Public Local Law.

Passed by the Maryland Legislature, Session of 1906, and Operative in Kent county, Maryland.

CHAPTER 528.

AN ACT to repeal Sections 51 and 59 A of Article 15 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Kent County," sub-title "Chestertown," Section 59 A being enacted by Chapter 441 of the Acts of 1900 and to re-enact each of said two sections with amendments, and also to add five new sections to said Article 15; one of the said new sections to follow immediately after Section 50 and to be designated as 50 A, the other four new Sections to follow immediately after Section 59 B to be designated as Sections 59C, 59D, 59E and 59F, so as to read as follows:

Section 1.—Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 51 and 59A, of Article 15 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Kent County," sub-title, "Chestertown," Section 59A being enacted by Chapter 441, of the Acts of 1900, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, and to add five new Sections, one of said new Sections to follow immediately after Section 50 to be designated Section 50A, the other four new Sections to follow immediately after Section 59B, to be designated as Sections 59C, 59D, 59E and 59F of said Article, to read, as to all the Sections, as follows:

50A—The citizens of Chestertown, in Kent county, are a body corporate by the name of "The Commissioners of Chestertown," with all the powers and privileges of a body politic and corporate, and by said corporate name may have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, plea and be impleaded in any Court of Law or Equity, and have and use a common seal and the same to alter at pleasure: may hold, possess, purchase or otherwise acquire for corporate purposes, property, real, personal and mixed, and may sell, dispose of and convey any such property for the benefit of said town, provided that the real estate to be purchased shall be limited to gravel and sand lots and the amount to be expended therefor shall not exceed one thousand dollars in any one year.

51.—There shall be three commissioners for Chestertown, all of whom shall be tax-payers upon real or leasehold property in said town, and at least 30 years of age, who shall each be elected for a term of three years, one of said commissioners shall be elected annually, as provided by the next succeeding section.

59A—In addition to the powers conferred on the Commissioners of Chestertown by Section fifty-nine of this Article, they shall have power to regulate by ordinance the building and maintenance of party walls, partition, fences, parapet and fire walls, smoke flues, fire flues, hot air flues, boilers, smokestacks, chimneys and stove pipes, and to have any such removed, repaired or reconstructed whenever, in the judgment of said commissioners, the same may be dangerous to or menace the property wherein such structures are, or any adjacent or contiguous property, and the expenses of such alteration, removal, repairing or reconstruction when done by the Town Commissioners shall be a lien on the property where such work is done; and may by ordinance require the owners or occupants of any lot abutting on the streets, lanes and alleys of said town, to remove the snow from the sidewalk in front of said lot and to impose a fine or penalty for the failure to do so; they may also by ordinance establish such a sewerage system as may be necessary for the proper drainage of said town and which may be most conductive to the health and sanitation of said town, and they may impose on and collect from persons using the same a tax for the use of said sewers, which said tax shall be collected in like manner as other taxes are collected in said town and shall be a lien on the property on which it is assessed; they may also from time to time by ordinance provide for the paving of any streets in said town which they may deem advisable to be paved and to assess the properties on each side of said street for a proportionate share of the cost of such pavement, not exceeding one-third of such cost, each to respective owners of the properties on each side of said street, and make all assessments levied under this Act a lien upon the said respective properties, to be collected in the same manner as taxes now levied under the provisions of Article 81 of the Code of Public General Laws.

50C.—That the said Commissioners shall have full power to make all regulations and ordinances not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State, as from time to time they may deem necessary or expedient for the comfort, convenience and prosperity of said town and its inhabitants; for the prevention, removal and abatement of any nuisance; and the preservation of health, the suppression of vice and immorality, and for the general police regulations within the limits of said town and provide fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violation of any of the ordinances passed by said Commissioners, but no fine or penalty shall exceed the sum of twenty-five dollars.

59D.—That no person or Corporation shall keep a dog or bitch in said town without obtaining a license from the Commissioners for that purpose in the month of October in each and every year, paying at the time of the license being granted one dollar for each dog and one dollar and fifty-cents for every bitch, and at such times and for such periods as the Commissioners may by ordinance require, every dog and bitch shall be properly muzzled, and every dog and bitch found running at large in said town without being licensed or muzzled as aforesaid shall be shot or otherwise destroyed by the bailiffs or police of said town.

59E.—That the bailiffs and police appointed by the said Commissioners, are hereby vested, within the Corporate limits of said town, with the same power and authority as any constable may now or hereafter have under the laws of this State. They may make immediate arrest without warrant of any person violating any town ordinance, whenever in the judgment of said bailiff or police, the delay necessary to the issuing of warrants would be dangerous to the peace and quiet of the town, or the lives, limbs or property of the citizens, and when it shall appear that the offender is intoxicated so as to render it unsafe to permit him to ride or drive through the streets of said town, shall provide for the custody of the horse or horses, vehicle or vehicles ridden or driven by such persons, in some place of safety until such offenders shall become sober, and the said Commissioners shall by ordinance, subject the property so taken and deposited to the payment of all costs of the proceedings and the keeping of said property until the same shall be released according to law.

59F.—All fines and forfeitures imposed for the violation of any ordinance lawfully passed by the said Commissioners or hereafter that may be lawfully passed by the said Commissioners may be recovered before the Police Justice of the Fourth Election District of Kent county, and upon the complaint made before him for the violation of any such law or ordinance, the said Police Justice shall forthwith issue process in the name of "The Commissioners of Chestertown" for the recovery of the fine, penalty or forfeiture imposed for the violation of such law or ordinance against the party offending, and may hear and determine the matter and render judgment as in any case arising under the laws of this State and shall receive the same fees therefor, and in default of payment of such fines, penalty or forfeiture, or full and ample security for the same, satisfactory to said Police Justice, payable within thirty days thereafter, he shall commit the party defendant in said judgment to the county jail of Kent county for a period not exceeding thirty days, and the Sheriff of Kent county shall receive and confine the party so committed and shall be entitled to receive the same compensation therefor, as is now allowed by law for the custody of prisoners, to be paid by the said Commissioners of Chestertown.

Section 2.—And be it enacted, that this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 4th, 1906.

HON. EDWIN WARFIELD, Governor.
HON. CARVILLE D. BENSON, Speaker of the House of Delegates
HON. JOSEPH B. SETH, President of the Senate.

Office of the Chief Clerk of the House:
I hereby certify, That the aforegoing is a true copy of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January Session, 1906.

CHURCH TIDINGS.

Miss Elizabeth R. Bender who has spent 14 years as missionary in Tokio, Japan, delighted a large audience in the Chestertown M. E. Church Sunday evening with a splendid address. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter at "Sterlingford."

Prof. E. J. Clarke delivered an exhaustive treatise and review of the impression religion has made on English poetry in Christ Church Sunday evening. Mrs. James W. Cain, of the College, rendered a classical vocal selection in a most creditable manner. She has a strong, rich soprano voice that easily filled the large auditorium and delighted the audience. Prof. Clarke's address showed him to be a student of literature and English composition.

An interesting feature of the service Sunday morning in Christ church was the baptism by Dr. Greenfield of Sam'l. Vannort Chapman, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Chapman, Jr., of Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vannort, grandparents, stood up with the parents.

At Christ Church there will be testimony meeting at 9.30 A. M. Public Worship at 10.30 A. M. and 8 P. M. Sunday School at 2.30 P. M. The Christian Workers' Song Hour at 7.15 P. M. Evening sermon theme; "The Imperiled Life."

BASEBALL NOTES.

The Chestertown Boys Raise Funds to Rent an Athletic Field—The College Team Play on New Grounds.

The Washington College baseball team played two games Saturday on their new athletic grounds near the reservoir. The morning game resulted in a score of 2 to 3 in favor of Dover Conference Academy and the afternoon game 8 to 2 in favor of Washington, their competitors being the Polytechnic Institute team, of Baltimore.

Friends of the Chestertown boys seeing their need for a lot on which to play ball called a meeting of those interested some weeks ago at the NEWS office. At this meeting the Chestertown Athletic Association was formed with John Barnes, president, Earle Latham, secretary and Prof. L. J. Smyth, treasurer. It was decided to rent the H. W. Vickers lot near College avenue for $30 and in order to raise the money a festival was arranged. Mr. T. W. Eliason, with his commendable spirit, allowed the use of his store-room and a festival was held this week. The ladies and gentlemen of the town came nobly to the help of the boys and liberally contributed cake and candy and bought cream, so that the $30 was easily raised. The boys extend their thanks to the following young ladies who assisted at the tables, viz., Misses Addie Hurlock, Nellie McWhorter, Inez Russell Edna Copper, Clara Sappington, Olive Pennell, Anna Smyth, Ethel Ringgold, Mary Layman, Isabelle Lambert, Mary Miller, Etta Cooper, Florence Beck, Louise Brown, Margaret Brinsfield.

Washington College will play Western Maryland to-day at Westminster.

Cliff Hoover, of Cecilton, has signed with Piedmont, Va., club, and Ernest Brickley, of Farmington, with the Bradford, Pa., team.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mrs. Rawley, of Denton, Md., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. A. Walls.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ford Phillips, Miss Addie Vansant and Mr. R. W. Moffett spent Thursday afternoon in Smyrna.

Our base ball team won from Kennedyville Saturday by score of 7 to 3. Rash did fine pitching for the home team.

The village improvement society, Mrs. J. P. Abern president, recently organized and have already made one splendid move by planting trees where the fire destroyed them. Good luck to this worthy society.

Mr. G. W. Weist acted as one of the four ushers at the Smith-Webb wedding at Kennedyville last Wednesday evening. Mr. Smith, the groom, is well known here, having played on the ball team.

The Junior League of Millington M. E. Church, desires to thank their many friends, through the KENT NEWS, for their great kindness and liberality in assisting them with the Handkerchief Bazaar and Tea. It was quite a success as the net proceeds were $50.

Miss M. M. Kuhns who spent several years in Missionary work in Japan and who represents the Women's Foreign Missonary of the M. P. church in Maryland will speak in St. James M. P. church Sunday 10.30 a. m. and at Lynchs 3 p. m. Public cordially invited.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving but sad remembrance of Mrs. ARAMINTA MOFFETT, beloved wife of Joseph Moffett, whose spirit passed into eternal life April 14, 1906.

We mourn thy loss, dear one,
With a grief untold;
Thou wert a kind and loving sister
In the days of old.
We miss thy gentle kindness here
In our silent homes;
And in this grief we feel for thee
We are not alone.
Thy brothers and sisters mourn for thee,
And wish thee here;
For in our hearts thou wert entwined
With a love most dear.
Although we know thou art at rest,
And thy troubles are all o'er;
We will think of thee until that last great [day,
When we meet to part no more.
Gone but not forgotten. E. S. AND J. R.
