The News would willingly publish the letter on roads if the writer had sent his name—not for publication but as a matter of faith and responsibility.

If you want a cake or a pie visit Carmine's store at noon next Saturday, April 28th.

Two boys, Carroll Burris and Harold Dulin, playing with dynamite cartridges in A. H. Malsberger's store at Massey, made narrow escapes. Carroll lost the end of several fingers while Harold was so badly hurt that he had to be sent to Wilmington hospital.

The bidding for tomatoes around Williamsburg and Hurlock has been brisk this week and farmers have received as high as 31 cents per basket for contract tomatoes.

The Kennedyville Garage, J. H. Clendaniel, Jr., proprietor, has taken the agency for the Oakland and the Hudson cars. They sold three Overlands and one Smith Form-A-Truck this week.

An apparatus is being installed at the milk station for the manufacture of curd from skimmed milk. Same will be in operation in a few weeks. Mr. Samuel Wallis is the manager of the milk station, while Mr. Harry Fowler is assistant. The place is kept almost spotless and these men are hustlers.

The Delco Light System is now represented in this section by Mr. H. E. Wood, of Chestertown. Horace is a hustler and is meeting with success. He has contracted to install the system in the Kennedyville Grange of Mr. J. H. Clendaniel, Jr.

The Kent Land Co., has sold to Mr. Geo. Lambert, manager of the Voshel House, Chestertown, about 77 acres of the DeCorse farm, near Chestertown and adjoining Baker's camp meeting woods. This is a fine tract of land and we expect Mr. Lambert to make a great truck farm out of his purchase.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Hadaway, daughter of Sheriff J. Thos. Hadaway, and Mr. Randolph Waddell, of the well-known auto firm of W. H. Waddell & Son, took place in Baltimore Tuesday evening, Dr. F. T. Little officiating. They returned to Chestertown Wednesday and are now occupying a suite of rooms in the Central Garage Building on Cross street.

The "Trial of Hearts" will be given in Kennedyville on Thursday evening, April 26th. The play was a great success when given at the Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown, and Prof. Creasy has generously allowed the class to play it at Kennedyville on the condition that the entire proceeds are to be for the benefit of the Kennedyville school.

PRICES

Some cigars are good value at a quarter each—some others are positively extravagant at two for a nickle.

So it is in clothes—without certain essential qualities a suit or a topcoat is expensive at any price—be it $50 or $9.99.

All-wool fabrics—pure linen canvas—conscientious stitching and seaming—smart designing—in short, custom tailored standard of style, fit and wear coupled with the ready-for-service economy of time and money.

These are the standards which every garment must fulfil to find a place in our cabinets. No compromise—no step backward for the sake of price or for any other consideration.

Here price is adjusted to standards—not standards to price!

COURT NOTES

The April term of the Circuit Court began Monday, Judge Adkins being on the bench.

The Grand Jury is as follows: C. E. Crane foreman, Richard Lockwood, L. D. Pennigton, Harry Clark, W. W. Baldwin, J. R. Dowling, Jr., B. T. Hudson, T. L. Meeks, J. E. Woodall, Jr., G. W. Harper, J. A. Bowman, J. C. Smith, George Walbert, W. B. Plummer, H. C. Brown, A. H. Malsberger, B. R. McCauley, B. F. Rash, C. H. Jefferson, Walter Francis, H. T. Richardson, G. P. Hendrickson, W. B. Naylor.

The Petit Jury is as follows: E. B. Pennington, Jr., Howard Owens, C. W. Kibler, Sr., C. O. Casey, A. L. Sparks, A. C. Loud, Henry Rasin, G. W. Sutton, W. B. Harris, M. A. Toulson, Joseph Downey, H. W. Anderson, Britton Townsend, Jacob Shirley, J. L. Price, G. W. Mann, E. P. Beck, F. C. Wilkins, C. Frank Crow, J. R. Bennett, Paul C. Price, C. H. Ashley, J. B. Stevens, Jr., W. S. Rasin, John Wilson, of Wifred.

The first case on the docket was that of State vs. Steven H. Johnson, an appeal from Justice Vernon Barnett. Verdict guilty. H. W. Vickers, for State; S. P. Townshend for prisoner.

The following presentments were then brought in by the Grand Jury.

Edward Vessells for carrying concealed weapons with intent to kill; also for assault.

Lewin Davis, for larceny.

Alexander May, for larceny.

Hydie Smith, for larceny.

A. L. Hudson vs. County Commissioners of Kent, a case for damages because of water running on the former's land and appealed from Justice Vernon Barnett. H. W. Vickers and W. F. Russell, Jr., for Mr. Hudson; S. S. Beck for County Commissioners. Verdict for Commissioners.

Jas. W. Lambert, Isaac Gibbs, John S. Newnam, John M. Conner, Robert S. Crew, Geo. W. Walbert, were excused as jurors and Jacob Shriley, C. Frank Crow, Jas. B. Stevens, Jr., A. L. Sparks, Chas. O. Cacy, and Paul C. Price were drawn in their places.

Rosaris Stragrizzi, Dan'l Russey Downey, Johan Gebbard Dierker were naturalized.

The appeal case of Lyon Bros. & Co. vs. R. F. Parks & Son was a dispute over payment of freight on goods which had not been satisfactory amounting to 71 cents. Verdict for Lyon & Co., r presented by H. H. Barroll; R. G. Parks appeared for defendant.

The Grand Jury finished their labors Thursday morning. They examined 4 constables, 82 witnesses, have found 21 true bills and dismissed 5 cases. They ask the Court to assist in getting a law enacted giving the County Commissioners the right to work the county jail criminals on the public roads of the county and on the streets of the incorporated towns of Kent county.

They recommend that the sheriff be allowed 60 cents per day for board of prisoners owing to the increase of all foodstuffs; also that officers be more active in their efforts to have all merchants and traders secure the proper licenses.

They recommend a vagrant State law; also that there should be a law prohibiting crowds from loafing on the street corners of Chestertown.

They cautioned all merchants or traders to be especially careful from whom they purchase produce and poultry as quite often stolen goods are disposed of or sold to the merchants.

Joe Cassell, of Castletown, was convicted of being drunk and disorderly and fined $25 and costs; H. W. Vickers for State.

Jas. H. Robinson, represented by H. W. Vickers, brought suit against Frank Willis, S. S. Beck, attorney, for alleged injuries to his horse on the public road near Betterton while Mr. Willis was riding in his auto. The case was tried before a jury and a verdict returned for Willis.

The appeal case of Perry Freeman, a boy employed by Wm. J. Hudson on a farm, and which case was being tried under the Compulsory Educational Law, was warmly contested resulting in a verdict for the boy and possibly rendering null and void for the present the new law. John D. Urie and W. W. Beck appeared for the defendants while H. W. Vickers and S. S. Beck represented the School Board.

Wm. Parker was acquitted on the charge of vagrancy.

Alexander Mann plead guilty to larceny of corn from S. Johnson and was paroled in custody of Wm. T. Jones for one year.

Lewin Davis and George Wilmer were tried for stealing hides from Moffett's slaughter house, convicted and sentenced to 2 and 1 year in House of Correction respectively. W. F. Russell, Jr., and Herbert E. Perkins appeared for defense; H. W. Vickers for State.

The Elwood Taylor case was tried before the Court. Verdict, guilty and sentenced to 8 years in Penitentary.

ROCK HALL

The primary election to nominate candidates for town council will be held this (Saturday) afternoon. From reports it promises to be a lively affair.

Mr. F. T. Hogan, of up county, is a guest of relatives and friends at this place. Mr. Hogans is in a feeble state owing to long illness. It is hoped his sojourn here will result in a full restoration of good health.

Messrs. M. L. Maslin and W. T. Harrison are among the sick in this section.

Mr. A. A. Toulson had quite a jolt last week by falling from a wagon. He is still confined to his home, but is improving.

Mr. J. M. Colison had an unpleasant experience, too, last week. He fell overboard while seized with vertigo, it is supposed. A 72-year-old youngster like Jack has no business prowling about on the water by his lonesome.

Our worthy postmaster is quite lucky in securing efficient and pretty assistants. Miss Mabel Webb is now assistant P. M. and like her chief, she has always a smile under all perplexities incident to post office work.

Pastor Prettyman's bulletin board on Sunday morning read, "Hear the pastor's reasons why every man should be enlisted, this evening at 7.30 o'clock," and it was the cause of considerable speculation upon the part of numerous passers as they paused to read.

M'MULLEN TO RETIRE

Announces He Will Not Seek Renomination As Comptroller—Only Routine Work Ahead.

Cumberland, Md., April 15.—Hugh A. McMullen, State Comptroller, announced in a statement tonight his purpose not to be a candidate for Comptroller at the election in November.

When asked his reason for this decision, Mr. McMullen said: "My judgment is that a man makes a mistake to go into public office or stay in it unless he clearly sees a chance to do some work of real service. There is honor and satisfaction in serving under these circumstances. I stated this in my primary and election c[illegible]

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY EVENTS IN KENT COUNTY

Rev. W. N. Sherwood is visiting his mother on High street.

Mr. John Hartnett, the efficient and affable court stenographer of this judicial circuit, was recently married and the members of the Kent county bar this week presented he and his bride with a silver bowl and ladle as a wedding gift.

Mrs. D. J. Redue, of Baltimore, has been the guest of her brother, Mr. Edw. Jones and neice, Mrs. F. V. Simpers, in Chestertown this week.

Mrs. M. B. Mann, of Baltimore, is visiting Chestertown friends. She expects to spend the summer in Buffalo, N. Y., where her son is engaged in aerial machine manufacture.

Senator Henry Brown has rented his farm in Quaker Neck to Mr. Roy Walbert. The Senator has not decided where he will locate, whether in Chestertown or elsewhere.

Mrs. Arthur Bacon is the guest of Mrs. Emerson in Crumpton.

Mr. Wm. Knight and family have removed to the Robert Ford farm, and Mr. Spencer Biddle returns to his place near Bond Church. Mrs. Ford was stricken with paralysis some weeks ago and has been unable to look after her household duties. She is somewhat improved now.

Mr. Isaih Berlin, of Port Deposit, is quite sick at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thos. H. Davis near town. He was 71 years old Wednesday.

Engineer Applegarth returned from the Hospital Monday and is mending rapidly. He expects to join the U. S. Engineering corps in a few weeks.

Mr. B. F. Davis has been housed with rheumatism for sometime.

Messrs. Walter Bennett, John G. Usilton and William F. Malin left Monday as the delegates from the local Jr. O. U. A. M. for Annapolis to attend the State Convention.

Officer Samuel E. Cooper came out Monday morning dressed from head to foot in a new suit and hat. It was becoming our efficient officer and made him look more like a naval commander than a policeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Hicks entertained the Men's Club of the Chestertown M. E Church Monday evening.

Mr. Elmer Sterling, of Baltimore, has been assisting his brother, Dr. Alonza L. Sterling, in the drug store here.

Mr. Graham Nelson, of Chester, Pa., spent Sunday with his mother.

Those who were entertained at Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Wooleyhan's, near Sassafras, for dinner last Sunday, in honor of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Daniels, of Philadelphia, were Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wooleyhan, Mrs. Robert Davis and daughters, Misses Ida and Emma; Mrs. John T. Wooleyhan and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Cecilton; Mrs. Martha V. Duhamell, of Earleville; Mr. Crawford Short, of Cecilton. All the delicacies of the season were served, and the guests departed after spending a very pleasant day.

Sunday, April 15th, being Mrs. Ella McGinnis' 55th birthday, all of her sisters from different parts of the country and all of her children came home to enjoy their mother's company; even her little grandchildren seemed to be delighted with grandmother. Mrs. McGinnis gave her company plenty of nice Chesapeake Bay shad for dinner. At night she entertained her company by singing some of her beautiful gospel hymns. On Monday her sisters and children left for their distant homes in their automobiles. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. McGinnis, Mrs. John T. Perry, Chester, Pa.; Mrs. James T. Collett, Media, Pa.; Mrs. Jesse Lamey, Trainer, Pa; Mrs. Earle Nickerson, Kennedyville; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coleman, near town; Messrs.
