An Insane Asylum for the Eastern Shore.

First steps were taken last Wednesday for the erection of a hospital for the insane on the Eastern Shore—the third of its kind in the State. Its cost will be $200,000. The commission authorized by the last Legisiature held its first meeting in Baltimore, the governor presiding. The commission decided that the institution shall be located in Dorchester county. The sight was not selected, but it will probably be in the neighborhood of Hurlock, which point is the most accessible in the county to other sections of the Eastern Shore. Hurlock is the junction point of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic and the Seaford and Cambridge railroads. The county is high and healthy. Dr. Charles J. Carey, who has been assistant superintendent of Springfield Hospital for the Insane for several years, was elected superintendent. Senator J. Frank Harper, of Queen Anne's, was named on the building commission. The commission will employ an architect to prepare plans for the building, which will be arranged to accommodate 400 patients. A bond issue has been provided to defray the cost of the building and its equipment. It is intended that the institution shall take care of the white patients of the Eastern Shore who are now confined in the Springfield and Spring Grove Asylums, both of which are crowded. By the location of the hospital on the Eastern Shore patients from this section can be taken care of for less cost than at other institutions. In addition, they will be within easier and less expensive reach of relatives and friends, frequent visits by whom will prove beneficial, according to alienists.

Big Premiums Offered by the Maryland Horticultural Society For Maryland Week Show, November 18-23, 1912, Baltimore, Md.

The preliminary schedule of premiums for the annual fruit, floral and vegetable show, held in connection with the annual meeting of the State Horticultural Society, have been issued. The meeting and show will be held in the Fifth Regiment Armory, Baltimore, a little earlier this year than heretofore, the date being November 18-23.

The premiums in all classes have been greatly increased and the show this year promises to be even greater than last. All growers of fruit should be sure to spray to produce quality, as a special rule made by the Executive Board prohibits exhibition fruit that is cloudy or infected by fungus or insect pests.

Growers of fruits and vegetables should decide now the class in which they expect to enter, and give special attention to these crops.

The class of home made horticultural products has been reclassified and the premiums increased. The aim of the society is to make this exhibit especially educational and attractive to women.

This show is the greatest advertisement of Maryland horticultural resources and all growers should plan to compete for the prizes. Copies of the premium list and further information can be secured by addressing T. B. Symons, Secretary, College Park, Md.

Still Pond Farmers' Club.

The Still Pond Farmers' Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Pennington. Quite a number of members and visitors were present and a very pleasant day was spent. Some of the questions discussed were: "Is plowing at any time in the summer conducive to the growth of onions"? "Why are the hedges being removed"? "What is the best and cheapest fence we can build"? and several more important questions. After a great deal of discussion, in which Messrs. James Harris, E.B. Pennington, J. R. Jarrell, Rev. Hepburn, Rev. Robinson and others took part, the club adjourned to meet at the home of Mr. Carson Harris in May. Among those present were: Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Hepburn, Rev. and Mrs. F. X. Moore, Rev. and Mrs. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Roseberry, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bonwill, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redding, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Jarrell, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cornelius, Mrs. John Bennett, Mrs. George Sutton, Mrs. Chas. Walters, Mrs. Lavinia Harper, Mrs. Katie Crew, Mrs. Ella Pennington, Misses Fannie and Ruth Bramble, Jessie Crew, Louise Pennigton, Emma Shafer, Lilas Walters and Messrs. Thomas Bramble and Wilfred Robinson.

To War on Drinking Cups.

Within the next month a crusade against the free-for-all drinking cups in public places will be begun by the State Board of Health. The recent session of the legislature passed a bill prohibiting the use of such cups, and the State Board is going to see that the new law is enforced. Copies of the law are being prepared, and after the law is carefully gone over the crusade toward the abolishment of the disease bearing cups will be begun. Since the signing of the measure by Governor Goldsborough railroads and transportation companies, as well as all other public service corporations and individuals furnishing water to the public with such cups are subject to a fine of $25 for each offense. The defendant is given a right to appeal to the Public Service Commission. When you go travelling you must carry your own drinking cup. This is a good law and should be enforced.

WILSON'S DEMOCRACY NOT LIKE HEARST'S.

New York World Answers Editor's Attack on the Governor.

[New York World.]

Sadly and sorrowfully the Hon. William Randolph Hearst reads the Hon. Woodrow Wilson out of the Democratic party.

In a long and anguished letter to the Washington Post Mr. Hearst says of the governor of New Jersey:

"The whole trouble with Professor Wilson is that he is not a Democrat and does not know how to be a Democrat. His Democratic pose is assumed and therefore awkward and unnatural."

But is there no hope for Woodrow Wilson? Can he never scale the exalted heights of Democracy which Mr. Hearst has attained? We know, of course, that Governor Wilson began wrong, but perhaps the mistakes of the past can be remedied.

To be truly Democratic Governor Wilson should have run as a municipal ownership candidate for mayor in 1905 in order to defeat the regular Democratic candidate.

In 1906 Governor Wilson should have spent $250,000 organizing an Independence league to name him for governor and then used this league to club a stolen nomination from Murphy after Grady had "done the dirtiest day's work of my life."

In 1907 Governor Wilson should have gone into partnership with the Republican bosses and the Republican machine and placed a "fusion" ticket in the field against the Democratic ticket.

In 1908 Governor Wilson should have financed and nominated an independent presidential ticket to help Taft and Roosevelt defeat Bryan.

In 1909 Governor Wilson should have run as an independent candidate for mayor against the Democratic candidate, with the support of Chauncey M. Depew, the Republican bosses and other "reform" elements.

In 1910 Governor Wilson should have been an independent candidate for lieutenant governor in the hope of defeating the Democratic ticket and keeping the Republicans in power in Albany.

In 1911 Governor Wilson should have again nominated a "fusion" ticket in partnership with the Republican machine. Then, as soon as his "fusion" ticket was beaten and it became apparent that the Democratic party had a chance of winning the presidency he should have formally announced his return to Democracy.

Woodrow Wilson may not know "how to be a Democrat," but William Randolph Hearst knows. In comparison with Mr. Hearst no other Democrat ever was a Democrat. He is the only known specimen of his kind.
