NERVOUSNESS AND BLUES

Symptoms of More Serious Sickness.

Washington Park, Ill.—"I am the mother of four children and have suffered with female trouble, backache, nervous spells and the blues. My children's loud talking and romping would make me so nervous I could just tear everything to pieces and I would ache all over and feel so sick that I would not want anyone to talk to me at times. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills restored me to health and I want to thank you for the good they have done me. I have had quite a bit of trouble and worry but it does not affect my youthful looks. My friends say 'Why do you look so young and well?' I owe it all to the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies."—Mrs. Robt. Stopiel, Sage Avenue, Washington Park, Illinois.

THE PAY IN NAVY

There has been so much discussion recently concerning the pay of the enlisted personnel of the United States Navy that the navy recruiting authorities at Baltimore have determined to show to the young men of the State that the salary paid the average enlisted man is a great deal better than that paid in civilian life.

For it must always be remembered, say the recruiting authorities, that an enlisted man's salary is almost all clear money, paid to him after he has been given his clothing outfit, free subsistence food regarded by the men themselves as the very best—in fact, nearly everything for which the civilian pays.

For the benefit of those contemplating enlistment, the following table of pay rates in the Navy has been sent out from the United States Navy Recruiting Station at Baltimore:

Chief masters at arms, $71.50; chief boatswains' mates, $55.00; chief gunners' mates, $55.00; chief turret captains, $66.00; chief quarter masters, $55.00; chief machinists' mates, $77.00; chief electricians, $66.00; chief carpenters' mates, $55.00; chief water tenders, $55.00; chief printers, $66.00; chief storekeepers, $55.00; chief yeomen, $66.00; chief pharmacists' mates, $66.00; bandmasters, $57.20.

All chief petty officers with a permanent appointment receive $77.00 a month and allowances.

Masters at arms, first class, $44.00; boatswains' mates, 1st class, $44.00; gunners' mates, 1st class, $44.00; turret captains, 1st class, $55.00; quartermasters, 1st class, $44.00; boiler makers, $71.50; machinists' mates, 1st class, $60.50; coppersmiths, $60.50; shipfitters, 1st class, $60.50; electricians, 1st class, $55.00; blacksmiths, $55.00; plumbers and fitters, $49.50; sailmakers' mates, $44.00; carpenters' mates, 1st class, $44.00; water tenders, $44.00; painters, 1st class, $44.00; printers, 1st class, $44; storekeepers, 1st class, $44.00; yeomen, 1st class, $44.00; first musicians, $39.60; pharmacists' mates, 1st class, $44.00.

Masters at arms, 2nd class, $38.50; boatswains' mates, 2nd class, $38.50; gunners' mates, 2nd class, $38.55; quartermasters, 2nd class, $38.50; machinists' mates, 2nd class, $44.00; electricians, 2nd class, $44.00; shipfitters, 2nd class, $44.00; oilers, $40.70; carpenters' mates, 2nd class, $38.50; painters, 2nd class, $38.50; storekeepers, 2nd class, $38.50; yeomen, 2nd class, $38.50; pharmacists' mates, 2nd class, $38.50.

Masters at arms, 3rd class, $33.00; coxswains, $33.00; gunners' mates, 3rd class, as well as quartermasters, electricians, carpenters' mates, painters, storekeepers, yeomen, pharmacists' mates, all receive $33.00 per month.

Full particulars of Navy enlistment can be obtained from the Navy Recruiting Station, Calvert and Lexington sts., Baltimore.

WHY ONE BOY STAYS ON THE FARM

One of the most logical reasons why boys should not leave the farm was that advanced by a young farmer who dropped into the Union News office last Wednesday and who was accompanied by his father. The young man did not look like one of those typical scarecrows which the alleged artists on the big dailies dish up every day for the edification of their high-brow (?) readers. He did not have a year's growth of hair, nor was there any hayseed discovered in his locks; he did not wear Klondike boots with felt tops, nor was there any horsey aroma emanating from his clothing. He was just one of those plain, every day lads, with an open countenance, who looked squarely in the eye when he was talking; they rarely can be met with nowadays. He had plenty of good, barnyard sense hidden away in his bean, as his remarks showed.

He was asked if he was going to follow the example of the other thousands of misguided youths who are leaving the shelter of their comfortable homes, and their free, easy life on the farm for the glare and glitter and excitement of the city. "No, indeed," said the young man, "nothing like that for me." And then when pressed for his reason, he gave the following wholesome explanation:

"Why, in the first place, I have not the education to fill a position which commands a good salary, and I am fitted for the work I have been brought up to. Our farm is all paid for; there's not a penny against it, and father has reached an age when the work will depend on me. I have seen other boys leave home for the city because the jobs promised more money, and their experience has been a lesson to me. In a year or so they wander back and very often it happens that they are brought back, physical wrecks. The bright lights only acted as a snare; the boys were dazzled by the show made by others, but could not stand the pace. No, sir; the farm's the place for me."

And his complexion gave evidence that he had buffeted the winds and elements, and his well-kept and snug appearance showed that he had been dining sumptuously on sausage and buckwheat cakes and all the other good things of life which are served on the prosperous farmer's table.
