A meeting will be held in Chestertown M. E. Church next Wednesday evening, Nov. 14th, at 7 30 o'clock in interest of Y. M. C. A. Senator Williams, of Cecil, and Rev. Mr. Stanchfield, international secretary, will speak. The latter has spent many years in foreign work and 3 years with British Indian troops.

CHURCH NOTES

As a result of the revival held at St. James M. P. Church, 20 persons united with the church Sunday and 21 joined the Endeavor Society. Revival services will be held Sunday morning and Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m.

Rev. John M. Arters, formerly of Wilmington, but now of Waterville, Maine, has been appointed assistant secretary of the Methodist Episcopal Temperance Society and will be associated with Rev. Clarence True Wilson, D D., in temperance campaigns of that church. Mr. Arters was Anti-Saloon League Superintendent in Delaware and on the Eastern Shore of Maryland a few years ago.

The union revival services in Chestertown started Sunday evening with a crowded church, and Rev. Alexander Davidson preached a fine sermon on the "Seven Lights." Each evening he has delivered splendid discourses and the prospects are for a glorious time. Mrs. Davidson presides at the piano, with Miss Usilton at the big organ, and all combine with a union choir to make thrilling music Cottage prayer meetings have been held and the evangelistic plans are meeting with hearty co-operation. He is an ideal man for the business in hand and deserves success.

Fairlee M. E. Church. Sunday-school at 9 30 a. m and preaching at 10 30, by pastor. At Worton, Sunday-school at 2 p. m. and preaching at 3 p. m.

ROCK HALL

Rev. J. W. Prettyman spent the past week in Dorchester county and participated in the re-opening of the M. E. Church on Taylor's Island, a charge that he once served. There was no service here on Sunday. Joseph Downey conducted a song and prayer service in the morning and Mrs. Susan Hague a White Ribbon service at night.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Leary made the trip to Winchester on Saturday by automobile. On returning, when beyond Church Hill, a shepherd dog ran out in the road and caused a smash-up. The car contained, besides Mr. and Mrs. Leary, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Crouch and son and Mrs. John Hubbard. The boy was driving the car. All were considerably shaken up but not seriously injured. The dog was killed. A good Samaritan picked them up and brought them to Chestertown, where they found other conveyance home.

Henry Jones moved his family to Baltimore on Monday, where he has permanent employment.

Robert Wickes left here yesterday for a permanent location at the National Capital.

J. W. Boyer, who met with a serious injury to his left eye a month ago while engaged at his work in Baltimore, is now on a visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Harrison, of this place.

The election here on Tuesday was the tamest ever. Comparatively little interest was taken by the voting population. "There's a reason."

George Akers has moved from here to Baltimore and R J. Harrison will move to the city in a few days.

Mrs. Wm Apsley, of Baltimore, is a guest of her mother on Allen's Lane.

KENNEDYVILLE

Mrs. Cleaver was on the sick list the past week.

Report of Women's Committee of Kent County For Second Liberty Loan.

The opening of the Bond Sale was celebrated by ringing all the bells in Chestertown and Kent county at ten o'clock on Monday morning, factory whistles, church bells, school bells, anything that could make a noise. This was arranged by the Ladies Committee, then immediately we sent out 29 telegrams, with 29 letters following asking the ministers of the county to preach on Liberty Loan Sunday enclosing stamped envelopes for replies. The Women's Committee, co-perated altogether with the Mens Committee, communicating several times daily.

Betterton Red Cross Circle at a meeting the ladies solicited bonds amounting to $2800. Mrs. Owens and Miss Bessie Crew served refreshments for committee from Chestertown.

Kennedyville at a meeting arranged by both the men's and women's committee sold bonds amounting to $1250. Sold entirely through the women's committee $8600. Committee—Miss Emma Shafer, Mrs. J. D. McCabe, Mrs. J. W. Urie.

Galena Red Cross Working Circle sold to eleven people bonds amounting to $9850. Committee—Mrs. George R. Jones, Mrs. Bessie Hurtt.

Worton held a Liberty Loan meeting during a festival and the ladies sold bonds amounting to $2600. Chairman, Mrs. Harry Williams.

Millington's maximum allotment was $21,260.00. The mens committee sold bonds amounting to $45,000. Amount of bonds bought by women, $1,800.

Womens committee of Chestertown and vicinity sold bonds as follows :

Mrs. James Beck	450 00
Mrs. Henry Brown	350 00
Mrs. Hydie Thompson	2,550 00
Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton	1,450 00
Mrs. Kratzer	5,000 00
Mrs. Allan A. Harris	500 00
Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard	30,750 00

Amount of bonds bought by women of Kent county in the 2nd Liberty Loan :

Kent County Savings Bank, Wm. F. Russell, cashier. 80 ladies subscribed	$10,700 00
Third National Bank, W. B. Copper, Cashier. 94 ladies subscribed	30,150 00
The People's Bank, Harry Coleman, cashier. 48 ladies subscribed	14,825 00
Chestertown Bank of Maryland, Allan A. Harris, cashier. 122 ladies subscribed	17,600 00
Total	$73,275 00

Amount of Bonds sold entirely by women that we could trace—many sold at joint meetings we could not trace.

Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard	$ 30,750 00
Rock Hall	31,700 00
Fairlee (Bonds taken by ladies)	2,000 00
Betterton	2,800 00
Kennedyville	8,600 00
Galena "Red Cross Circle"	9,850 00
Mrs. Allan A. Harris	500 00
Mrs Kratzer	5,000 00
Mrs. James Beck	450 00
Mrs. Henry Brown	350 00
Worton	2,600 00
Mrs. Hydie Thompson	2,550 00
Millington	1,800 00
Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton	1,450 00
	$100,400 00
Amount of Bonds bought by women of Kent county	$73,275 00
One fourth of the $90,000.00 accredited to the women by the mens committee at the meeting of the Liberty Loan Special	22,500 00
The amount of Bonds bought by women and the amount sold by women could not be accurately separated. A conservative estimate would give women credit for their work in Kent County	$ 50,000 00
Total amount of Bonds sold in Kent county	$375,000 00
