THE SAVIOR'S TEACHINGS — BROOKLYN TABERNACLE — BIBLE STUDIES

"BORN KING OF THE JEWS."

Matthew ii, 1-12—Feb. 4.

"Look unto Me and be ye saved, all ye ends of the earth; for I am God and there is none else."—Isaiah xlv, 22.

TODAY'S STUDY relates to the Wise Men of the East and their seeing of a wonderful star which, as astrologers, they recognized to import a great event. At the time Palestine was a province of the Roman Empire, and its King, Herod, was not a Jew of the House of Jacob, but a representative of the house of Esau. Herod sought to perpetuate his dynasty, and hence the announcement of the shepherds that a great King of the Jews had just been born suggested the overthrow of the Herodian dynasty and the establishment on Israel's throne of a king in the line of David.

Herod's disquietude is easily understood, but the fact that the people of Jerusalem in general should be disturbed by the announciation of a king of their own awakens thought. Under the Romans they were experiencing great prosperity. Herod, the Edomite, had built them a temple the grandeur of which outshone that of Solomon. Evidently the people were feeling so satisfied with their attainments that they had ceased to specially long for and pray for the coming of the Messiah.

"There came wise men from the East."

A very similar condition of things may be expected in conjunction with the second advent of Christ. The powers that be today are styled Christ's Kingdom, "Christendom," but they are really "kingdoms of this world." Any announcement today that Messiah's Kingdom is nigh—that He will soon take unto Himself His great power and reign (Revelation xi, 17) meets with resentment.

If in surprise we ask why this indifference respecting the fulfilment of our prayer, "Thy Kingdom come," the answer is, "Let well enough alone; do not agitate that subject; it may bring in strife and contention, because many are prospering so well under the reign of the 'Prince of this world' that they could not look upon a change as likely to bring any improvement in their condition—indeed some of them have reason to fear that Messiah's Kingdom would seriously disturb their entrenched privileges and monopolistic control of the wonderful blessings of our day."

Priestly Indifference on the Subject.

Although King Herod called the priests and teachers of his day to inquire particularly respecting the prophecies of Messiah's birth, and although they answered him correctly, nevertheless, the records show no joy, no enthusiasm, on the part of the religious teachers in respect to the prophetic fulfilment which they had professed to trust in and to long for. None of them followed to Bethlehem to find the new born King of the Jews. They had become Higher Critics and no longer believed the prophecies.

"Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh."

And do we not find an antitype in this day? Are not the chief priests and religious leaders today generally so out of harmony with the Divine promises and so faithless as respects the glorious Messianic Kingdom of which the Bible tells, that they are ashamed to identify themselves in any degree with those who seek the Lord and wait for His Kingdom?

Alas! even the Mohammedans and Brahmins of the East are waiting for Messiah and the Golden Age and disposed to seek the evidences—but amongst the most prominent ministers of "Christendom" there is apparent unbelief, Higher Criticism, Evolution and general opposition to Messiah and His Kingdom. Let the civil government fight down if it chooses everything associated with the New Dispensation; these are quite indifferent; they have plans and schemes of their own by which they are hoping to accomplish the work predicted for Messiah. Alas for them! how clearly they are mistaken!

It has required all this Gospel Age for the selecting of the Spiritual Seed. With its completion a New Age will be inaugurated. Then the earthly blessings promised will be fulfilled to the natural seed of Abraham. "They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat the fruit thereof;" "the knowledge of the glory of the Lord shall fill the whole earth;" to Him "every knee will bow and every tongue confess," for all who refuse shall be destroyed in the Second Death. (Isaiah lxv, 21; Habakkuk ii, 14; Romans xiv, 11.)

During the next Age He will be crowned Lord of all by natural Israel, and all other nationalities will enjoy the privilege of becoming proselyte children of Abraham, in the flesh. Messiah will reign in His Mediatorial Kingdom for the very purpose of bringing these blessings to natural Israel and through her to all nations.

☞So scarce have the products of the Wisconsin hen become that the directors of a poultry show being held at Superior decided to auction off seven dozen eggs laid by the hens on exhibition during the show. The auction caused a riot in which women's clothes were torn and hair pulled. Every housewife in the city besieged the hall for hours before the time appointed for the auction to begin.

When I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I immediately procured a supply and they did their work well, giving me prompt relief. I am now strong and well."
