr. Dixon asked the court for a ruling on the question. The ruling sustained the position of Mr. Dixon absolutely. The following is the ruling:

The Court has been asked to express its views as to the duty of the Clerk to file papers after office hours and after the office has actually been closed for the day.

In our opinion if the office hours established are reasonable, acceptance of papers for filing after the hour for closing and the actual closing of the office, is not compulsory.

In the matter of the Petition in the present case, it being on the Law side of the Court, if the paper had been filed when offered it could not have been withdrawn from the office except upon an order of the Court.

JAMES A. PEARCE,
WM. H. ADKINS,
PHILEMON B. HOPPER.

The tie between Judge J. P. Nicholson and Mr. James Bramble is a puzzler. The decision of the Court has been interpreted by some as putting the matter entirely in the hands of the Supervisors of Election; others say it will necessitate another primary, but the matter will be left open for a time at least.

A FREE exhibition will be given at the Chestertown steamboat wharf next Monday afternoon at 4 30. See adv. elsewhere.

A WINNING TICKET.

The Democratic State Convention in Baltimore this week was a most harmonious affair. After a hot fight in the whole State both the Lee and Gorman forces seem intent now on getting to work to elect the ticket on Nov. 7. The following are the State officers nominated:

GOVERNOR
ARTHUR PUE GORMAN

COMPTROLLER
EMERSON C. HARRINGTON

ATTORNEY GENERAL
EDGAR ALLEN POE

The several planks in the platform are progressive and have the endorsement of Governor Crothers, Senator Lee and Senator Gorman with all their friends.

The following are the most important points in the platform:

Indorsement of the administration of Governor Crothers.

Continuance of road improvement and amending the law so that roads can be built more expediously and cheaper.

Indorsement of the Corrupt Practices act, with amendments designed to stop the existing loop holes.

Indorsement of the Public Utilities act.

Strengthening the present Primary Election law, providing that the primaries be held later than fixed at present and giving anti organization candidates an even chance with those of the organization.

Providing for a new registration in the counties and for the affiliation of voters the same as in Baltimore city. No voter can be allowed to change his affiliation six months prior to the primaries.

Providing for a recount of the primary vote in case of contest or evidence of fraud.

A decided reduction in legislative expenses.

Improvement of the public school system.

The platform will not mention the Local Option bill.

Public Service Commission of Maryland.

ORDER NO. 391.

In the matter of the application of Louis Rafleto and Merritt W. Pharo, for permission and approval of the exercise of a franchise granted by the Commissioners of Chestertown, Maryland, and to begin construction of a gas plant in said town.

Before the Public Service Commission of Maryland. Case No. 207.

ORDERED, This 25th day of August, 1911, that the above application be set for hearing on Thursday, September 21st, 1911, at 1.30 o'clock P. M.; provided the applicant cause a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper published in Chestertown, Maryland, at least two times before said 21st day of September, 1911.

GINSENG.

It is as easily grown as a bed of onions. I will take $50.00 worth of Ginseng and any one else can put $500 00 in anything else, and I will guarantee to make ten times as much money from this $50.00 invested in Ginseng as the other party can make with $500 00 within five years, with one hundred times less work. Room in any back yard to grow hundreds of dollars worth. Two cents in stamps for further information.

"Our Standard Remedy" is the best cure for any form of Stomach and Blood trouble that there is on the market today, I believe. Will ward off typhoid fever and make you feel like a new person. Price $1.00 by mail, postpaid. Money back if it fails to benefit or cure you. One box will last six months.
