

Captain John A.G. Shultz, Northwestern District, having appeared before the Board to day, and denied emphatically each and all the several charges contained in the publication referred to reflecting upon himself, and having stated to the Board that he would be glad of an opportunity to enter suit against the Baltimore Herald because of the damaging statements made respecting himself in said publication, the Board directed that Mr. Alonzo L. Miles, Counsel, be instructed to bring an action against the Baltimore Herald, in the name of Captain Shultz.
