Order of Publication

Aresulie Jones
vs.
James Henry Jones.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity. No. 1979.

THE object of the Bill is to procure a decree a vinculo matrimonii.

The Bill states:

1. That on or about the 13th day of February, 1896, Aresulie Jones married James Henry Jones, at Still Pond, Maryland, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Frederick J. Lee.

2. That there has been no children born as a result of said marriage.

3. That ever since their said marriage your Oratrix has behaved herself as a faithful, chaste and affectionate wife towards the said James Henry Jones.

4. That your Oratrix Aresulie Jones lived with her husband in Kent county about five years, then moved to Philadelphia, Pa., where they resided together for about twelve years, that sometime during the first part of the year 1913 your Oratrix discovered that her husband, James Henry Jones had committed the crime of adultery with one Fannie Wilmer on divers days and times during the year of 1912 and 1913, and on and up to the time of the filing of this bill.

5. That your Oratrix has not lived or cohabited with the said James Henry Jones since she discovered his said adulteries.

6. And the said James Henry Jones deserted your Oratrix in May 1913, and went to live with the said Fannie Wilmer, and is now living with her in the city of Philadelphia.

7. Your Oratrix now resides in Kent County, Maryland, and has been a resident of Kent County since May, 1913.

It is thereupon this 27th day of December, 1916, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent County in Equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 22nd day of January next, giving notice to the said James Henry Jones, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 7th day of February next, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

BASKET BALL

Washington Humbles U. of P. Five By 41 To 31.

In one of the most spectacular games ever seen in Chestertown, the Washington College basketball quint triumphed over the University of Pennsylvania Reserves Saturday night to the tune of 41 to 31. The game was marked by spectacular spots on the part of both teams at most opportune times. On two separate occasions, one in each half, the Washington College players, with the score a tie, pulled ahead five points by means of two quick goals and a goal from the foul line, but were immediately overtaken by the Pennsylvanians scoring in the same manner.

Greatly outweighed, the local quint showed superior team work. Washington drew first blood when Captain Spedden shot two goals from the foul line, but Ramonat, of the Pennsylvanians, soon came back with a clever goal from the floor.

The second half was all Washington's and the visitors could not keep up with the fast pace set by the local boys. Ramonat was the star for the University of Pennsylvania team and Van Ginkel, the big centre, also put up a sterling game.

The referee was one of the best ever seen at Washington College and he compelled each team to "toe the mark" all the time.

In the preliminary interclass game the freshmen defeated the sophomores, 16 to 10.

Johns Hopkins University will play here to-night and a good game is anticipated, though Washington should win by a decisive score.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, ANNIE M. SHRIVER, who departed this life one week ago to-day, Friday, January 5, 1917. She was the daughter of Jas. E. and Martha Crouch, born May 22, 1837; married at the age of 17 to Thomas Jones; left a widow in the year 1864 with four small children, being a widow for five years; in the year 1869 she married James T. Shriver, by whom she had two children. Her last husband died in 1908, and being in a feeble condition and not able to be left alone, she was removed to the home of her son, Thomas H. Jones, where she spent her last years. She is survived by three children, Thomas H. Jones, Mary Collyer and Carroll Shinn, of Piney Neck; 13 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren. She was a devoted wife and a loving mother and loved by all who knew her. Funeral services were held from her late residence in Piney Neck Sunday, January 7, at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Prettyman and Rev. E. Travers. Casey Bros. had charge of the funeral arrangements and interment in home cemetery. The bearers were James F. and Walter Elburn, William R Coleman, William Frazier, Wash. Crouch and John Collison.

Have you a mother, love her well,
While she is spared on earth;
Wait not till God has called her hence
To know her precious worth.
Oh, soothe her in her hour of pain,
Be gentle and mild when she is gone,
To think you have been a faithful child.
O, the memory of that evening,
As we stood with aching heart,
Seeing the one we loved so dearly
Pierced by death's most cruel dart.

HER SON, THOMAS H. JONES.

How we stood by her rocker,
And bid her farewell,
And we echoed good-bye, mother,
What you suffered no tongue can tell.
Oh, God, what a weight of sorrow
Must I the lonely one bear;
The silent room, the empty bed,
And vacant rocking chair.
Tenderly nursed and cared for her,
Trying in vain to restore her health;
Would have been worth an emperor's throne
Her life to me was more than wealth.

SON'S WIFE, MAMIE JONES.

Death has robbed us of grandmother,
Whom we loved and cherished dear,
It was grandmother, yes, dear grandmother,
Can we help but shed a tear?
We do not know the pain she bore
As we sat and watched her die,
But we only knew she slept away
Without bidding us goodbye.

GRANDSON SOLOMON.

Jesus, while our hearts are bleeding,
O'er the spoils that death has won,
We would at thy solemn meeting
Calmly say Thy will be done.

GRANDDAUGHTER MRS. AMOS CROUCH.

She has crossed the shining river,
And has gained the radiant shore,
Where no hearts with grief can quiver,
And all parting scenes are o'er.
We will soon pass over to meet her,
And make whole the broken band;
Meet her just across the river,
In that happy spirit land.
She has gone to heaven before us.
But she turns and waves her hand,
Pointing to the glorious o'er us
In that happy spirit land.

GRANDDAUGHTER ANNIE EDWARDS.

And though our circle was broken,
And the parting filled us with pain,
We hold as a glorious token
The light hope of meeting again.

GRANDDAUGHTER MRS. JOHN CROUCH.

Silently the shade of evening
Gathers around our lonely door,
Silently they bring before us
Her dear face will see me no more.

BY SON CARROLL SHRIVER.

Love cannot forget, the Lord took you from us
It was His holy will—
And left in our hearts a vacant place
That never can be filled.

DAUGHTER, MARY COLLIER.

SNOW AND NO SLEDS!

But Texas Kids Meet The Situation With Rocking Chairs.

North and Central Texas Sunday night were in the girp of a storm which had assumed almost blizzard proportions. Dallas is covered by a seven-inch snowfall, an almost unprecedented occurrence.

Children in Dallas, virtually sledless through successions of mild winters, rose to the unusual opportunities and commandeered old rocking chairs, upon which they scooted in grotesque curves through the city streets. Wire service is unimpaired, but trains are running hours behind schedules.

CLIMBED STAIRS ON HER HANDS

Too Ill to Walk Upright. Operation Advised. Saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This woman now raises chickens and does manual labor. Read her story:

Richmond, Ind.—"For two years I was so sick and weak with troubles from my age that when going up stairs I had to go very slowly with my hands on the steps, then sit down at the top to rest. The doctor said he thought I should have an operation, and my friends thought I would not live to move into our new house. My daughter asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she had taken it with good results. I did so, my weakness disappeared, I gained in strength, moved into our new home, did all kinds of garden work, shoveled dirt, did building and cement work, and raised hundreds of chickens and ducks. I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and if these facts are useful you may publish them for the benefit of other women."—Mrs. M. O.
