WILL OF JAMES H. BAKER

The following is a copy of the will of the late James H. Baker:

I, James H. Baker, of Pomona, Kent county, State of Maryland, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and other wills heretofore by me made, in manner following:

After the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses, I give, devise and bequeath my estate as follows:

Item First. I give and devise to my daughter, Mamie Baker Covey, wife of A. Howard Covey, her heirs and assigns forever, in fee simple, my home farm upon which I now reside, situated at Pomona, Kent county, Maryland, containing one hundred and fifty acres of land, more or less, subject, however, to a lien of five hundred dollars ($500) in favor of my daughter, Lizzie Baker, which sum of five hundred dollars, without interest, is to be paid by the said Mamie Baker Covey to the said Lizzie Baker in annual installments of one hundred dollars ($100) each, the first installment of which shall be due and payable one year after my decease. The payment of the said sum and the release of the lien upon said farm shall be evidenced by a release to be duly executed, delivered and recorded among the land records of Kent county. Said sum or any balance thereof may be paid at any time by the said Mamie Baker Covey to the said Lizzie Baker at the option of the said Mamie Baker Covey. (This farm sold to Mamie Baker Covey in 1911, reserving a life estate.)

Item Second: All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal or mixed, of whatever kind and description, which I now possess or may possess at any future time, I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary Trew Baker, my daughter, Lizzie Baker, and my son, J. Henry Baker, their heirs, personal representatives and assigns, to be equally divided between them, share and share alike.

The above devise and bequest to my wife, Mary Trew Baker, is in lieu of all dower or other rights which she may have in my estate.

I do hereby request that my said wife and children permit my brother-in-law, Thomas R. Trew, to reside in my house in which he now resides situated in the village of Pomona, Kent county, Maryland, as long as he lives, or as long as he may desire to reside therein, without the payment of any rent. This request is not obligatory upon my said wife and children, although I am confident they will carry out my wishes in this respect. (Mr. Trew died before Mr. Baker.)

Item Third. I hereby constitute and appoint my son, J. Henry Baker, to be the executor of this my last will and testament, and it is my request that he be not required to give bond for the faithful performance of his duties.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this twentieth day of April, in the year nineteen hundred and ten.

[SEAL] JAMES H. BAKER

The will was witnessed by George M. Hadaway and W. H. Toulson.

TO EXEMPT FARM LABOR

Mr. Benson Would Have Men Work Six Days A Week To Escape Service

"Exempt from conscription during the first year of war all farm hands who work six days a week," is an idea growing out of recent discussions among Baltimore county farmers regarding the crop crisis and food problem that is likely to arise as the war goes on.

Former State Senator Carville D. Benson who has taken part in some of the discussions, enlarged upon the idea in a way that strikes the average Kent farmers very forcibly. He said that the crisis now facing the farmers is due to scarcity of dependable labor. The planting of next fall's crops now waits on men who work when they want to and don't when they want to. Some of them work three days for $1 50 a day and then are satisfied for the rest of the week.

"Make it clear, by a provision in the new army bill," said Senator Benson, "that a farm-hand must either work six full days a week on a farm, or be conscripted for army service, and the laggards will get to work with a vim, and the problem will be solved for a year at least."

G. W. ROLLISON STABBED

A Chestertown Citizen Receives A Serious Blow in Wilmington Monday Evening—Motives Prove a Mystery.

George W. Rollison, aged 26 years, living at Third and Jefferson streets Wilmington, formerly of Chestertown, was seriously stabbed early Monday evening in the Hotel Stoeckle, at Front and French streets. He is now in the Delaware Hospital in a critical condition while Seabury Wade, aged 21 years, is under arrest on a charge of assault and battery upon him.

Rollison and Charles R. King, aged 25 years, walked into the place and while there Rollison asked King to wait for him while he stepped into the toilet. He had no sooner entered the room when a strange young man walked in back of him and plunged the blade of a sharp knife into his right side below the ribs.

The knife made an ugly wound and Rollison staggered outside holding his side and exclaimed that he had been stabbed. He tottered but King caught and held him up. Just then a man ran from the toilet and made for the door. "That is the fellow that did it" said Rollison, and King caught the man.

As he did so the stranger cut at King with a knife, and the blade tore open the shoulder of his coat but did not penetrate to the flesh. Other men caught hold of the man with the knife and held him until the police arrived. The prisoner gave the name of Seabury Wade, but he offered no explanation for his attack on Rollison.

Neither Rollison nor King knew the man, they said, and they could not explain his attack upon them unless he mistook Rollison for someone else. Rollison was operated on as soon as he reached the hospital. The wound was several inches long and very deep, and his intestines protruded when he staggered out into the room.

At this writing his friends have hopes of his recovery.

Mr. Charles Rollison, manager of the Childs store here, is a brother and went at once to the hospital. Mrs. Rollison, mother of George, went up to Wilmington Wednesday.

A hearing was held Tuesday and Seabury Wade, 21 years old, and Francis Donohue were held for a further hearing May 10 h.

PREPAREDNESS MEETING OF KENT FARMERS

A well attended meeting of Kent farmers from various parts of the county was held in Chestertown Wednesday and passed some important resolutions. Rev. S. S. Hepburn presided with Mr. Arthur Harris secretary. The following resolutions were passed which speak for themselves as to the spirit of the agricultural element in our county. The NEWS man was present and heartily commend them:

Resolved, That the Governor of the State of Maryland is hereby requested to recommend to the Maryland Legislature at the extra session to be held, that a law be passed exempting from military duty all farm laborers who are industrious and work continuously when health permits.

Resolved, That all farm laborers who are indolent and only work at intervals shall be the first ones enlisted for military duty and the proper authorities of the State and Nation shall be notified of all such laborers that refuse to work regularly by the State's Attorneys of the different counties upon their receiving information of such men who fail to properly perform their duty.

Resolved, We urge a similar law be passed by the Congress of the United States.

Resolved, That we appeal to the State Roads Commission of the state of Maryland and the Board of County Commissioners of Kent county to suspend work on building public roads or any other public improvements that may call for farm laborers until such time as there will be less urgent demands on our farms. We make exceptions in the work already begun or that which is absolutely necessary.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Hon. Emerson C. Harrington, Governor of the State of Maryland, Hon. John Walter Smith and Joseph Irving France, the two United States Senators, and the Hon. Jesse D. Price, the Congressman from this district, and that a copy of these resolutions be published in our county papers.

REV. S. S. HEPBURN, Chairman.
ARTHUR L. HARRIS, Secretary.

WHEREAS, After many months of diligent and earnest efforts to prevent war with the Imperial power of Germany, and

WHEREAS, After suffering almost every indignity which could be heaped upon her, "until forbearance has ceased to be a virtue," the administrative power of the United States has declared a state of war existing between this country and Germany; and

WHEREAS, We, representing the farmers of Kent County, Md., realize that there is great need that the food supply of our nation be kept at its maximum limit, that we may not have an underfed army and nation, be it

Resolved, First, that we in conference assembled, do hereby pledge our loyal support to any measure or measures that may be inaugurated by the Governor of our State or the President of the United States, for increasing the food supply of the land.

Second, That we hold ourselves in readiness to plant and raise such crops as may be deemed by those in authority as most necessary, provided we can procure the seed for planting and the labour for cultivating and handling said crops.

Third, That we proclaim ourselves as being heartily and soulfully in accord and sympathy with the Administration. We believe we have come to that point where all party lines should be obliterated, and our nation go forward as one man, to fight for the honour, welfare and integrity of our great Republic.

Fourth, That a copy of these resolutions be published in our county papers and The Baltimore Sun and American as an appeal to the farmers of our county and State to do their utmost to increase the food supply of the land, and that the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States be notified of this act on our part, with an assurance that we are ready to do his bidding.

Resolved, We urge the State Board of Education that all boys of 12 years and over be released from the operation of the present compulsory educational bill.

WM. G. SMYTH,
E. THOMAS MASSEY,
L. L. BURRELL.

BRICE—AHERN.

The wedding of Miss Claire Elma Ahern, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P.
