Progressives Have Carried the Day, Says Mr. Bryan.

Mr. Bryan gave out the following statement Tuesday afternoon:

"I feel sure that the action of the convention thus far will appeal to the country. I had no choice among progressive candidates, but from the first included Governor Wilson in every list I had occasion to make. His action in coming out strongly against Mr. Parker for temporary chairman was the turning point in his campaign. The country is progressive. Nearly all of the Democratic party and more than half of the Republican party are progressive.

"The paramount question before this convention was whether we would take sides with the reactionaries and thus encourage the organization of a third party, and giving to the third party the hope of defeating the reactionaries divided into two parties. This on the one side, and on the other the nomination of a ticket that would so appeal to the progressive element of the nation as to make a third party improbable.

"I am satisfied that with Mr. Wilson running for President on the platform which has been prepared there will be comparatively few progressive Republicans who will not feel justified in supporting the Democratic ticket. If I were to make an estimate, I would say that we ought to have not less than 2,000,000 majority of the popular vote and enough of the electoral vote to give us an overwhelming majority in the Electoral College.

"The action of the convention in adopting the anti-Morgan-Ryan-Belmont resolution has demonstrated that the Democratic party is not only progressive, but is bold enough to throw down the gauntlet to the predatory interests. It is fortunate that Mr. Wilsan's nomination was made without the aid of Mr. Murphy. It is no reflection upon the many good men in the New York delegation to say this.

"From every standpoint the outlook is hopeful. The only unpleasant thing about a political fight is that success to one aspirant brings disappointment to others. Those who failed ought to find some consolation in the fact that failure is not always a reflection upon the individual, because circumstances exert a larger influence than is sometimes supposed in the determining of a convention. Men are only avilable when they fit into conditions. I decided some two years ago that I did not fit into the conditions as we then saw them, and I was not willing to assume the responsibility of advocating any particular progressive, partly because I preferred to trust the wisdom of the multitude, and partly because I felt that a great deal would depend upon the action of the Republican Convention. When the Republican Convention adjourned, it was even more apparent than before that circumstances required some emphatic action on the part of our convention to insure a consolidation of the progressive vote under our banner.

"The incidents of the convention, in a strange way, have emphasized the progressives of our party far more than I had expected that progressiveness could be exercised, and the convention has decided, with rare unanimity, that Governor Wilson fits into the conditions that the Republican Convention and our convention have joined in creating.

"Knowing what the platform is, I feel that it will help him in his fight. It is needless to say that I am gratified to see our party raising the banner of progressive forces of the nation to join in restoring the Government to the hands of the people, that it may be in truth a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"It has been a long convention, but the results are worth the time. The dawn is here and progressive Democracy will be the people's pillar of cloud by day.

What Leaders and Candidates Say.

Judge Parker—Wilson will be easily the winner.

Gov. Foss—Nation to be congratulated under your inspiring leadership—success is sure.

Wm. Jennings Bryan—The ticket will receive a majority of 2,000,000 of the popular vote and enough of the electoral vote to give us an overwhelming majority in the Electoral College.

Senator Bankhead—In withdrawing Underwood paid a high tribute to Gov. Wilson.

Charles Murphy smiled and said—Democrats will carry New York and the country.

E. O. Wood—Wilson will carry Michigan.

Chairman Mack—The ticket will be elected by the largest majority this country has yet given a candidate on the National Democratic ticket.

John Sharp Williams—Woodrow Wilson will be elected President of the United States in November.

Speaker Clark, in telegram—I congratulate you upon your hard-earned victory, and will do all I can to elect you.

Mr. Underwood—I will support the nominee of the convention and shall spend my time working for the ticket chosen at the convention.
