THERE were three millions of subscribers to the first Liberty Loan and it is now hoped that there will ae double that number to the new loan The government is anxious not only that the loan shall b: taken, but that it shall be widely scattered among the people.

Big Balance In State Treasury

State Comptroller McMullin last Friday completed a statement of the condition of the state treasury for the fiscal year ending September 30. His report has been audited by a Baltimore firm. It shows an excess of cash over dedicated funds of $640,419.84. The cash balance in the treasury on that date was $2,273,619 61. The amount due sinking funds, public school tax and other dedicated funds amounts to $1,633 77, leaving the excess of cash over dedicated funds in the treasury $640,419 84.

HOME GUARDS

The Chestertown Home Guards were organized on Wednesday night last at Fireman's Hall. About forty men were present at the initial meeting. W. B. Copper was made temporary chairman of the meeting and Roy Barnett secretary. Several inspiring speeches were made and a committee, consisting of S. P. Townshend, Julian Coleman and Jack Hendrix, was appointed to canvas the town for members and get other information. Hon. J. A Pearce, Herman Blackway and H. F. Jefferson were made committee to nominate permanent officers. Another meeting will take place next Wednesday night at Firemen's Hall, to which the men are invited.

LIBERTY LOAN

The second Liberty Loan bonds are on the market and all citizens are asked to invest their money and help finance the war. The bonds give opportunity to many who can contribute in no other way. They are the safest investment possible, paying four per cent interest, and they yield the principal directly to the conduct of the war. They are issued in small denominations and will make an excellant opportunity to start a savings account. From a business as well as a patriotic sense it is well to heed the call to "Buy a Bond."

The following are the committees for Kent County to get subscriptions for the Liberty Loan Bonds:

General Committee.—Allan A. Harris, Chairman, W. B. Copper, W. F. Russell, J. P. Ahern, Harry C. Coleman.

Local Committees

Rock Hall.—J. D. Ayers, M. T. Miller, C. F. Wheatley.

Fairlee.—T. P. Kilbourn, Geo. E. Noland, Wm. G. Smith.

Pomona.—Henry Brown, R. C. Leaverton' Edw. W. Emory.

Chestertown.—R. H. Collins, Fred G. Usilton, L. B. Russell.

Worton.—Hanson Stavely, E. A. Corey, Geo. N. Cooper.

Betterton.—Howard Turner, Wm. Medders, Walter B. Harris.

Kennedyville.—Edgar R. Pennington, Geo. R. Raisin, Dr. J. W. Urie.

Galena.—James D. Davis, Jr. Dr. G. R. Jones, H. L. Woodburn.

Massey.—E. Thos. Massey, A. H. Malsberger, M. P. Dunn.

Millington.—Jos. Mallalieu, W. I. Jarvis, A. L. Greenwood.

MESSRS. EDITORS KENT NEWS:

The courteous editor of our Republican paper made a strategic retreat on Oct. 10th. But the bold fish swallowed the hooks on Oct. 3rd and Sept. 26th and we still have a line on him. He helped us to prove that the Democratic party represents the large majority of taxpayers and best citizens while the Republican ticket as it is now made up represents the "Rump" end of both parties.

We feel safe in making the claim that the Democratic party is more worthy of the support of the people of Kent county than the "Rump Republicans."

FARMS WANTED TO SELL.

To owners of farms who really wish to sell their farms, and who will sell at a reasonable price, I can sell every farm in Maryland that is listed with me, as I know what Maryland farms are and cannot speak too highly of them. Farms of all sizes and description, waterfronts, sold in short time. Try me, absolutely no charge unless successful. I have several parties now looking for farms in Maryland. We also have a fine list of farms for sale right near Philadelphia and Camden, N. J., close to good markets, driving distance to city where highest prices are obtained; some directly on the main line to Atlantic City. If interested, write and tell us what you wish; also we have nice farms in Delaware.

T. H. ROLLISON & SON, o6-21* 820 Belgrade Street, Phila., Pa.

FEMALE NURSE or ATTENDANT for a Sanitarium for Nervous and Mental Diseases. Salary $22.00 a month. Address S. LORD, Stamford, Conn.

ROCK HALL

Saturday night was a raw old night for the M. P. supper and festival, but the promoters were happy, as the affair was a very successful one.

Mrs. S. Loewner and Mr. L. Loewner, mother and brother of Mrs. Max Alexander, Mrs. George Buenger and son, George, Jr., motored from Baltimore on Friday on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Max Alexander, where they were entertained until Sunday.

Mrs. A. P. Levy and son, Rulon, of Baltimore, Mr and Mrs. N. M. Ryan and daughter, Hazel, and N. G. Ryan, of Chestertown, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hague and daughters, Mildred and Marjorie, of near Swan Creek, were week-end visitors at the home of Miss Daisy Ryan.

Henry Jones and family moves to Baltimore this week, where Mr. Jones has secured a good position. Wilbur Harrison also goes to the city to engage in remunerative employment. They have been in the oystering business and retire because unprofitableness. Clarence Culley also retired from oyster longing to engage in more remunerative work.

C. F. Wheatley has reopened his meat and provision store, where he will be dispensing choice cuts, etc., as of yore, but he is bucked up against "scarce of money" and Hooverphobia.

Postmaster Judefind is being assisted in the postoffice by ex-postmaster Downey.

It is gratifying to our oystermen to note in Tuesday's American the report of Lieut. Wm. H. Killian, of the S. C. C., after his return from a two-day trip in the oyster territory, but we would like to realize the beginning of a great demand and better prices for oysters here. Unless prices scale up, the season here will be poorest in many years, owing to the scarcity of oysters. Captain Akers dredged up about 40 bushels on Swan Point some days ago and out of the bulk he got three bushels of oysters and this is a fair sample of the whole bar.

S. C. Cannon suffered a stroke of paralysis on Friday and a second one on Monday, and died Wednesday morning at his home in Skinner's Neck.

Wm. I. Ashley was struck with the biggest surprise of his life on Wednesday when he was selected as superintendent of Tolchester Beach. We, all of us, rejoice in his appointment and hope for him the success Mr. Noland enjoyed as the efficient superintendent for a long number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Warrem, and little son, of Betterton, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Downey.

Mrs. Enoch Latham, of Chestertown, spent a few days this week with her sister, Mrs. Joseph William.

John Fithian and mother and Mr. and Mrs. Bard Wessel and little son, of Sudlersville, spent the day Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Fithian.

Mrs. Jacob Wolleyhan suffered a severe stroke of paralysis one day last week. She is some little improved at this writing. Dr. Selby is in attendance.

Mrs. Hennie Rodney is visiting her children in New Jersey and Philadelphia.

W. R Rodney is nursing a very bad abcessed hand, the Dr thinks it will be sometime before Mr. R. will be able to use it.

There is some little sale of oysters this week at 40 cents per bushel. But the oysters are very hard to find.

Emory Hogans is carrying his arm in a sling the result of cranking his auto.

Little Miss Laura Porter has been quite sick having had a nasty fall she is able to be out now.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Leroy Stevens, U. S. S. Merimac, U. S. N., to Miss Ethel Porter. The marriage took place in Philadelphia Sept. 27. Both are from Rock Hall.

Miss Hilda Culley returned home Baltimore on Saturday. Miss Culley's health is improving under the care of Dr. Hoener.

A BIG DINNER

Still Pond Farmer's Club is more than thirty two years old, and as the years go by, the popularity of the dinner served increases! Now, the careful housewives who have served the dinners all these long years have never been caught napping because they always prepared ahead for the crowd coming!

The President of the United States, and Mr. Hoover, too, are just now getting ready to be the hosts for a big dinner party, which will include supper and breakfast for many hungry people over on the other side, and as they are too busy to look into every pantry and cellar in the United States, and the time is so limited, that they have asked me to find out just how much there is in Kent county.

Now every one who knows me, or even knows of me, think that I am too busy to look into every pantry, so I am asking that each one who reads this will kindly take a list of quarts and pints of canned fruits and vegetables on hand Oct. 15, jare of preserves and pickles, and glasses of jelly, and will say how many of these jars have spoiled! Now tell the truth, women, don't exaggerate, and don't minimize the good you have done this summer. You may take the word of the Defense Council, that this won't mean that the Government is going to take any part of it from you, or that you will be called to donate it for any cause whatever Remember! The Government is giving this big dinner, and they must be prepared to feed all the family, too, so that none will be hungry. Let me have it at once, and as there are so many who do not read the papers, please ask your neighbor to send hers in too.

EVELYN HARRIS.

WORTON

Worton Grange will meet Monday eve, Oct. 15 at 8 p. m. Every member try to be present to perfect plans for the exhibit and supper 20th.

Red Cross meetings every Wednesday from 2 to 4 o'clock in the hall. Every lady of the community cordially invited and earnestly requested to attend.

Somebody says a wedding soon.

Miss Grace Newnam spent the week-end with Miss Helen Rasin.

Miss Emma Cooper is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Cooper.

Miss Grace Dodson is suffering from malaria fever.

STILL POND

Mrs. W. G. Rasin is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Watson, at Newark, Del.

Mrs. James H. Warren and Mrs. R. G. Warren spent Monday and Tuesday in Baltimore.

Mrs. W. L. Ford and daughter, Elnor, are visiting relatives at Brooklyn and Baltimore.

W. R. Haddaway has bought the N. L. Hynson property and expects to move his family there about the first of the year.

Mrs. Harry Watkins and son, William, have returned to their home in Wilmington after visiting her sister, Mrs. C. T. Norris at her home here.

William Medford, of Massey, visited our town during the week.

Great interest is being shown by our Epworth League in the approaching District Convention which will open here Tuesday evening, Oct. 23 continuing Oct. 24 and 25. All signs seem to promise a great convention—one that will be productive of great good. Come out friends and members of the League to the business to be held Monday 2 30 p. m. at the home of Miss Lucille Farr, also Friday evening immediately after prayer meeting and help plan for the complete success of this convention.

HOME RULE AND FAIR PLAY!

THE PEOPLE OF BALTIMORE COUNTY ASK NOTHING MORE THAN THIS.

Mayor Preston has cast greedy eyes upon the wealthy and populous "belt" around the city, upon which there is not a cent of debt. It "looks good," to him and his followers, who have swamped Baltimore and hindered its progress with debt which now amounts to nearly $100,000,000. It matters not to him and them that it is not their property. "We want it and we are going to have it", they shout. "We would have it in order to issue more bonds."

BALTIMORE COUNTY AND BALTIMORE CITY ARE SEPARATE UNITS OF THE STATE.

There is no more connection in law between them than there is between Baltimore County and Somerset County, and the city has just as much legal right to annex Crisfield as it has forcibly to take part of Baltimore County. The Constitution of Maryland provides that no part of a county may be annexed without the vote of the people living in the territory proposed to be annexed.

BALTIMORE COUNTY IS NOT OPPOSING A FAIR ANNEXATION BILL.

But the Field-Preston Force Bill, which a clique of city politicians are trying to "put over" by high-handed methods heretofore unknown in this State, is grossly unfair. It is largely the same old bill which was defeated in the Legislature of 1916, but made worse wherever it was changed. It takes in much more territory—an area one and one-half times as large as the present city—while ONE-HALF THE ANNEX TAKEN IN 1888 IS STILL UNIMPROVED AND VACANT. It contains cunningly devised "jokers", whereby the county will lose the value of the public buildings, costing hundreds of thousands of dollars, which it has built in the proposed annex, it will lay special taxes upon all property fronting on the State Roads and IT DOES NOT PROVIDE FOR A REFERENDUM. THE CITY'S REFUSAL TO SUBMIT THE MATTER TO A REFERENDUM IS AN ADMISSION THAT THE BILL IS NOT FAIR. THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IS PLEDGED TO THIS BILL.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY, FAVORING FAIR ANNEXATION, SAYS THE PEOPLE IN THE PROPOSED ANNEX SHOULD HAVE THE CHANCE TO VOTE UPON THE MATTER, AS PROVIDED FOR IN THE CONSTITUTION. IF THE DEMOCRATS WIN THIS FALL THEY WILL BE GIVEN THAT RIGHT. EVERY BELIEVER IN CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT, HOME RULE AND FAIR PLAY SHOULD VOTE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES.

Public Sale of a
DESIRABLE SMALL FARM
In Queen Anne's County.

UNDER competent authority the undersigned, agent, will offer at public sale in front of the Court House in Chestertown, Md., between 11 and 11.30 o'clock a. m., on

TUESDAY, Oct. 23, 1917

9½ ACRES MORE OR LESS, situated about 1½ miles from Chestertown, in Queen Anne's county, on the road leading from the State macadam road to Round Top and near the home of Jas. T Anthony and others, and adjoining the lands of Walter Elburn and others, and now occupied by Walter Elburn, who will remove January 1.

The land is level and adapted to any crop. It is well fenced. Improved by a FRAME DWELLING, built about 5 yrs. ago, of best materials, white pine weather boarding, large 6 column porch, two stairways, cellar, attic, 3 rooms and reception hall first floor, 3 rooms and reading hall second floor. House alone cost $1600. Has stable and shed and poultry houses. Being within walking distance of Chestertown, near the water, within three minutes walk of macadam road, this property offers unusual opportunities to one wanting a truck or poultry farm and a delightful country home.

Terms made known at sale.
