MILLINGTON

Miss Lidie D. Reynolds, of near Elkton, visited friends in town on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. Kennard Bailey, of Wilmington, spent the past two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bailey.

Miss Mary Numbers returned home last Monday from Ocean City, Md., after taking a summer course for teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Price and Mrs. Annie Price were guests last Sunday of relatives at Kennedyville.

Services to-morrow, August 5, at Asbury M. E. Church will be as follows: 9.30 a. m. Sunday school, subject, "Manasseh's Sin and Repentance; 10 30 a. m. and 8 p. m preaching by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Mitchell; Friday, 8 p. m. prayer meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Phillips, of Wilmington, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Vansant.

William Carroll, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Adams and brother and sister, of near Bridgeville, Del., visited Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Higman, near town last Sunday.

George H. Dixon, of near town, has rented the Smith property on north Sassafras street recently vacated by Walter Hurlock and will move there Jan. 1, 1918, and John Dixon will move on the farm where George Dixon now lives.

Miss Mollie Higman and niece, Miss Marie Higman, spent last week with friends in Philadelphia.

Quite a few from here attended the Fair at Chestertown last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaugh, Mrs. Lina Meginnis and Mrs. Kate Tonkin and two sons, Messrs. Henry and George, of Wilmington, were guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hurtt. On their return they were accompanied by Miss Willie Moffett.

Mrs. Mary A. Hibbard returned home on Thursday of last week after spending three months in West Chester, Pa.

ROCK HALL

Whew! Old Sol and General Humidity are on a red hot rampage down this way, but the old General has Sol beaten to a frazzle. A number of heat prostrations occured here on Tuesday. Rich'd Collyer was overcome while in his boat crabbing. He was brought home and is still in a serious condition. Several other cases are reported.

Owing to the storm on Thursday evening of last week and the new time for the departure of the mail from here to Chestertown, arrangements went wrong for the Patriotic Sons of America for Friday evening. They were fortunate, however, in having State President Wm H. Temple, of Church Hill, with them, and a royal good time was the result.

"Farmer's Wife," in Tuesday's American, said some pungent things in reply to the Still Pond writer, which made some of "we uns" sit up and take notice. Evidently "Farmers Wife" is not one of the many crazyites of these days.

Mrs. J. C Ryan, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Harrison.

Wm. Stevens, of Baltimore, one of our old-time residents, and Henry Sisson, of the city, are visitors among our people. They took in the church services on Sunday and manifested much interest.

Mrs. Maurice Dowling, of the city, is enjoying a stay here with her's and her husband's parents, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Meredith, of Baltimore, accompanied by their three interesting little daughters are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wood, at Eastern Neck Island. Their youngest child, though only three years old, is one of Baltimore's youngest singers where she takes quite an active part in many of the Red Cross meetings held in North West Baltimore. Mrs. Meredith will be remembered by a great many of us as Miss Blanche Cox, daughter of the late Daniel Cox.

KENNEDYVILLE

Mrs. Wattie McKnett and daughter, of Philadelphia, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. James Weer have returned to their home with their son, James Weer, Jr.

Mrs. John McCabe spent the week-end with her parents at Whaleyville, Md.

Rev. Peter Schauer left Monday for Westminster, Md., to attend the summer conference.

Miss Anna Weer is spending some time with her brother.

Mrs. John Hessner has been entertaining her brother from Philadelphia.

Quite a few from around here attended Camden camp Sunday.

Mr. Bowen, of Chestertown, spent the week-end at the home of Geo. Bolton.

Miss Josephine Stevens spent the week-end with Mrs. Hessner.

Miss Mildred Hurlock spent Wednesday of this week with Miss Nellie Othoson.

Miss Bessie Jewell was called to the bedside of her sister, Miss Eva Jewell, of Wilmington, Del.

More members are wanted for the Red Cross, which is working enthusiastically. Every woman in and around Kennedyville should be a working member of this organization and do her "bit." The meetings are held every Thursday afternoon, beginning at two o'clock, in the High School building. Old table and bed linen or muslin is needed, and it is desired that any one having these materials which they can contribute will send them to the meeting; or better, that they bring the contribution and stay to join and work. Contributions of money are badly needed. Don't wait for some one to call and ask you to come, or ask you to contribute, as this is everybody's work.

Mr. and Mrs. John Duyer, Jr., and daughter, Clara, are spending their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Duyer, of Still Pond Neck.

Mrs. C. W. Crew and daughter, Beatrice, of Wilmington, spent the past week at their farm near town.

Harry D. Weyl, Jr., spent the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Weyl, of Wilmington, Del.

Dr. J. H. Kelley returned home this week very much improved, after spending several weeks in a private hospital in Baltimore.

Mrs. Edward Miller and daughter, Miss Margaret, and son, Edward, are visiting at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Bennett, near town.

Mrs. Jessie Bockmiller and daughter, Miss Ruth, have returned to their home in Baltimore, after spending the past month at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Moore.

Mrs. L. B. Harper and daughter, Miss Florence, and sister, Mrs. L. B. Parrott, Miss Hope Hackett and Miss Rebecca Bennett spent the past week at Mountain Lake Park, Md.

The Epworth League will be lead this Sunday evening by F. B. Harper. Topi.—What Kind of a College Ought I Attend?

MISS DENNY KILLED AS AUTO TURNS OVER

Miss Mollie Denny, aged 45 years, of Royal Oak, Md., was killed almost instantly Friday afternoon in an automobile accident one mile north of Perryville, when a machine driven by Harry F. Reed, aged 66 years, turned turtle in a ditch along the public road.

Mr. Reed was so badly injured that he was rushed to the Havre de Grace hospital for treatment. Reed, who is a widower, was engaged to be married to Miss Denny, had spent the day in Baltimore and with the former's two sons, age 12 and 14 years, were on their way to Elkton when the boys got to playing on the back seat. As the father turned his head to quiet them the machine, which was running at a 25 mile clip, ran into a ditch, turning the car over. Miss Denny was caught by the upturned car and killed outright. The boys escaped injury.

Miss Denny is a sister to J. Hall Denny, of Chestertown, and was expecting the party to stop at his house for supper.

PEGGY HYLAND'S PERIL

While thrill after thrill marks the action in Commodore J. Stuart Blackton's soul-stirring patriotic spectacle, "Womanhood, The Glory of the Nation," which is the attraction at the Lyceum Theatre next Thursday and Friday, one of the most startling is when Peggy Hyland, among Vitagraph's greatest stars, appears to be injured during the bombardment of a church in which she is acting as a Red Cross nurse. The window is blown in with a crash and she falls, to be picked up unconscious out of the debris in a following scene.

Although this scene lasts but five seconds on the screen, it required elaborate machinery to produce and cost a great deal of money. A multitude of just such painstaking details make up the entire production.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES S. BRADLEY.

In memory of James S. Bradley who departed this life on the 26th of July, 1917, in his 66th year. His life was a true, noble and good one, and all that knew him could take an example from him. Though in the last few years he passed through bitter trials, the same loving and gentle disposition followed him. His only sister, Lida Calley, with whom he had made his home for the last two years will mourn his loss deeply. It can be truly said of him, thou good and faithful servant thou hast been faithful in little things and I will make thee ruler over many, enter thou in the joy of thy Lord. His sweet Heavenly face as it lay in his casket doubly assured us of his peace with his Maker. May others follow his footsteps and have their lamps trimmed and burning.

M. C. C.

BEULAH W. MARTIN.

In memory of our dear daughter, Beulah W. Martin, daughter of William and Eugenia Stradley, who departed this life July 12, 1917, age 20 yrs., 1 month, 17 days.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Day by day we saw her fade
And slowly pine away.
Yet in our hearts we often prayed
That she might longer stay.
Yet there is a comfort that comes to us,
And all our strife and care,
When Jesus calls us home to heaven
We will meet each other there.

FAMILY.

Oh the misery of that dreary morn,
When we stood around the bed
Till death stole upon her softly
And we knew her soul had fled.
Oh, since then our lives are saddened,
Since that day our hopes are slain,
But her voice seems sweetly saying,
"Courage, we shall meet again."
What grief and pain she suffered here
None of us will ever know,
For Jesus took her home with Him,
Where no tears will ever flow.

UNCLE WILLIE.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our little darling, CHARLES W. ROBINSON, who departed this life six months ago, January 23.

Four years we were together,
Then we had to part;
And no one knows but you, dear Lord,
How the parting crushed our hearts.
Then please don't ask us why, dear Lord,
For you alone doth know
The aching hearts and lonely hours,
Since our darling had to go.

LOVING PARENTS.

In our home your place is vacant,
Vacant is your little chair;
Our home has lost its brightness

Grace Marshall at Asylum

The last or next to the last act, which is death, that could befall any one, fell to the lot of Grace Marshall, the story of whose life startled the world, when she was sent by the County Commissioners several days ago to the State Insane Hospital at Cambridge. Since she was rescued, her aunt, Mrs. James, has cared for her, but as she was a poor woman and unable longer to keep her, and she having no other relatives or friends th[illegible] would care for her in the pitiful c[illegible]tion she was left, there was no hin[illegible] to do but send her there to be looked after.—Easton Ledger.

THE LADIES STORE

The Greatest Profit Sharing Shoe Sale in this Town for Years

OUR shoe stock is very large. Prices of shoes have advanced enormously—almost 100% in the last 12 months.

Before adjusting the prices of our shoes to present market values, we have decided to give you the benefit of a Great Shoe Sale. This sale begins today and lasts till July 1st.

For convenience, the shoes in this sale will be grouped in two lots, and sold at two prices, namely

LOT NO. I—$2.10
LOT NO. II—$3.90

We could not duplicate these shoes direct from the factory at these prices. This is your rare chance. Accept it early and get the best.

Do Something

The question of the hour is what each woman can do to help. Society leaders are serving simpler dinners. Ladies are planting their own vegetable gardens. One really productive thing you can do is to make your own clothes at home.

Standard Patterns make it perfectly easy and enable you to dress in the very smartest advance styles. See for yourself at the Standard Pattern Department.

New Prices for Nemo Corsets
Effective on and After Monday, July 2

NEMO SELF-REDUCING Nos. 300, 318, 319, 320, 321 322, 324, 326 and 344—now $3.50, advance to $4.
NEMO SELF-REDUCING Nos. 506, 507, 508, 522—now $5.00, advance to $6.00.

ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY TO MAINTAIN THE HIGH STANDARD OF NEMO QUALITY

The Nemo manufacturers are determined never to lower the quality of their goods. They are now forced to pay two to three times as much for some of the material used in their corsets. In paying the above differences in prices, women may have the satisfaction of knowing that they are getting a comparatively greater value for their money than before the corset materials went soaring.

You Need Not Pay These Higher Prices, However, if Your Buy Now

We have a number of these models in stock which will be sold up to and including Saturday, June 30th, at the old prices. THIS IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO SAVE!

MILLINERY REDUCED

In agreement with our store policy, we prefer to sell merchandise which changes in style even at a loss rather than carry same over another season.

We begin earlier this season than usual to lower prices in our Millinery Department and thus give you almost the whole season to get use out of what you buy.

ALL READY TRIMMED HATS will be sold surprisingly low.
