

12, 1910.

His statement in relation to this matter is included in that made in the Board's inquiry into the Eckert Diamond case, referred to above, as Exhibit No. 3034.

---

Captain Edward Schleigh, Retired.

In the matter of complaint made by H. Wise & Son., 801-805 Pennsylvania avenue through Harman, Young, Knapp & Tacker, Attorneys, 708 Fidelity Building, upon the subject of the failure of Captain Edward Schleigh, retired, to liquidate indebtedness to the said firm, Captain Schleigh, retired, was summoned before the Board.

His statement upon the subject of this and other claims against him was taken stenographically and is filed in connection with this minute as Exhibit No. 3035.

Upon the promise of Captain Schleigh, retired to without delay make some arrangements with his creditors for the gradual liquidation of his indebtedness amounting to in all in the neighborhood of $200., further action in the matter was suspended

---

License, Private Detective.

It was ordered that license be granted to Edward L. Stallings, 807 Columbia avenue, to engage in the business of private detective, in the City of Baltimore, for the balance of year 1910.

---

Snyder's Saloon.
Bethel & Mullikin streets.

In the matter of saloon kept by one Snyder, Bethel & Mullikin streets, complained of by Charles W. Henderson, as violating the provisions of the liquor law, as referred to in the proceedings of May 31st., and June 16, 1910, Mr. Henderson again called upon the Board and stated that Snyder still continued to sell intoxicating liquor on Sundays, and that he had this day called the attention of