

When we were near the Mercy Hospital Dorsey gave the dollar and ten cents to me. The money was marked and I had the number of the note at that time. He gave Mr. Lee the key. After locking him up I went back to my home, which is within a square of Mr. Lee's place, and I went in with the same key and locked the door after me."

Mr. Kaufman, counsel for Patrolman Dorsey, was asked if he desired to cross examine the witnesses and replied that he did not..

Patrolman Dorsey was then asked if he had anything to say, and Mr. Kaufman answering for him said "No."

Mr. Harry G. Lee was recalled:

Q;- Did you ever call the attention of the sergeant on the post to your loss?

A;- No sir.

Q;- Did you ever mention it to Patrolman Dorsey?

A;- Yes sir, sometime ago when some people were living up stairs when I missed some cigars.

Q;- You may no report of it at all to any police officer until a few days ago?

A;- Not that I remember.

Q;- How long ago did you report it?

A;- I do not remember.

Q;- The recent report is the only one you made?

A;- Yes sir.

Detective Weaver here remarked that the report was received the day on which the detectives were sent out, and this statement Mr. Lee said was true.

The President of the Board said:-

"Mr. Dorsey, you have not only disgraced yourself and your family and violated the trust imposed in you under the oath of your office, but you have humiliated every member of the Police Department from the Board down to probationer. The Board dislikes very much to act in the case in a hurried way, and we regret that we could not grant a continuance of the case, as requested by your counsel. We feel that it is a duty we owe to
