WHEN SUGAR REALLY WAS EXPENSIVE

Civil War Prices Were As Bad Or Worse Than Present Averages

Present war prices on staple market basket products which are necessary to every household have nothing on the prices of the days of '65, after the Civil War. These proofs of the fact is shown by the bill printed below, which was sent by a grocer to his customer on Jan. 4th' 1865. Some articles were less expensive than they are today, but others and probably the more common articles were a good deal higher.

A good many householders will be consoled by the fact that after the Civil War the price of sugar was 26 cents a pound. People today kick against paying 10 cents a pound for sugar Tea costs 85 cents a pound, as against today's price of half that. Flower was $12.50 a barrel, as compared to $12.80 to $14.20 today. A single bar of soap costs 20 cents then. Indeed prices fifty-two years ago entirely outclassed present day prices when one considers that the prevailing wage sale was $1.50 a day. Today $3 a day is not considered a low average and many akilled laborers are earning $5 a day and more.

In the days of the rebellion molasses sold for $1.30 a gallon. Today good Porto Rican molasses cost from 55 to 60 cents a gallon, less than half what it did then. Meat must have been out of sight, for during the whole month of December the customers bill contained but one meat account, and he must have struck a bargain, for a 5½ pound goose cost only 76 cents, or 14 cents a pound. Goose today sells from 25 to 28 cents a pound. One gallon of vinegar cost 25 cents then. The price today ranges from 20 to 40 cents.

The bill which was resurected contained the following items for the month of December, 1864:

Dec. 3	To 3 lbs. sugar at 26c	$ .78
5	To 1 bar soap	.20
9	To 1 lb. tea	1.70
	To 1 lb. raisins	.30
	To 1 box cinnamon	.25
	To ½ gal. molasses at $1.30	.65
13	To 1 bbl. flower	12.50
15	To 1 doz. eggs	.40
22	To ½ gal. molasses at $1.30	.65
24	To 5⅝ lb. goose	.76
	To 1 keg oysters	1.10
26	To 1 gal. oil	1.00
	To 1 paper pepper	.15
	To 2 lbs. crackers	.28
27	To 5 lbs. sugar	1.30
30	To 1 globe	.10
31	To 1 gal. vinegar	.25
	Total	$23.15

CLIMBED STAIRS ON HER HANDS

Too Ill to Walk Upright. Operation Advised. Saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This woman now raises chickens and does manual labor. Read her story:

Richmond, Ind.—"For two years I was so sick and weak with troubles from my age that when going up stairs I had to go very slowly with my hands on the steps, then sit down at the top to rest. The doctor said he thought I should have an operation, and my friends thought I would not live to move into our new house. My daughter asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she had taken it with good results. I did so, my weakness disappeared, I gained in strength, moved into our new home, did all kinds of garden work, shoveled dirt, did building and cement work, and raised hundreds of chickens and ducks. I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and if these facts are useful you may publish them for the benefit of other women."—Mrs. M. O.
