NOT ENOUGH CHILDREN

ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

WEDDING NOTES

Chestertown M. E. Church was the Mecca for a host of interested friends Saturday afternoon at 5.30 o'clock, the occasion being the wedding of Miss Mary Rebecca Miller, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mearn Miller, of "Sunnybrook farm," about five miles from Chestertown, Dr. Russell Lawerence Pellett, a prominent doctor of Hamburg, New Jersey. The church was neatly trimmed for the occasion with autumn leaves. In this beautifully trimmed edifice, the impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. T. F. Beauchamp while Miss Mable Toulson at the organ, and T. K. Bordley, with the violin, rendered music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Frank M. Miller. She wore a dress of white silk netting over silver cloth and carried a bouquet of brides roses and lillies of the valley. Miss Sue L. Miller, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was charming in a most attractive dress.

The best man was Dr. Thos. L. Culley, a friend of the groom.

The ushers were Messrs Merrick Clements, Isaac Gibbs, Jackson Culley, Prof. Moses Simmons, Dr. William Nisshley and Dr. Harrison Duncan.

During the ceremony, Mrs. Merrick Clements sang a beautiful solo in her usual charming manner.

After the bridal party had arrived at "Sunnybrook Farm," an elaborate reception was held from 6 30 to 9o'clock, attended by about seventy-five people, and among which were the groom's family and many others from several states. Mrs. Leon Brown assisted Mrs. F. M. Miller in arranging and carrying out the reception.

Dr. and Mrs. Pellett left on their honeymoon for a tour of the New England States and will be gone about a month. Upon their return they will reside in Hamburg, New Jersey, where the groom has an extensive practice.

THE United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to be held at Chestertown, Md., on Nov. 24, 1917, as a result of which it is expected to make certification to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of fourth-class postmaster at Gratitude, Md., and other vacancies as they may occur at that office, unless it shall be decided in the interests of the service to fill the vacancy by reinstatement. The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $206 for the last fiscal year.

DR. JOHNSON, of Tennessee, a colored medical doctor, has moved to Chestertown, and has taken quarters on Cannon street, between Mill street and Cross street. He is said to be a graduate of Morgan College, Baltimore, and of the Harvard Medical School. A colored undertaker is also about to settle here.

DON'T HOARD OR WASTE SUGAR

YOUR COUNTRY calls on you to be conservative with Sugar. This "scarcity cry" IS NOT for the benefit of speculators, as the price is the same as it has been for weeks; but if YOU buy more than you need, it means that your neighbor must do without.

We will exert every effort to supply our customers, but we urge that you
