

and the donation of rifle and money
said sale of team ~~never~~ having been reported to the Board of Police Commissioners, as required by law and the rules of the Department.

The Board began an investigation into the facts with respect to the transactions referred to above, and summoned the following persons before it:

Detective Wm. M. Atkinson,
Detective George W. Armstrong,
Detective Charles Weaver,
Detective Peter B. Bradley,
Detective George W. Davis
Mr. James R. Edmonds, Vice-President
National Bank of Commerce.

The statements of the foregoing named persons under oath were taken stenographically and are filed in connection with this minute as Exhibit No. 3033.

Eckert Diamond Case.
Rena Moore.
Mrs. John A. Boland.

In the matter of the disappearance of some diamonds said to belong to a Mr. Eckert, and reported November 21, 1901 by Rena Moore, then keeper of bawdy-house on Liberty street near Fayette, as having been stolen from her, which case has been revived recently and referred to in publications in the daily press within the past few days, and in connection with which case reflections have been cast on the Police Department, the Board summoned before it Mrs. John A. Boland, 310 E. 25th. street, and Patrolman Thomas P. O'Donnell, Northern District.

The statements of Mrs. Boland and Patrolman O'Donnell were taken stenographically and are filed in connection with this minute as Exhibit No. 3034.

Detective Harry M. Hammersla.

Patrolman Thomas P. O'Donnell was also questioned with respect to the supposed demand of Detective Harry M. Hammersla for $100. from Mr. Atkinson Bates for services, which matter is under investigation, as referred to in the proceedings of July 9, 11, and