

In returning, herewith, correspondence in connection with the presentation of flowers to members of the department within a recent date (June 1st. 1910), I beg, respectfully to state that I took this matter up with the various captains and from the reports submitted by them they report as follows:

Eastern District.

None of the officers of this district have received any floral tributes within the time mentioned.

Northeastern District.

None of the officers of this district have received any floral tributes within the time mentioned.

Northern District.

No flowers have been furnished to brother officers for any other purpose than death in family.

Central District.

A floral design was presented by the members of the Northwestern District to Lieut. William Kalbfleisch upon his transfer to the Central District. The cost of this design was taken from the "Flower Fund" of the Northwestern District, of which Lieut. Kalbfleisch was a member.

Western District.

No flowers were presented to any brother officers of this district within the date mentioned.

Northwestern District.

No floral presentations have been made to any member connected with this district, with the exception as above stated to Lieut. Kalbfleisch, transferred to Central District, the cost of which was taken from the "Flower Fund."

Southern District.

No floral contributions have been received by any member of this district within the time mentioned.

Southwestern District.

No flowers of any kind have been received by members of this district during the time mentioned.

Detective Bureau.

Captain Joseph McGovern, recently promoted to the Detective Bureau, was the recipient of a basket of flowers, the cost of which was taken from the flower fund, of the Central District. He also received a floral design in the shape of a horse-shoe from Messrs. James, John and Robert Manning (non-members of the department.)

Headquarters.

No floral contributions have been made to any member of the department since June 1st., 1910.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

Patrolman Walter E. Boone,
Northwestern District.

In the matter of complaint preferred by Octavia Johnson, 525 Biddle alley, against Patrolman Walter E. Boone, Northwestern District, as referred to in the proceedings of July 21st., 1910, a report, as follows, was received:-
