STILL POND FARMERS CLUB

The "High Cost of Producing Crops" was discussed at the last meeting of the Still Pond Farmers Club at W. H. Bonwill's. Special attention was paid to wheat, corn and tomatoes and the conclusions reached that in order to put the "farmer" on the same footing as men engaged in other occupations, a minimum price of $2.50 for wheat, $1.75 for corn, and 35c per ⅝ basket for tomatoes should be established. Allowing the maximum price to be adjusted by the law of supply and demand as illustrated by comparing the present price of onions and turnips with that of a year ago These figures being based on the cost of production plus 10 per cent. allowing on corn (average yield 26 bus. per acre)

Plowing per acre	$ 3.00
Harrowing twice	1.50
Rolling	75
Disking	1 00
Springtoothing twice	2.00
Drilling Fertilizer	1.00
Cost of Fertilizer	5.00
Planting	75
Seed Corn	50
Cultivating 5 times	4.00
Replanting	75
Thinning	75
Cutting	3 00
Husking (26 bus. at 20c)	2.60
Fodder Yarn	75
Hauling	1.00
Hauling Fodder (2 loads at 50c)	1.00
Interest on $100 (value of land)	6.00
Interest on $44.00 (cost of growing)	2.64
Interest on $20 00 (value of horses and implements)	1 20
Salary due the Boss	5 00
	$44.19
10 per cent. of cost allowed for profit	4.42
Present value of corn. 26 bu. at $1 25	$31.50 $48.61
Present value of Fodder 2 loads at $2 50	5.00 $36.50

It is the opinion of the Club that the acreage of tomatoes and corn will have to be reduced as sufficient and efficient labor is not available. The "farm army" while it was not an entire success it enabled the farmers to grow many acres of crops that could not have been grown without them. The club secretary was directed to send the figures on wheat, corn and tomatoes to Mr. Hoover for his consideration.

The club will meet at S. G. Rosebery's Thursday, Jan. 3rd.

SKY BLACK WITH DUCKS

Ringgold's Point Ducking Club, with commodious quarters and a number of blinds on the shores of the Ringgold Point farm, owned by Messrs. Walter B. Strong and William G. Smyth and in charge of Captain Charles Watkins, brought down 60 fine canvasbacks, redheads and black ducks, last Friday. The following compose this club: W. B. Strong, Wm. G. Smyth, Paul Comegys, Dr. Merritt Brice, T. B. Kilbourn, Jos. Brice, Thos. W. Trew, Charles A. Jessop and Capt. Charles Watkins.

Hail Point Club with following members: Messrs. Biddle Hossinger, Buddy Strong, Howard Strong, Miller Strong, Thos. H. Beck, Charles H. Skirven and Jack Deputy bagged 90 fat ones.

The Cedar Point Club broke the record of many seasons last Friday with bagging 81 ducks, 40 of them were well-fattened canvasbacks. This club has about a dozen members among whom are Messrs. S. Scott Beck, Abe Casey, Joseph Downey, Ringgold Jones, John Wilson, Johnny Wood and Bud Ashley.

Edward Wilkins had a bag of 15 last Friday morning from his blinds at Riverside.

Frank Plummer, residing on the Thos. G. Worth-Wilmer farm, in Queen Annes, has had a most successful season.

The reader can get some idea of the interest some folks take in the sport when Paul Comegys and several others drive from Millington such a day as Monday and start out in the gale to shoot at ducks. Even the blind was blown away.

Capt. Crane and several others bagged a lot of nice ducks off Primose Point, while others got a dozen closer to town.

Capt. C. E Crane while ducking last Friday morning on the Chester river fell overboard from his small boat and had a good bath of ice cold water. He walked home at once and has not suffered any bad effects from his sudden plunge.
