CONTRIBUTIONS BY PEOPLE OF CHESTERTOWN FOR UNCLE SAM'S SHELF WEEK.

Uncle Sam's Shelf Week was a great success. It was held under the auspices of the Economic Section of the Woman' Defense Council of Maryland. The contributions were asked for a Thanksgiving treat for the soldiers and sailors of Maryland's forts and camps.

Kent county responded loyally. The total contributions amounted to about 912 containers of canned goods and jellies. This filled 11 barrels and 16 boxes. One barrel and one box of this was from the colored people of Kent county to the colored soldiers of Camp Meade.

One barrel and one box were shipped to Fort Howard and the other ten barrels and 15 boxes sent to Camp Meade, according to instructions from the Baltimore chairman of Uncle Sam's Shelf Week.

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to each person in Chestertown and the county who contributed so generously and made the "shelf" such a splendid success. I wish, too, to especially thank Mrs. Charles Embert, who, through personal solicitation, procured over 60 jars of canned goods and jellies in Chestertown; also Mrs. Charles Brice, of Betterton,, through whose solicitation a barrel was sent from there, and the Reverend Dr. Prettyman, of Rock Hall, who sent a barrel, and to the chairman of each of the other Red Cross Units in the county whose personal solicitation procured the splendid contributions that were sent.
