Wilmington, Del.

BRIGHTEN THE CORNERS

Flood the room with mellow, usable Rayo light. Strong enough to illuminate a large room—yet entirely free from uncomfortable glare.

RAYO LAMPS light like a gas jet. Just raise the gallery and touch a match. Simple and attractive in design, they are an ornament in any room. No cheap filigree work to keep you busy cleaning.

If your dealer doesn't have them, write to our nearest station.

Aladdin Security Oil is a guarantee of most satisfactory results from lamps, stoves and heaters.

Local Notes

AMONG the changes around Lankford we note: Mrs. T. E. W. Crew will discontinue farming the first of the year, having rented her farm to Mr. Walbert, son of James Walbert. She advertises in the NEWS to-day her fine lot of cattle, none better in Kent. Milton P. Crew will move to his recently purchased farm, near Kennedyville, Jan. 1. J. R. Lusby, now residing on the R. Groves farm, will tenant the B. F. Beck farm, where Milton P. Crew now lives, next year.

THE college basketball team lost to City College Friday night by score of 30 to 16. This is the first time that our team has lost to City College and it hurts. Capt Wilmer thinks this game will teach his team a lesson and victories will follow.

PROF. CREASY, of the High School, brought to the NEWS office a red-ripe tomato. It was one of two grown by Janitor George Bacon from a vine in a flower pot placed in an auditorium window. A seedling was planted in September, kept watered and the two tomatoes was the reward. Many housewives have been eating tomatoes which were ripened in the house by wrapping in paper and caring for them in other ways.

WILLIAM DIXON, owner of Green Foin farm, in Worton district, had all four fingers of his right hand shot off Thursday afternoon. He was entering an automobile with the gun in hand when the firearm was accidently discharged. The ends of two fingers were blown off, and the remaining two so badly lacerated that Dr. H. G. Simpers, the attending physician, found it necessary to amputate them below the first joint.

MARTHA BROSCO, a negress, who was arrested near Golt several months ago, on a charge of causing the death of a colored man by throwing him across a red-hot stove, after saturating his clothing with coal oil, was tried in the circuit court here and mention made in the NEWS. The woman was held on two counts, one for murder, and another for assault with intent to kill. State's Attorney Vickers confessed a plea of not guilty on the first charge, and the woman's counsel, R. Groome Parks, entered a plea of guilty on the second. The court held that there were mitigating circumstances in the case, and sentenced the woman to two years in the Maryland House of Correction. The case attracted wide attention in the upper section of the county. The negro died several days after the occurrence, being practically burned to death.

WOUNDED American soldiers will not have pretty nurses to push them around in invalid chairs during their convalescence. England tried it and found it cluttered up the hospitals, for few of the Tommies wanted to leave such pleasant company. Dr. Arthur P. Herring, of the Maryland State Lunacy Commission, had forestalled this by putting the convalescent wards for those suffering from functional troubles close to the base hospitals in France and with only trained nurses at hand to propel wheeling chairs. These professional nurses, he said, will be too busy to devote any more time than necessary to lovelorn convalescents.

SOLDIERS THANKSGIVING MENU

Kent county housewives will have a better opinion, perhaps, of Uncle Sam's culinary department, when they read the Thanksgiving Day menu served the soldier lads at Camp Meade Thursday. It follows:

Oyster Soup and Crackers
Roast Turkey — Oyster Dressing
Cranberry Sauce
Candied Sweet Potatoes
Creamed Mashed Potatoes
Giblet Gravy
Sweet Corn — Green peas
Celery — Olives
Ice Cream
Cocoanut Layer Cake — Chocolate Layer Cake
Pumpkin Pie — Mince Pie
Mixed Fruit
Lemonade — Cocoa
Cigars — Cigarette
