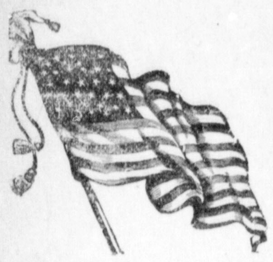
THE FLAG IN THE CHURCH



God grant that if our hosts are hurled
Into the pit in freedom's name,
The cross and the flag o'er all the world
May lead them to a greater fame
Than conquest holds—a richer prize
Of faith reborn in sacrifice.

Gov. HARRINGTON is co-operating with President in preparing for the conflict upon us.

R. F. DUER has decided not to contest the seat in the House to which Congressman Jesse D. Price was elected by the returns. Wise decision, Bob.

SENATOR SMITH has taken up the injustice done the farmers in the new grading of wheat established by the government and hopes to have the "garlic" stricken out. John Walter can be depended on every time to help his people.

THE compulsory educational law is not proving very popular in Kent and some Republicans would like to shift the responsibility for its passage on Democratic shoulders. It is working quite a hardship in some cases but the authorities can do nothing but carry out the requirements.

Gov. HARRINGTON has issued a proclamation providing for the celebration on Monday of Maryland Day, which falls on next Sunday, March 25. The day, which is the anniversary of the landing of the first Maryland colonists, was made a legal holiday by an act of the last Legislature. Banks and public offices will be closed on Monday in consequence of the Governor's proclamation.

AN almost bloodless revolution occurred in Russia last week, when the troops at Petrograd joined with the people and overthrew the dynasty, Czar Nicholas being forced to abdicate. Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch was appointed regent and has announced that he will serve provided the people indicate such a wish by their vote.

And so in a few hours ended a dynasty that had ruled for centuries. Its Germany's turn next.

THE railroad strike is over and the railroad managers have proven their patriotism which cannot be said of the Brotherhoods. By a vote of 5 to 4 the Supreme Court declares the Adamson Act constitutional. The decision makes eight hours the standard of a day's work and wages for men in operation of trains and legalizes the wage increases which went into tentative effect on the day of passage. The immediate temporary wage increases won by the railroad employees affect 400,000 trainmen as of January 1, and are estimated to total between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000.

PRESIDENT WILSON has called on Congress to meet in special session on April 2nd instead of April 16th and the President will probably declare that there has been a state of war existing between the United States and Germany since the Vigiliancia was torpedoed. The mobilization of the U. S. Naval fleet has been ordered and the National Guard will soon be ordered to report for duty. A part has already been ordered out and are stationed as guards at the bridge crossing the Susquehanna river.

This the first move by the President toward an aggressive policy. It is possible that Congress will declare war as soon as it assembles.

STILL POND

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Harper and son, Bayard, Jr., Mrs. S. B. Parrott and Mrs. J. B. Crowding motored to Wilmington and Philadelphia Sunday.

Miss Inez Russell, one of our teachers, is visiting her sister at Waterbury, Conn.

Misses Bertha and Gladys Hackett spent Wednesday in Chestertown.

Mr. W. H. Kruson spent Sunday and Monday in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Baxter and daughter, Naomi, motored to Baltimore and returned during the week.

Mrs. R. P. Nichols spent several days of the past week with friends at Newport, Del.

Mr. Harvey Jones, asst. agent of the P. B. & W. R. R. Co. at Chestertown spent the week-end in the home of his father here.

Miss Jessie Crew has returned to her home near town after visiting friends and relatives in New York city and New Jersey.

Mrs. J. B. Crowding spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. John Schofield, at Wilmington.

Winter has about broke and everybody is now busy cleaning up yards and gardens, etc., especially the gardeners who expect to reduce the high cost of living by raising two crops in place of one this year.

THE Owls are growing rapidly. Mr. Cook, the affable organizer, has over 80 names enrolled and new ones are being added. See adv. in this issue.

DEATHS

Mrs. Martha Crew, widow of the late John H. Crew, died last Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emma J. Taylor, Betterton, aged 76 years. She leaves the following children: Harry, Charles R. and Walter Crew, and Mrs. Emma Taylor, wife of Peter Taylor, all of Betterton. Funeral services were held Monday in Betterton M. E. Church, conducted by the Rev. R. P. Nichols. The interment was in Still Pond cemetery, the three sons of the deceased, and Peter Taylor, Edward Rambo and Wm. Bowmen acted as pall bearers. Charles L. Dodd, undertaker.

Joseph W., the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Lewis, of Chestertown, died Tuesday, aged 2 years, of measles. Funeral was held Thursday at 2 p. m. interment in Chester cemetery with services conducted by Rev. T. F. Beauchamp; Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

SPORTING NOTES

Mr. Jessup Wilmer, of Chestertown, was elected captain of the basketball team for 1918 by the squad last Friday. Wilmer was not a regular this year, but he was an aggressive guard and played in several games, and will probably be a regular next year.

The friends and Alumni of Washington College tendered Coach Kibler and his State Champion Basketball Team a sumptuous banquet at the Eastern Shore Inn last Friday evening. Manager Clarence Newcomb served the courses in style which were heartily enjoyed by the sixty present. Mr. William F. Russell, cashier of the Kent County Savings Bank, presided as toastmaster in his usual fine manner. Toasts were delivered by President James W. Cain, Wm. B. Usilton, W. W. Beck, Esq., H. C. Willis, Edwin Schoenrich, Dr. E. J. Clarke, Prof. Marten Ten Hoor, Captain T. Reeder Spedden, Captain-elect Jessop Wilmer, David Kendall and Joseph N. Wheatley. Mr. Kendall, a most loyal Washington admirer, caused a howl of merriment when he remarked that he wasn't much of a speaker, "but when it comes to rooting for a team like this you can put me down for two chances every time." Upon a signal from the cheer leader, Lewis O. Willis, everybody stood while Washington's famous "Maroon and Black" yell shook the Inn.

The following is a total of how each W. C. player made out in the basketball season just closed:

	Games	Goals	Fouls	Points
Spedden	6	23	13 in 25a.	59
Lankford	4	12	1 in 2a.	25
Caldwell	11	12	36 in 86a.	96
Earickson	10	6	— —	12
Wilmer	9	1	— —	2
Wallace	10	6	— —	12
Young	10	6	— —	12
Brown	8	27	— —	54
Cain	9	26	5 in 9a.	57
Frampton	6	1	— —	2
Bunting	3	2	— —	4
Schelberg	5	—	— —	—

Quite a crowd gathered Friday night when Scoutmaster Parks had the Boy Scouts on parade. John S. Vandegrift, a member of the old Kent Guards, also put the boys through some maneuvers.

Coach Kibler had his baseball squad out last Friday, trying to get them in shape for the opening game with Johns Hopkins at Homewood on March 31st. The first game here will be on April 27th with St. John's.

Mary Had a Waterman's Ideal

Mary had a fountain pen,
'Twas neat and good and strong.
And everywhere that Mary went
She took the pen along.

"For oh!" she said, "without my pen
I don't know how I'd feel;
I'm sure I could not write at all
Without a 'Waterman's Ideal.'"

So every time she saw a pen
That leaked all out the top,
She stopped right then and did advise
"Buy a Waterman's at the Co-op."

Mary Had Not a Waterman's Ideal

Mary had a fountain pen.
'Twas neat and looked quite fair,
But every time she tried to write
Dear Mary learned to swear.

But Mary's fellow heard her once;
It made his senses reel,
He smashed that so-called pen and bought
A 'WATERMAN'S IDEAL.'
