LOCAL NOTES.

THE "Bake" conducted by the Relief Society cleared $16.

NEXT Tuesday is the last day to get registered or to be transferred. Don't fail to attend to this important matter.

W. S. CARROLL is greatly improving the home of Mr. Elwood Whaley on Cross street. A new porch and double bay window is being built besides changes in the interior of the house.

THE Watts house on Queen street, so well kept by Miss Mollie Watts, has been rented to a prospective bride and groom. Miss Watts expects to remove to Baltimore with her niece Miss Anna Bryan.

THE Democratic State candidates passed through Chestertown Thursday enroute to St. Michaels. They were warmly welcomed by Messrs. L. W. Vickes, W. W. Beck, H. H. Barroll, S. S. Wroth, the NEWS man, W. H. Hadaway, J. T. Dixon, C. L. Dodd, J. C. Coud, H. McCloskey, W. H. McKee, P. S. Wilmer, W. T. Nicholson and others. They expect to visit Kent later and speak.

WORK on Chestertown's new macadam street was begun Saturday, Sept. 30, by Contractor Adkinson and 20 Italians. The hill to the wharf is being graded and several feet of earth hauled off. Part of the dirt is used in filling in at foot of hill and a part by private parties. The macadam road will begin at D. A. Bacchus' corner and extend to the Foshell House. The workmen live in shacks built on the town lot near town.

J. V. KILBOURN, who for the last three years has conducted a grocery store in the Cann building, on the corner of Water and Commerce streets, Centreville, on Wednesday closed his store and appointed a receiver for the benefit of his creditors. Mr. Charles E. Tucker will act as his receiver. Mr. Kilbourn states that he hopes to be able to straighten all his difficulties in a short time and decided to close only after having found it next to impossible to collect the large amounts outstanding in debts. His many friends express the hope that he will meet with success in his effort to straighten out his business troubles. Mr. Kilbourn removed to Centreville from Edesville.

THE Chapman & Lambert lot on corner Cross and Cannon streets has been sold by Mrs. John C. Davis to Mr. L. Bates Russell. It is reported that Mr. Russell will build an opera house and two stores on the lot.

SPARKS' Department Store had beautiful bouquets of dahlias from Mrs. Sam'l Mann's garden, Lynch. Mrs. H. B. Nicholson, Chestertown, also has a big variety of dahlias. The flower show soon to take place here will give the public a fine opportunity to see what home folks can grow in the way of flowers.

THE will of the late Mrs. Samuel Todd was admitted to probate Tuesday. It leaves all her estate during life to her daughter, Mrs. Dempsey, and at her death to said daughter's children.

THE Keiffer pear crop in Kent promises to be larger than was anticipated as is also the Western crop. Buyers are only paying 9 cents per basket now and the early sellers are congratulating themselves. One farmer, near Crumpton, is getting 20 cents per basket, others 16, others 14, while others are still holding for a rise. Mr. Arthur Harris picked 27 which filled a tomato basket. Mr. Chas. W. Copper has nine trees from which he picked 170 baskets last week at 14 cents, and would have more to ship this week!

THE Baldwin cannery will close to-day. The capacity of this plant is 5,000 baskets of tomatoes per day but because of scarcity of labor not 3,000 could be packed per day.

A DEMONSTRATION of interest to the farmers of Kent and Queen Anne's counties in the saving of cow peas, was to have been given at "Royston Farm," the home of Mr. W. Irving Walker, and on Mr. Long's place, near Chester bridge, Queen Anne's county, yesterday afternoon. The machine was sent here from the Agricultural College and was guaranteed to cut, thresh and bag the seed.

J. T. IRELAND, near Coleman's, has a pumpkin vine which he thinks is at least a mile long on which there are six pumpkins weighing about 75 pounds each. On display in Medders & Co's Still Pond store is a pumpkin grown by Harry Redding which weighed 160 lbs. and measured 85 inches in circumference!

C. J. CONNER has rented the Shallcross farm, at the wharf where Mr. Raymond Bonwill has been overseer. Mr. Conner expected to take possession at once.

M. A. TOULSON has moved his store goods from the "square" into his new buildings on High street. The furniture and fixtures of Mr. Toulson's store room are of the most improved style, all plate glass counters, mahogany finish throughout, giving him one of the handsomest and up-to-date equipments on the peninsula. Messrs. McIntyre & Son, and Messrs. Vansant & Newsome expect to occupy their new quarters the latter part of the present or the first of next week.

THE ladies of the Town Improvement Society are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. R. H. Collins Monday afternoon at 3 p. m. A rummage sale will be held this Fall and all housekeepers are asked to remember it. It is desired to bring the matter of a garbage system before the Town Commissioners especially the inauguration of can receptacles for paper, bananna skins, pealings, etc. Let's all pull together for the good of Chestertown.

The Kent and Queen Annes County Driving and Fair Association.

The object of this association is to encourage the breeding of better horses, cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, corn, wheat, hay, fruit and vegetables. To standardize those native types that prove of commercial value, to hold an annual fair, and further in every way possible, the best interests of the farmers and merchants of the Eastern Shore. To provide a place of amusement for our people at home, as it is to be managed by home people and supported by local capital.

Everybody in the two counties can subscribe for stock, and thus have a voice in the management of the association's affairs. The executive committee desires to inform the public that gambling of any kind will have no place in the charter, and will not be permitted anywhere within the jurisdiction of the organization. Every one's attention is also called to the fact that the capital stock must be subscribed for by the fifteenth of December, otherwise it will interfere with the giving out of necessary contracts, and prevent the holding of a fair next year.
