MAN IN HOSPITAL; WIFE DIES.

While her husband, Rev. James A. Mitchell, of Centreville, Md., lay ill at the Church Home and Infirmary awaiting an operation, unaware of his wife's illness, Mrs. Ellen McKenney Mitchell died Monday morning of pneumonia contracted several days.

Mrs. Mitchell's sickness was not considered serious either by her attending physician or the members of her family. Her son-in-law, Mr. Clayton Wright, left his home before six o'clock Monday morning, thinking that Mrs. Mitchell was doing nicely. Within a few minutes he was summoned to his home. Mrs. Mitchell had died in the meanwhile.

Mr. Mitchell is the rector emeritus of St. Paul's parish, Centreville. He was brought to that city sometime ago and will be operated on this week. As yet he has not been notified of his wife's death.

Mrs. Mitchell was staying at the home of Mr. William McKenney, York road and Winston avenue. Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters, Miss Susie B. Mitchell and Mrs. Clayton Wright, and two sons, Mr. James A. Mitchell, Jr., and Master John Mitchell. The body will be shipped to Centreville for burial.

THOMPSON'S WARRIORS WIN

Washington College Plays A Great Game Against Mt. St. Mary's —Score 17 To 12.

[From Baltimore Sun]

Emmittsburg, Md., Oct. 14.—In a game featuring the open style of football, Mount St. Mary's defeated Washington College today, 17 to 12. The Mountaineers had things pretty much their own way in the first half and scored two touchdowns, and it looked as if they were going to run up a larger score.

The Eastern Shore boys were not discouraged and came back strong in the second half, and ran the mountain boys off their feet. Washington had the advantage of condition, and to this alone was the result of constant plugging that they crossed the goal line by well-directed plays. Both of Mount St. Mary's touchdowns resulted in long runs. The first, Sheridan, on a mass on tackle, got by and made a run of 60 yards. Washington rushed the ball to the 15-yard line and on the third down Captain Porter tried a forward pass. He threw the ball and it landed in Malloy's hands. He took it down 105 yards for the second touchdown.

The Mountaineers seemed to play from this on as though they had the game easy, and did not put much life in their plays. Both teams played a good game on the offensive, but the defensive work on both sides was very weak. The tackling was high and did not have any effect, the men carrying the ball, making effective gains when they should have been nailed in their tracks.

Washington gained considerable distance in the punting game, Captain Porter out-punting his opponent. The backfield on both teams handled punts well, but were very poor in running them back for any distance. The Eastern Shore boys were very successfull with the forward pass, it netting considerable gains. On one Lewis at right end got away for 30 yards. The rooters of the Mount St. Mary's boys were looking for this style of game from their own team, but somehow or other the boys did not use it.

The ones tried worked with telling effect, and if the locals had resorted to this game in the second half they would have had more success. After Washington had tied up the score, both teams resorted to a punting game. Engel got one away from his own 40-yard line, which the Washington backfield let get away from them, and after a mad chase, when the ball crossed the goal line after being touched a Mountaineer fell on it, making the last score in the game.

Mount St. Mary's tried a punt out, but failed for a chance at goal.

For Washington Captain Porter put up a strong game both in punting and with use of the forward pass. Jones, at tackle, was in every play, while Meekins, at quarter, ran his team well, putting plenty of life in his plays.

Sheridan's and Malloy's long runs were the bright features for the Mountaineers. The two strings of backfield men worked hard, but at times did not follow their interference. Both McMorris and McManus, at quarter, kept the team well in hand, but should have taken more chances with the forward pass. Dowdle, who was pulled from tackle this past week and sent to fullback, made a good showing, and when he gets more accustomed to the position should prove very effective. The linesmen on both teams played a steady game, but at times both had the fault of getting the charge.

The game fully demonstrated that there are great possibilities in this new open style game and proves very interesting to the spectators. The line-up:

Mt. St. Mary's	Position	Washington
Robinson	Left tackle	Wilkinson
Ruddy	Left guard	Meredith
Wymard, Rice	Centre	Long
Teehen	Right guard	Davis
Gaughan	Right tackle	Jones
Engel	Right end	Garrett, Lewis
McMorris, McManus	Qu'terback	Meekins
Sh'dan, L'ghran	Left halfback	Strong, Wilmer
Cam'll, Martin	Right halfback	Bran'm, Biddle
Dowdle	Fullback	Porter

Touchdowns—Sheridan, Malloy, Campbell, Porter (2). Goals from touchdowns—Wymard (2), Wilkinson (2). Referee—M. J. Thompson. Umpire—Scott Beck. Field judge—Mr. Leary. Linesman—Mr. Pagan. Time of game—Four 12-minute periods.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.
