PERSONAL AND SOCIETY EVENTS IN KENT COUNTY

Mr. Frank H. Howard will accompany his son, Lewin, on his return trip to Panama leaving Chestertown next Thursday. Mr. Howard will return in the Spring.

Mr. Frederic H. Russell, we are glad to say, is now fast recovering from a sickness that has been unusual. For weeks he was extremely ill from a stomach disorder and finally his physician, Dr. F. B. Hines, decided to have the dentist remove five lower teeth. At the roots of these teeth was found the cause of the trouble, and at once the patient commenced to improve. He hopes to visit friends on the Western Shore next week and there recuperate. Mr. O. W. Paddocks will look after the electrical business during his absence.

Miss Virginia Cain, of Chestertown, was one of the singers at a banquet given by the Masons in Federalsburg Wednesday evening.

Mr. P. M. Brooks has been housed with cold at his home on the Avenue this week.

Mr. Cornelius G. Hadaway has retired from farming and has moved into the Dwyer home at Catts Corner. His son, Mr. Mowbray Hadaway, will till his father's farm.

Mr. Earle Dodson will take charge of his father's large farm near Tolchester this year.

Mr. Wm. R. Maul has been housed with a bad cold, but is improved now.

Mrs. Joseph A. Wickes spent several days in town this week.

Dr. W. R. Graham was in town Monday attending the funeral of Mrs. Hines. He took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Dodd as did Mr. I. R. Leaverton. An interesting feature of this meeting was the fact that Dr. Graham was a pupil of Mr. Leaverton when Mr. L taught school in Caroline. The doctor is a fine product of this school.

Mr. and Mrs. James E Woodall, Jr., of Georgetown, Md., and her sister, Miss Charlotte Peverley, entertained a number of friends Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. George V. Peverley. The affair was a surprise shower given for Miss Eliza Cochran Green, in honor of her approaching marriage to Mr. Richard Seymour Rodney, of New Castle, which will take place on January twentieth.

Mrs. Frank Jones and son, of Locust Grove, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Carroll, Chestertown, the past week.

The Saunders' property at Rock Hall has been rented by Mrs. Maslin.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Harris have moved into the house recently vacated by Mr, and Mrs. D. B Ford on Princess street.

Mr. C. C. Jones went to the Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, for a slight operation. Dr. Charles Blake performed the same.

Mr. Harry Derringer, who is at the Naval Academy, is playing on the first Navy team, which defeated Yale Saturday at basketball.

Mr. Charles R. Lambert, of Chester, Pa., spent Saturday and Sunday with his father, Mr. Edw. F. Lambert.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, of Baltimore, are spending the week as guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Coleman.

Mrs. Samuel Cooper, who has been ill with pnuemonia, is gradually convalescing.

Mrs. T. Blackiston Perkins and children, of Philadelphia, visited her mother, Mrs. M. A. Wilkins, during the holidays.

Mr. Eben F. Perkins, teller in the Third National Bank, has been quite ill and has left town for a short vacation to recuperate health.

Walter B. Harris won the $125 second prize for best general display of all fruits, while on various grades of apples won prizes amounting to over $150.

Messrs. Wm. R. Pippin and T. T. Horn are working temporarily near Philadelphia.

Mr. Adam C. Fowler is tenanting the Boyer farm, in Quaker Neck, while Mr. Boyer and family have returned to Dover, Delaware.

Mrs. Hallie Kelley has been visiting her brother, on Queen street.

Mrs. A. M. Bowers received a postal shower on her 77th birthday this week. She is one of our young and active citizens. May she live to see many happy returns of the day. Notwithstanding the intense cold, she was in her place at church Thursday night, showing that age has not dimmed her zeal for this work.

When Dr. H. G. Simpers met Dr. P. L. Boyer, major in the Medical Corps of the United States Army, Sunday, it was the first time these old friends have met for thirteen years, when they were room mates while stationed at Bay View Hospital, near Baltimore. Dr. Boyer's home is in Woodstock, Va., he is being stationed for some time in Texas. He was abroad when war was declared and did service in a French hospital. Dr. Boyer is a youny man, but has had experiences that even few older men have gone through. He was stationed in the Philipines for six years and talks most entertainingly of life in distant land of Uncle Sam's.

Joshua Connor on Friday celebrated the seventy-fifth anniversary of his birth quietly at his home, 510 West Eleventh street, Wilmington, Del. He was greeted by many friends and received many congratulatory messages. Mr. Connor and his son, J. Christy Connor, conduct a leather and harness store at 235 Market street. The senior member of the firm has been in the business many years and is considered one of the foremost harness and leather workers in the city. He is in good health and is at his store daily. He is well known in Kent, where he visits the Foxwell's.

Mr. Joseph B. Noland has succeeded Mr. W. E. Ringgold as head blacksmith at Mr. H. S. DeFord's shops. Mr. Noland is well known throughout the county as a skilled mechanic and especially as an A1 horse-shoer. Mr. Ringgold will give his attention to his store on High street and carrying passengers in his auto. Well done, good and faithful employe.

Mr. John Mallalieu has gone to Wilmington, where he has accepted a position with the duPonts for the winter and early spring.

R. Hynson Rogers, Esq, left yesterday for a trip to Florida to inspect some property.

Miss Jennie Nickerson, who has been spending some time with her brother, Mr. W. R. Nickerson, has left to visit relatives in Delaware.

Mrs. Martha Crew is quite sick at the home of her son, Mr. Walter Crew, Betterton, Md.

Mrs. M. Tull spent Wednesday and Thursday in Baltimore at the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Elezey, who was very sick.

Mr. Roland Matthews, instead of having a position in the postoffice at Washington, has a clerkship in the War Department. About 1½ years ago he took a civil service examination for such work from Florida, as each state is allowed a certain number of applicants. This position is a result of that examination. His family will join him in the Spring.

William Pepper Constable, Esq, whose adv. appears in this paper, represented Mr. Addison G. DuBois, of Baltimore, against John Hayes Hammond in Baltimore, and won a suit which has been in progress since November After being out eight hours Mr. Constable's client received a verdict for $238,750 00. The court reduced this verdict one-half.

Mrs. C. M. Blackiston carried her little girl, Florence, to St. Agnes Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Chester Mellinger, of Wilmington, has been visiting her parents on Cannon St.

Rev. J. David Clark, pastor of the Towson, Md. Baptist Church, visited Rev. C. E McCullough this week.

The Mite Society of Christ M. P. Church met at the home of Mrs. Wm. R. Aldridge Monday evening. They are arranging to hold a Tea the last week in January.

Mr. C. N. Satterfield conducted an interesting meeting in Christ M. P. Church Sunday evening at 6 45. Short addresses were made by Frank Elburn, Roy Barnett, the leader and others. A duet by A. L. Sparks and J. Hydie Thompson was well rendered.

Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, who is holding a successful revival at Chestertown M. E. Church, has secured the services of Professor Watkins Davis, a noted evangelical singer, to assist him in his work all this week.

Master Todd Beauchamp sang a sweet solo at the Epworth League meeting on Sunday evening.

Sunday, January 14, will be known as Family Day in Chestertown M. E. Church. It is hoped that the parents will, as far as possible, have their entire family at this service.

An interesting meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society was held at the home of Miss Maude Kemp last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Herbert Perkins has recently been elected president of this society.

MUSICALE AT THE INN

The Eastern Shore Inn will give a musicale in its assembly room Thursday evening, January 18, at 8 o'clock. They have secured Mr. and Mrs W. B. Shafer of Easton, formerly of New York City. They are singing at local concerts on the Eastern Shore with much success.

Mr. T. Kemp Bordley, violinist, needs no comment, his work having commended itself to Chestertown music lovers for some time past. Mr. and Mrs. Shafer will be accompanied by Mrs. Henry Davies, of Easton, and Mr. Bordley by Miss Mabel Toulson.

Admission will be fifty cents. Tickets can be secured at the Inn on and after January 12th. Dancing will follow the program.

ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT

The lecture room of Christ M. P. Church was the centre of the stage for a most enjoyable and refined entertainment last Friday evening, given by the Intermediate Society of Christian Endeavor. The program was presented in fine style, the New-Year resolutions being quite a novelty. Numbers (5 alike) were placed in a plate and passed around to the audience. Then the groups of five got together and agreed on a Resolution. After announcing the same, the speaker carried a lighted candle about the room, and as the candle remained lighted all the Resolutions are to be kept. Chocolate and doughnuts, made by the young ladies, were served. Here is the program:

Prayer.....Mr. Ward
Piano Duet.....Amy and Lida Wheat
Vocal Duet.....Florence Kent, Helen Maslin
Recitation.....Dorothy Ward
Piano Solo.....Harriett Reed
Recitation.....Sarah Seney
Piano Duett.....Willard Culp, Robert Pippin
Piano Solo.....Elizabeth Reed
Debate: "Resolved, that the sword has been of more service to the world than the pen."
Affirmative—Rebecca Truitt, Sallie White.
Negative—Edna Kirby, Olive Kent.
New Year Resolves.....Audience
Refreshments. Judges Decision.
Benediction.

The splendid debate resulted in a victory for the negative.

DEATHS

On Monday evening, January 3, 1917, Julia Rebecca, wife of the late Samuel H. Crawford, died at her home near Rock Hall. She was a daughter of the late Thomas J. Vickers and Rebecca B. Tilden. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. A. C. Bowersock and Margaret Vickers Crawford, and a devoted cousin, Mrs. John E. Hadaway; one sister, Mrs. Wm. F. Watts, and a brother, Charles M. Vickers. She was beloved by a wide circle of relatives and friends and her death leaves a wide gap that none can fill. The funeral services were held at Old St. Paul's Church at eleven o'clock Thursday, Jan. 11, 1917. Dr. Dickinson officiated, and the bearers were Walter B. Strong, D. W. Crosby, Elmer Leary, Joseph Lambert, Charles Jessop and T. Barclay Kilbourn; Chas. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Marie Shriver, who died on Friday evening about 8 p. m. was buried on Sunday afternoon. Funeral services were held at the home of her son, Mr. Henry Jones, of Piney Neck. The deceased was about 78 years of age, and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Collier, and two sons, Messrs. Henry Jones and Carroll Shriver; the former son and daughter by a former marriage. Revs. J. W. Prettyman and Alonzo Travers conducted the services. The pallbearers were: Messrs. James and Walter Elburn, Wm. Coleman, Wm. Frazier, Jack Collison and Washington Crouch. Interment in old family burying ground.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth D. Hines wife of the late John W. Hines, of Chestertown, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. J. Evans, 4115 N. Calvert street, after a short illness, was held on Monday from the home of her daughter. Services were conducted at the home by the Rev. Walter R. Graham. The pallbearers were John B. Hines, Robert E. Patterson, of Wilmington, Wm. J. Evans, Alexander Cockey, Raleigh Bruce Ebert and A. S. Goldsborough. Burial was Chestertown.

Mrs. Hines was born at Dover, Del., and before marriage was Miss Elizabeth Dalby Burchinal. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Wm. J. Evans, Mrs. Alexander Cockey, Mrs. Editha Clark and Miss Lucile Hines and two sons John B. and I. William Hines all of Baltimore. She was considered one of the most beautiful ladies of Kent and had many warm friends here.

MARTHA HYNSON COLEMAN.

Martha Ann Hynson, daughter of John and Charlotte Hynson, was born August 24, 1831, on Cook's Point Farm, now known as the Romie Strong farm in Piney Neck. She was united in marriage to W. W. Coleman of Chestertown, on June 7, 1849. She was the dutiful mother to ten children, seven of whom survive her.

Mrs. Coleman, known to the oldest residents in the community as "Mother Coleman" and to the children as "grandmother," will be best remembered for her gentle ways and beautiful flowers. Her garden has long been a glory to lower Kent and her rooms laden with the fragrance of blossoms a pleasure to her relatives and friends. In early life she joined the Methodist church, but twenty-five years before her death she accepted the Third Angel's Message under the labors of R. D. Hottel and E. E. Franke, those who introduced the religion in Rock Hall. She departed this life forty minutes past one on the afternoon of January 2nd, age 85 years, four months and nine days. She is survived by the following children: Messrs. John W., William W., Marion, Ulysses G. and Marcellus; Mrs. Oregon P. Leary and Mrs. William Carter. Her other survivors are fifty-three grand-children, thirty-six great-grand-children and five great-great-grand-children.

Funeral services were conducted at the Seventh Day Adventist Church by Elder J. O. Miller, President of the Chesapeake Conference. He spoke words of comfort to the mourners and many friends who filled the church. Altho she died pleading with relatives to meet her at the resurrection, her endurance in suffering told more plainly than words her belief in her favorite hymn.

"We're floating down the stream of time,
We have not long to stay,
The stormy clouds of darkness
Will turn to brightest day.
Then let us all take courage,
For we are not left alone;
The life boat soon is coming
To gather the jewels home."

The wife of Rev. J. W. Trout, D. D., of Philadelphia, died last Saturday, of pneumonia.

H. H. Beneman, Millington, has reduced all his winter goods and wearing apparel for the whole family.
