ROCK HALL

Under the auspices of the Seventh Day Adventist Society a very enjoyable entertainment was held in their church on Thursday evening of last week. Local leaders were in charge of the affair. About $26 was realized for the Red Cross service. An abundance of vegetables was disposed of for missionary use. The church had the appearance of patriotism and prosperity and was packed with an enthusiastic assembly.

Last Saturday's storm was the cause of considerable land along the bayside to be washed into the bay. The tide was almost a record breaker. The unoccupied dwelling on "Christian Hill," the property of Mr. Joseph Davis, was undermined and tumbled down the shore bank. The shore line of the lot washed away to the depth of 15 feet.

Our local baker, Mr. Epsey, has moved his bread and confectionary business from the store adjoining the postoffice to the J. A. Casey store. He has increased the size of his ten-cent loaves. He now sells for 7 and 10 cents the loaf.

The county authorities have shelled the public road between Green Lane and F. C. Wilkins' gate, which would be a good thing if the water could run off, and automobiles and teams would travel on the shells. Drivers are disposed to shy the shells by having their vehicles use the sides of the road as much as possible, thus making it more inconvenient and dangerous for pedestrains than ever.

The cold snap has put the oyster fraternity out of commission by blockading the harbors with ice.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad and loving remembrance of our dear mother, MARY L. CARR, who departed this life three years ago, the 18th day of this December.

She passed away like a gentle breeze,
With scarce a parting sigh;
She passed away from this dark world
To dwell with Christ on high.

Dearest mother, how we miss you,
Miss you more than tongue can tell,
Every hour and day that passes
Brings us nearer with you to dwell.

In the grave yard softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we love so dearly,
In her lone and silent grave.

Gone from earth, yes gone forever,
Tear dimmed eyes shall gaze in vain,
We shall never see her face, oh never,
Never more on earth again.

Farewell dear mother, may your slumber
Be as gentle as was your love.
And when God calls us homeward,
May we meet in Heaven above.

BY HER CHILDREN.

Doing One's Bit.—The slogan The National Association is driving home to us in the Red Cross Christmas seals. Every seal sold is a bullet in a winning war. Health is wealth. The seal is an educational campaign. No less than a means of raising money. Tuberculosis has fallen heavily on the nations at war. Only a one cent seal, borrowed from a Norwegian idea, in 1907, by The Red Cross of Wilmington, Del. In 1908 made the first general campaign thru the United States and netted $135 000. Last year over $1,000,000 was reached. Help make it exceed these figures this year. This means you.

MONEY IS PLENTIFUL

But It is Hard To Keep Without A Bank Account

¶ No matter how plentiful money may be, you cannot keep it if you fritter it away.

¶ And to carry money around in your pocket affords an ideal opportunity for frittering.

¶ Any man may spend a dollar foolishly from his pocket when he would hesitate to draw a check.

¶ Money is plentiful in this country—more so than in any other country of the globe.

¶ Make it plentiful for yourself by depositing it in this bank instead of frittering it away.
