KILTIES BAND TO BE IN CHESTERTOWN

Liberty Loan Day In Kent County, Monday, October 22—Forty Pieces In Band—Naval Reserves—Opera Singer and Good Speakers.

A special train carrying the world-famous Kiltie's Band of 40 pieces from Ontario, Canada, will arrive in Chestertown about 5 p. m., next Monday, Oct. 22nd. They will parade at 8 p. m., after which a free concert will be given in Lyceum Theatre.

Detail of Navy Reserves will accompany band, as well as famous operatic singer, Miss Gertrude Vanderse. The speakers on the train will be Capt. C. Macklin, U. S. N. R. F., Hon. Albert G. Towers, Chairman Public Service Commission, Hon. J. Harry Covington, Hon. Phillips Lee Goldsboro and Mr. Sewal S. Watts. A great evening for Liberty Loan.

This is one of the most famous music organizations in the world. The band comprises 40 soloists, dancers, pipers, etc. The conductor, Alfred Dunn, ranks as one of the greatest bandmasters of today. There will be bagpipe playing, Hyland dances, reels, jigs and flings. The Kilties became famous through its world tour which covered India, Asia, Australia, Europe, Africa and America.

Every member of the band is described as a soloist, which, of course, means that he is a thoroughly trained musician. There will be no admission charge at any concert.

BETTERTON will make a Liberty Loan drive next Wednesday evening at the High School Assembly rooms. All invited to come. Good speakers. Messrs. Howard Turner, Wm. Medders and Walter B. Harris is the committee in charge assisted by C. H. Price, Arthur L. Harris, Arthur Brice and Howard Owens.

Navy League Meeting

The State Chairman of the Navy League, Mrs. Howard Hubbard, of Baltimore, will hold a public meeting at the Eastern Shore Inn, TUESDAY, OCT. 23RD, at 8 o'clock P. M. All interested in Army and Navy Knitting are requested to be present.

ETHEL BACCHUS, Local Chairman.

FINE WORK IN KENT

In the NEWS last week was published the different committees in each precinct to look after the Liberty Loans. These committees have been enlarged in some cases and have been doing effective work. Allan A Harris is the county chairman and reports the following gratifying figures:

Millington	$22,000.00
Chestertown	56,000.00
Fairlee	13,000.00
Kennedyville	1,250.00

Meetings have been held this week at various places and the speakers listened to with enthusiastic interest. Still Pond will hold a special meeting tonight to hear this great question discussed.

TOO BUSY EVEN FOR COURT

Judges Adkins and Hopper in adjourning the October Term of Court to the first Monday in December certainly did a wise thing. It met with the unanimous approval of all jurors and interested parties, with one exception—the Sheriff. It may cut him out of a Term of Court. Owing to the great rush of work on the farm and for other reasons the Court deemed it wise to postpone the session.

The Grand Jury was drawn as follows: P. A. M. Brooks, foreman; John H. Weist, Samuel J. Comly, George T. Williams, William S. Collins, James S. Moffett, William E. Keyser, William F. Stoops, John W. Higman, J. Biddle Hossinger, James G. Harris, James T. Dixon, C. Frank Wheatley, William T. Brice, William H. Toulson, Nichols V. Walters, Philip Myers, George L. Bowers, Stewart R. Matthews, Henry Urie, Walter Coleman, W. Raymond Startt, Herman B. Massey.

The Petit Jury was drawn as follows: Harry J. Hill, Joseph M. Norris, Theodore Walbert, Charles S. Porter, Benjamin I. Taylor, Joseph Brice, Joseph E. Boyd, George R. Raisin, Charles B. Nicholson, Louis E. Smith, Edward A. Corey, Harry Nichols, Sr., John Johnson, William T. Jewell, Carson W. Harris David B. Ford, Milton Maslin, Bernard J. McCauley, dead, Merrick Clements, A. M. Culp, Abram Casey, Harry Griffith, O. A. Sutton, Harry R. Graham, John E. Hadaway.

Court excused W. T. Brice as a grand juror.

SALES OF PROPERTY

The Cannon place in Quaker Neck has been sold this week by C. F. Parks to James E. Brown and wife.

Townsend Anthony has purchased of J. Waters Russell's farm agency, the Perkins' Hill farm, of near Kennedyville. The farm contains about 125 acres.

Claude F. Parks has purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Powell a part of their fine farm in Queen Annes, about a mile from town, known as the Faithful farm. Mr. Powell is now having a new home erected for himself on 40 acres, which he reserved. Contractor Walter T. Pippin is doing the work.

Samuel Latham has sold his place of twelve acres near Melitota, to John Newsome, the blacksmith, of that place. The price was $2,000.
