FAIRVIEW FARM SCENES

HOWARD COUNTY, MD., HOME OF

HON. A. P. GORMAN,

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

FAIRVIEW FARM.

Attractive Fairview Farm was selected as a home for the Gorman family many years ago by the Hon. Peter Gorman, father of the late United States Senator Arthur P. Gorman, and it is where that distinguished gentleman with his several brothers and sisters were raised, in the most pleasing surroundings of real country life. It was at Fairview Farm that the late Senator Gorman, who succeeded his father in its ownership, loved to retire and recuperate from the cares of public life, and it was by him left to the present Democratic candidate for Governor, Arthur P. Gorman, the younger. Fairview Farm has always been noted for its open hospitality, nothing pretentious, but every visitor being met with a genial welcome, and made to feel as if he or she was one of the family. While United States Senator Gorman took great pride in his farming operations, it was left to the present owner, Gubernatorial candidate Mr Gorman, to make it into a practical, profit-paying property holding.

Candidate Gorman is a real farmer in a practical sense, and gives considerable time to working out the problems connected with agriculture to make it pay. Large crops of grain, hay, corn, and some good stock are raised at Fairview, but the premier crop is wheat, and for many years the Fairview wheat has been the first harvested, the first threshed, and the first to go to market from Howard County. Fairview butter, although not manufactured for sale, is now known far and wide for its excellent qualities, and the Fairview hams, cured by a private recipe, are always in the greatest demand. Mr Gorman is particularly happy in handling his farm hands; the present manager or working foreman is the second son of a father who was with the senior Senator Gorman for a great many years, and there is no farmer in Howard County who has more pleasant relations with his neighbors, rich and poor, white and black, than Mr. Gorman, and it is not unusual to see the Gubernatorial candidate in the fields with his hands, not only directing their work, but taking an actual part in same.

If elected the development of agriculture in the State will receive a great deal of thought from him, and will be encouraged by his acts in every way possible.

SECTION 79. Any deposit of money in any part of the State as a wager or bet upon elections in this State or elsewhere, shall be forfeited and paid over to the County Commissioners of the county where deposited, for the use of the county, and if deposited in the city of Baltimore to the Mayor and City Council.
