GENERAL CONFERENCE IN SESSION.

Important Business to Come Before that Body in Baltimore.

Among the questions calling for decision at the coming General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church which began at St. John's Church, St. Paul and Twenty-seventh streets, Baltimore, beginning yesterday, will be the enlargement of the power and scope of the president of the body.

Rev. Dr. Thoms H. Lewis, of the Western Maryland College, now presides over the General Conference. There is doubt whether he will be elected to succeed himself as its president. It is said that should the Conference decide upon extending the scope of the president, Dr. Lewis would naturally loom up as his own probable successor, as it is generally recognized that he is the man of experience who could best meet the new demands made upon the executive ability of the head of the Conference. Two other candidates for the presidency are in the field, however, Rev. Dr. D. C. Coburn, of Zanesville, O., and Rev. M. L. Jennings, of Pittsburg, who is the editor of the Methodist Recorder.

The business session will be taken up with the reading of reports of the boards on foreign and home missions, church extension and the like and the hearing of overtures from the annual conferences. One of these overtures will be from the Maryland Conference regarding the organization of brotherhoods of men throughout the churches of the denomination.

The visiting delegates to the General Conference will be entertained by members of the city churches at their homes. Representatives of 30 conferences have already been heard from, according to W. C. Perkins, chairman of the press committee.

During their stay in Baltimore the delegates and visitors will be royally entertained. Much interest is being displayed in the big Lyric mass-meeting on May 20, which will be addressed by President Taft, Governor Goldsborough and Mayor Preston. The meeting is for the various congregations of the Methodist Protestant churches in the city and will be one of the big features in connection with the meeting of the Conference.

The entire conference has been invited to be the guests of Rev. Dr. Lewis on Saturday afternoon, May 18, at Westminster. May 23 the delegates and their respective hosts go on a trip down the bay on the steamer Annapolis, chartered from the Tolchester Company, to visit Annapolis. An orchestra will be on board and a buffet luncheon will be served. Arriving at Annapolis, the delegates will visit the Naval Academy and other points of interest in Annapolis.

Maryland Hen a Big Money-maker.

The Maryland hen is one of the State's chiefest economic assets. Relatively, the same is true of the national industrious biddy. According to Uncle Sam's enumerator, as per information furnished by the bureau of the Census, the crop of fowls for 1909 raised on 46,462 farms in Maryland reporting numbered 5,949,456, representing a value of $3-011,382, which would buy several automobiles and then some.

And it is evident that the hens did not sidestep their duty. Reports from 46,347 Maryland farms show that these hens produced during the current year of the census 15,533,732 dozens of eggs, which added to the material and consumable wealth of this commonwealth value to the amount of $3,235,759. Of the farms not reporting, the deponent sayeth not, but if all were enumerated it is more than likely the amounts and sums would be considerably increased. And, besides, no account is taken of the commercially valued feathered tribe that inhabits the back yards and coops of town and city residents in the State.

The cock and hen figures given for the different States, and the United States as a whole, indicate that as a source of wealth fowls take precedence over many other wealth-producing factors. Figures reported from 5,655,754 farms in the United States in 1909, which is 88 9 per cent. of all the farms in the United States, show that the total number of fowls raised was 448,-468,354, valued at $202,506,272, to which must be added 1,591,311,371 dozen of eggs having a value of $306,688,960, or a total of $509,195,232.

The value of fowls raised in 1909 was $65,500,000 or 48 per cent. greater than 10 years previously. During the same decade the increased production of eggs was 23 per cent. but the money value of them was doubled, so that the per cent. increase, as measured in money, amounted to 112.6, or a cash gain of $162,448,419.

Big Eggs From Kennedyville.

The Sunday Sun last Sunday gave two cuts of some extraordinarily large eggs laid by a hen belonging to Mr. W. Irving Robinson, of Kennedyville. Regarding the eggs Mr. Robinson says:

"The group marked No. 1 shows 12 large eggs and one of the ordinary size, which is marked X. This dozen eggs weighed 2 pounds 3½ ounces, and the hen that laid them lays nearly every day. She is a cross between a Rhode Island Red rooster and Buff Plymouth Rock hen, and that is, I believe, the best kind I ever saw. Once she took a rest for about two days, and her next egg is shown on the picture marked No. 2. A common egg is shown in comparison and is marked X. This large egg was nearly the size of the one described recently in the Sun. That one was 8½ inches around the long way and 6¾ inches around the short way. No weight was given. This one of mine is 7⅞ inches around the long way and 6¾ inches around the short way, and it weighs 4 ounces. Ordinary eggs are 1½ to 2 ounces in weight."

Republican State Convention.

With Gov. Goldsborough in the saddle as the undisputed leader of the State organization and all factions bowing to his dictates, the Republican State Convention met Tuesday at Albaugh's Theatre, Baltimore, elected 16 delegates to the National Convention, a majority of whom are Roosevelt men, and adopted a platform commending the administration of President Taft and praising Colonel Roosevelt.

In no way did the proceedings reflect the turmoil, factional fighting and dickerings of Monday night and early Tuesday morning between the Taft and Roosevelt forces at the Hotel Rennert over the selection of delegates and a platform. The convention was harmonious and peaceful. Everything on which the Governor, with the leaders of the two forces, had agreed went through without opposition.

The following delegates and alternates were elected:

Cold Storage Plant.

A new enterprise is being undertaken by a number of business men of Pocomoke City which promises to be beneficial to the farmers of that community. This enterprise is the organization of a stock company, with a capital stock of $30,000, for the purpose of building and erecting a cold storage plant at Pocomoke, wherein the farmer may store his potatoes and other produce. The structure will be of brick or concrete, 100x200 feet, with an approximate capacity of 200,000 cubic feet. Messrs. C. S. Day & Co., have the promotion of the company in hand. Why don't Chestertown capitalists invest in a paying enterprise like this?

Nervous Collapse.

Chestertown Women Break Down Because They Have Kidney Troubles and Don't Know It.

Women of every age and condition break down and are brought to the verge of utter collapse because they have kidney trouble and don't know it. The disease saps vitality—shatters nerves—makes work, or rest, or sleep impossible. If you are tired-out, irritable and depressed, suffer from dizzy headaches, pain in the back and sides, irregular flow of the urine, etc., don't neglect it, for delay is often fatal. Begin usuing Doan's Kidney Pills, and see how quickly you will feel better, rest better, and sleep better. Doan's Kidney Pills have cured many Chestertown women. Here's Chestertown proof of it.

Mrs. Frank Robinson, N. Calvert St., Chestertown, Md., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills certainly live up to the claims made for them. They benefitted me after doctors' medicine and all else had failed. I was often dizzy and nervous and my back and head ached. The kidney secretions also annoyed me. When I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I immediately procured a supply and they did their work well, giving me prompt and satisfactory relief. I am now strong and well.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Diamonds Again!

If we could we would whisper this into the ear of every person in town—"You don't need to be 'up' on diamonds when you buy here."

We expect you to go slowly of course, for you are buying for a lifetime—but after you have decided upon styles and settings and things, you may safely leave qualities to us.

Some new arrivals in Ladies' and Gents' Rings—diamonds singly and in combinations. We want you to see them.

No matter whether you spend $10 or ten times that amount, we promise you that you will carry away as much for your money as you could get anywhere in the land.

Seeing is believing.
