Ex-Sheriff James A. Casey, born in 1846, who is therefore 65 years young, concluded to take his first vacation, and, accompanied by Mrs. Casey and granddaughter, Miss Florence Hogan, left here this week for Philadelphia, Wilmington, and possibly New York, and other northern cities, for a short stay of two weeks. These good folks have been tied down to the "grind stone" for many years and are deserving of a long vacation. We, all of us, wish them God speed. May the trip be the most pleasurable event of their lives. Mr. T. F. Davis is superintending Mr. Casey's mercantile business during his absence.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Miss Marvel Ashley has been visiting her cousin, Miss Spry, of Baltimore, also Miss Forrest.

Downey's oyster packing plant is handicapped by reason of inability to get shuckers in sufficient numbers.

From nine acres the Smith Bros. have shipped 77 tons of tomatoes, with an abundance of fruit still on the vines.

Mrs. Herman Kiffmeyer has returned to her home in Newark, N. J., after spending two weeks with her brother, Wm. B. Ashley, in Rock Hall.

"We'uns" think the almanac must have been mistaken when it announced the beginning of autumn on Saturday last. Sunday and Monday were certainly scorchers.

The sailing yacht, Leona, Capt. Frank Akers, sailing master, having been placed out of commission, arrived here Monday and is now moored at her winter quarters in Grey's Inn Creek.

Festivals are now quite ripe, and a most attractive one will be plucked this evening on St. John's R. C. lawn. Everybody come to it, witness the splendid management and help the cause.

Mr. Charles Thompson, who after several month's illness, resumed work a week or so ago, had the misfortune to cut his foot very seriously with an axe last week. This means a knock-out for a month or longer.

Mr. George Ashley, a typhoid fever victim, has so far recovered as to be able to be about at his home. His son is still in a precarious condition, it is said. It is reported that there are three other typhoid cases in the town.

Our people are pleased with the score of 94½ made by Patrolman Charles S. Middleton in the sargeant's "exams" before the Police Board last week. Sorry Clarence Kendall didn't do as well. Both young men are former Rock Hallites and worthy of success.

The hog plague is still on the rampage in these parts. Parties have dumped their dead hogs in the bay waters and several carcasses have floated on the shore of the Smith Bros. farm, and to say they are indignant is hardly strong enough to express their feeling.

Oyster buyers of this section are much criticised during the oyster season by many oyster catchers, but just at this time any old oyster buyer, with any kind of money or measure, would be hugely appreciated. This has been the dullest September ever in the oyster business.

If our erstwhile visitors of a few weeks ago, who declared this town a more livelier town than Chestertown, had been here Friday night and Saturday, they possibly would have thought this town the dullest on the Shore. Three of the largest and two lesser stores were closed, owing to the Jewish New-Year and the Seventh Day Sabbath observance.

Mrs. N. R. Satterfield, who has been spending the summer with her children, Mrs. Bessie Buckler and family, of Baltimore, and Capt. G. F. Satterfield and family, of Brooklyn, N. Y., returned to her home on South Main street last week. Although Mrs. Satterfield has been practically unable to walk without assistance for two years or more, she reports her stay abroad the past summer to have been exceedingly pleasant, her children doing their utmost for her comfort. Her children took her abroad and brought her home, and while with them they procured for her the attention of a skilled physician.

BETTERTON NOTES.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Sarah Rasin died at her home in Washington, D. C., Tuesday from general debility, aged about 75 years. Mrs. Rasin was the daughter of the late William Paca, of Wye Island, and was the widow of the late Joseph Rasin, Sr. also of Wye Island and Kent. Two daughters and one son survive her. Her remains were interred in the cemetery adjoining Wye Mills P. E. Church. Rev. H. W. Ticknor, the rector officiated.

Mrs. Katherine Rebecca Pennington died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Joiner, near Melitota, on Tuesday, Sept. 26th, of old age. She was 75 years of age and leaves the following children: Mrs. W. H. Kelley, Locust Grove; Mrs. Robert Joiner, Melitota; Herbert and Wm. Pennington, of Wilmington. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robt. Joiner, Rev. G. A. Morris officiating; C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers were E. A. Corey, J. R. Bowers, Harry Rash, James Coleman, Harry Stavely, Dave Cannon.

Walter R. Woodall, aged about 35, died Tuesday, after a short illness of peritonitis at his home in Fredericktown. He was master of an extensive freighting line and was a gentleman of unusual healthy appearance. He became overheated last week, took cold, and died within a few days. He was a son of the late Richard Woodall and a grandson of the late Capt. Andrew Woodall. He was twice married and is survived by his wife, who was Miss May Morgan before marriage, and three small children, and also by a son of his first wife. He was a member of the firm of Woodall & Riggin.

W. C. T. U. Notes.—The Kennedyville W. C. T. U. held a business meeting on Friday last at the home of Mrs. Shafer. At the request of Mrs. Othoson, the President, the objects of the meetings were stated; primarily the collection of dues that the good work in the temperance cause may be aided by our encouragement and our money. The State Convention will be held October 4th and 5th at Westminster. The presence of the Convention there, it is felt, will be a help to them in the fight that they hope to make this fall to put away the saloon from among them.

Meals will be served at Weer's Hall on election day by the Kennedyville W. C. T. U. Donations from members and friends will be appreciated.
