COURT MEETS MONDAY

October Term of Court meets Monday. There are 30 appeal cases docketed and about 15 criminal cases. It is thought that owing to Mr. Beck's health and Mr. Barroll's accident that a number of these appeal cases will be postponed thereby shortening the October Term.

SEVEN RETURN TO KENT

The following young men from Kent were re-examined upon their arrival at Camp Meade and given an honorable discharge because of some physical disability:

Massey Hines, Chestertown.
Norman McClary Byron, Chestertown.
Masten Shallcross, Sassafras.
Theodore Gladskey, Rock Hall.
Harry Lindsey Gary, Locust Grove.
Clifton Kendall, Rock Hall.
Sterling Kelley, Rock Hall.

Harry Willis Buys Another Farm

Harry Willis, of Betterton, and the candidate for legislature on the Republican ticket, has completed a deal thru J. W. Russell, broker, for the purchase of the Wm. S Hurlock farm, near Kennedyville. The price, while private, is said to be around $10,000. This farm will make a fine addition to the other two farms owned by Mr. Willis, viz., the Barnard home place, near Betterton, and the Shallcross farm on Sassafras river.

ATTENTION, GRANGERS

The attention of the Still Pond Grangers and the citizens of the county at large is called to the fact that at 7.30 p. m. Saturday, Oct. 20th, there will be a most important meeting in the Grange Hall in Still Pond in reference to the Liberty Loan. Speakers from out of the county will be present. This is a matter in which you are or should be interested. Come out everybody and give these speakers a hearing.

S. S. HEPBURN.

WEDDING NOTES

The wedding of Frank Gill, one of the popular rural carriers from Golt's, and Miss Mary E. Tarbutton, an accomplished lady of Sassafras, were married Thursday evening.

The wedding of Miss Louise Curtis Crane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis E. Crane, of Chestertown, and Capt. W. Earle Withgott, U. S. Reserve Corps, will take place at Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, Thursday, Nov 1st, at 7.30 p. m.

The wedding of Miss Mary Rebecca Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Miller, of near town, to Dr. Russell Laurence Pellett, will take place this Saturday afternoon, at 5.30 in the M. E. Church, Chestertown.

CURRY—HINES.

Miss Mary Alphonsa Hines, of Chestertown, and Harold Douglas Curry, of New York City, were married in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Wilmington, at noon Saturday by Rev. Richard W. Trapnell, in the presence of the immediate family. A wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Benjamin F. Houston at the Dorcas apartments, Wilmington. Later in the evening they left for a wedding journey and after November 15th will be at home at Morningside Park Apartments, 40 Morningside avenue, New York. Among those present from Kent were Mrs. W. Frank Hines, Miss Ethel Bacchus, Chas. G. Hines.

THE annual report of the State Comptroller, shows the finances of the state to be in excellant condition. There is a comfortable balance in the Treasury, after the dedicated funds are accounted for, and, what is more significant, there was an excess of receipts over disbursements during the year ended September 30 of more than $176,000. Maryland's income, in other words, greater than its expenditures, and that is as it should be.

Comptroller McMullen is to be congratulated upon this condition and upon the part he has played in bringing it about. He has brought to the office the same business tact which he adopts in his private affairs and the State is fortunate in having such an official. Mr. McMullen has consented to serve the people again and should receive a big majority.

Fairlee Grange will meet next Tuesday evening, Oct. 16th, at 7.30 instead of Wednesday. It will be an open meeting to the public. The grange members and all friends are urged to be present. There will be a speaker present who will impress upon us the necessity of our supporting the Liberty Loan.

Special Notice

MR. G. E. NOLAND, having resigned his position at Tolchester Beach to engage in another business, MR. WILLIAM ASHLEY, of Kent County has been appointed in his place.
It THE TOLCHESTER COMPANY.

STOVES, Etc

TOMATO CONTRACTS EXPIRING

Many tomato contracts in Kent expired October 5th, while others were out Wednesday and to-day. Farmers in Kent, as a rule, have lived up to their contracts to the letter, but now that the time has expired they expect market prices for the balance of crop.

S. G. Caldwell, agent, loaded several cars at Worton Station last week and more this week at 60 cents per basket. Turner & Carter have also been buying and loading at Worton at same price.

Capt. Wm. H. Cooper has offered all his contracts 50 cents per basket for tomatoes after date of expiration.

At other points similar conditions exist and farmers with late patches will reap a tidy sum.

MR. NOLAND RESIGNS

George E. Noland Resigns as Superintendent of Tolchester Beach.

George Edward Noland, the genial superintendent of Tolchester Beach, has resigned to engage in other business. He will remove to Chestertown, where he is heartily welcomed.

Mr. Noland has been associated with the Tolchester Company for 30 years in nearly every position at Tolchester, gradually rising until he became superintendent of the popular resort, which position he has held for many years, and has helped greatly to make the resort what it is to-day. His genial wife must come in for a share of his success, as she has helped him in his many problems that necessarily come to one in such a position. Mr. Noland is known by nearly everybody in Kent and Queen Anne's counties and by thousands of excursionists who patronize the resort. He leaves his position with the kindest feeling and best wishes of all the officers and members of the Tolchester Company, they having nothing but words of praise for their ex-superintendent.

William I. Ashley, a well-known Kent county man, who has been in the company's employ at Tolchester for 21 years, in various positions, has been appointed to succeed Mr. Noland.

Public Meetings

A public meeting will be held at Chestertown, Saturday Afternoon, Oct. 13th, to discuss the issues of the World War. Prominent speakers from Baltimore will be present.

A similar meeting will be held at Rock Hall at night on the 13th, and if the weather permits these meetings will be held in the open.

Speakers from Chestertown and elsewhere will be present at the Kennedyville Grange Monday night, Oct. 15th.

A special meeting will be held Tuesday Night, Oct. 16th, at Fairlee, to discuss all the issues of the day.

MILLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Wood, Sr., P. H. Wood, Jr., and Miss Clara Wood, of Wilmington, were guests last Saturday of Mrs. P. H. Wood, Jr., at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ahern.

Mrs. Mary M. Greenwood is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hope Kendall, of Baltimore.

J. E. Higman and Harry Higman visited relatives near Farmington, Del., last Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Aydelotte and Miss Helen Price spent the week-end with friends in Philadelphia.

Howard King has bought and moved into the house on South Crane street, where Charles Robinson lived for a number of years.

Earle A. Stafford, of Saunders Range, near Annapolis, was the guest last Sunday of friends in town.

The directors of the Needlework Guild will give a Card Party at Comegys Hall Friday evening, October 19, at 8 o'clock. Admission 50c. The proceeds are for the benefit of the soldiers.

Mrs. Francis E. Fitch returned home last Saturday after spending some time in New York and Hagerstown.

Spencer Stevens, of Camp Meade, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens, near town, this week.

John Kulley, Jr., of Marcus Hook, Pa., spent a couple of days this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kulley, near town.

Miss Marguerite Ahern is recuperating from a severe case of appendicitis.

Owing to ill health, Rev. J. M. Mitchell, pastor of Asbury M. E. Church, has found it necessary to give up preaching indefinitely, but will endeavor to have his pulpit filled by some one every Sunday.

O. D. Price, of Camp Meade, was the guest this week of his family in town.
