YOU CAN RAISE 100% OF CHICKENS HATCHED

PRAISE WHERE PRAISE IS DUE.

"I have been most successful with my incubator chickens this year, having raised 100 per cent. of chickens hatched. In former years I was only able to raise about 40 to 50 per cent. Then I fed them on home products, but this year I am feeding Bolgiano's "Square Deal" Foods entirely, and attribute my success to your nicely balanced foods. My hatches were made with one of your Buckeye Incubators. I tell you this because I believe in giving praise where praise is due."—Written on September 26th, 1911, by Miss Lulu Thomas, of Pearsons, St. Mary's county, Md.

XMAS WEDDING BELLS.

VICKERS—ELIASON.

Chestertown M. E. Church was tastily decorated Wednesday for the wedding of State's Attorney-elect Harrison W. Vickers and Miss Rebecca Eliason, two popular and well-known young people of this town. The hour was 2 o'clock and the minister was Dr. Louis E. Barrett. Owing to the recent death of the groom's father, only the immediate families were present. The bride wore a befitting tailor-made traveling suit of blue broadcloth. Clara Elliott and Elizabeth Brown were the flower girls, Mr. George Vickers, brother of the groom, was the best man, and the ushers were John and Hiram Eliason. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Wilbur Eliason, Jr. Miss Mabel Toulson presided at the organ. Mr. and Mrs. Vickers left on the afternoon train from Kennedyville for a short trip, after which they will reside in the Jones cottage, on Washington avenue. Mr. Vickers will be sworn in as State's Attorney on Monday. They will be at home to their friends after February 1. Among the presents were a good-sized check, silverware, furniture, &c.

PRETTYMAN—DAVIS.

The home of Mrs. Avis Davis on Cannon street was the scene of a quiet wedding early Saturday morning. The bride was Miss Mildred Davis, secretary to Prof. Milton Melvin, and Mr. Arthur Prettyman, a hustling agent of the Prudential Insurance Company at Chestertown. The bride was neatly attired in a navy blue traveling suit with hat to match. Dr. F. T. Little performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family. They spent their honeymoon in Philadelphia returning Monday to their home on Cannon street.

DUDLEY—WALLS.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Dr. N. S. Dudley, who was married Thursday at noon to Miss Clara E. Walls, daughter of the late E. B. Walls, and Mrs. Louiza Walls, of Church Hill. The ceremony was performed in Wilmington by Rev. Father Temple. The groom is a son of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Dudley, and well-known in the county. After a short wedding trip to New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, they will reside in their new home just remodeled.

STAVELY—FLETCHER

Hope E. Fletcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fletcher, was married to Harry Allen Stavely December 23rd, 1911, by Rev. Dr. Little. After spending Christmas with the bride's parents, they left Thursday for Philadelphia and Washington spending sometime in Baltimore on their return.

FRENCH—HATCHERSON.

Mr. William J. French, son of Mr. Jas. French, of near town, and Miss Ethel M. Hatcherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hatcherson, of near Fairlee, were married at Alnutt Memorial M. P. Parsonage, Baltimore, on Wednesday evening by the pastor, Rev. Dr. John S. Bowers. The ceremony was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Jones.

KING—CULLOM.

Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Cullom announce the marriage of their daughter, Beulah Mae, to Mr. L. Price King, Jr., Wednesday evening, December 27, 1911, at 8 o'clock, at Grace Methodist Protestant Church, Pittsville, Md. At home after January 15 at Warwick, Md.

WALLS—MEREDITH.

The wedding of Charles C. Meredith, son of James B. Meredith, and Miss Ethel Midred Walls, sister of Mrs. J. Thomas Smith, all of Queen Anne's county, took place Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, Dr. L. E. Barrett officiating. They will reside on the Walker farm near Chester bridge.

BRAMBLE—WILTBANK.

Miss Mary J. Wiltbank and Mr. J. Howard Bramble two well-known and popular young people of Kent, were married on Thursday evening at the parsonage by the Rev. Robinson, of Locust Grove, Md. They took their friends by surprise in quietly being married. Mr. Bramble is a farmer near Still Pond on the Watts farm and their many friends wish them all happiness in their married life.

BACON—SEVERSON.

Mr. Charles A. Bacon, of Chestertown, and Miss Daisy B. Severson, the popular young daughter of Mr. James Severson, of Still Pond, were quietly married at the Kennedyville M. P. parsonage at 6 o'clock last Wednesday evening by Rev. Mr. Mullineaux. The bride looked very sweet in a blue chiffon broadcloth suit, with hat to match, and the groom wore the conventional black. They left the next morning by train for points North. The only witnesses to the ceremony were Miss Marian Hackett and Mr. Clarence Ford, of Still Pond. Heartiest congratulations.

BRAMBLE—DURDING.

Rock Hall M. E. Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Xmas day at 10.30 a. m., when Mr. Walter T. Bramble, an active and popular business man of Chestertown, led to the altar Miss Edna Durding, oldest daughter of Mrs. Lee A. Durding, of Rock Hall. The bride was dressed in a blue serge traveling suit, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a bunch of pink carnations with bridal ribbon. The groom was dressed in the conventional black. The ushers were Messrs. Trew Durding, John Hadaway, Robert Ayres and Robert Moffett. Rev. Mr. Corkran, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. Miss Anna May Ayres played the wedding march, and Miss Etta Durding, of Washington, D. C., sister of the bride, sang a sweet solo just before the bridal couple entered.

The church was well filled with the many friends of the popular young couple. They took the steamer for a short trip to Washington to return the latter part of the week, when they will be at home in Chestertown to their friends. The presents were many and useful. The bright sunny morning made us all feel and hope it was a happy omen of the lives of these two young people so much thought of by all who know them, and in the years to come may they ever look back with feelings akin to joy on Christmas day, 1911.

THE Christmas dance in Davis & Satterfield's skating rink on Thursday evening was enjoyed by a large company.

KICKED BY HORSE.

Little Four-Year-Old Boy Meets With Accident Christmas Day, Near Chestertown.

The little four-year-old son of Mr. Walter King, living on the Jarrell farm near Chestertown, is accustomed to wander about the farm and his parents feel no uneasiness if he remains several hours. Monday afternoon he strolled into the stable and while walking behind the favored driving horse and just in front of the open door, the horse kicked the lad clear into the pound! His older brother found him lying in the pound about an hour after the accident. He was carried to the house and Dr. H. G. Simpers summoned who soon arrived and set the fractured limb. The little fellow's leg was broken above the knee and the print of the horse's shoe could be plainly seen on the injured lad's leg. At this writing he is doing as well as can be expected.

OBJECTS TO REBUILDING ROAD

The P. B. & W. Says Nicholson Branch Has Been Abandoned.

Messrs. Bernard Carter & Sons, counsel for the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company, Friday filed with the Public Service Commission an application for a rehearing in the case of the Nicholson branch railroad in Kent county, which the commission recently ordered the company to rebuild and operate.

The company contends that the road had been discontinued when it was leased with other properties of the Delaware Railroad; points out that not only is the Nicholson branch unprofitable but the whole Kent county railroad system is unprofitable, and that the commission exceeded its authority when it ordered the company to rebuild and operate the road at a loss.

THE special meeting of the Still Pond Grange was postponed until Tuesday January 2 on account of rain last week. All are urged to be present.
