IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our darling son, CHARLES WESLEY ROBINSON, who departed this life one month ago today, Feb. 23.

We cannot forget you dear son,
The long may seem the time,
And oft in the lonely hour
We wipe away our tears.
So we will try and still our heartache,
And do our best to smile,
For God will let us come to you
After a little while.
LOVING PARENTS.

God needed one more angel child
Amidst his shining band,
And so he bent his loving smile
And clasped my brother's hand.
LITTLE SISTER.

Through the house we wander,
Through the house so drear dear,
In each room we find some token
Of our darling who has gone.
GRANDPARENTS.

Flowers laid upon the grave
Will wither and decay,
But the love for Charles who sleeps beneath
Will never fade away.
UNCLE VERNON.

Charlie's little chair is empty,
His clothes all laid aside,
And loving hearts are weeping,
For the one we loved has died.
AUNT RUTH.

In loving rememberance of my dear mother, MRS MARY NABB, who died Feb. 4, 1917, aged 70 years, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. King, Millington, Md

She is sleeping over yonder,
In the church yard by the way;
Only sleeping the dawning,
Of the resurrection day.
HER SON, W. FRANK TRUITT.

Reasons Why You Should Cultivate Your Own Farm

EVERY IMPROVEMENT you make on your own land is like depositing funds on interest in Bank. You annuall profit by those improvements. Where a tenant farmer does not give attention to buildings fences, and the land, the yield of the farm will soon diminish and pauperize the tenant.

LOOK OVER THE COUNTY and see if the vast majority of successful farmers are not on their own lands. And now that Banks and individuals offer such unlimited credit it is time to buy a farm for a Home.

THE PEOPLE'S BANK
CHESTERTOWN, MD.

IF you are a business man, if you are a professional man, if you are employed at a daily wage, make up your mind to deposit weekly a certain sum of money in the bank. You'll be surprised how the sum will grow. Cash in bank gingers up the man who has it there. He has more confidence in himself. The business man is ready for a dull season. He is ready for an opportunity.

So is the professional man. The man who is working for a daily wage and who hasn't any money in bank frequently is fearful of a loss of his situation. He does not work as well or with the confidence in himself as does the man with something laid aside for a rainy day.
